reply. DR. JOHNSTON.

DR. JOHNSION.

Dr. Johnson member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the mest eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greatest part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitais of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing curse that were ever known. Many troublest with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derauge ment of mind were cured immediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who having injured themselves by private and improper indulgencies, that secret and solitary habit which ruins both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melanchely energy produced by early habits of youth, viz. Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Fains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Paipliation of the Heart, Dyspesia, Norvous Irritability, Dorangement of the Digestive Functions, General Dahlitix.

Supermany, the fearful effects on the mind are quich to be dreaded.—Loss of Memorry, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion toxoclety, Belf-distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evil effects.

Thousands of persons of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their decline in health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough, and sympms of consumption.

who have injured themselves by a certain practice, in dijlyed in when slone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are alguly felt, even when saleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hopes of his country, the darling of his parents, should be enatched from all prespects and enjoyments of life by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and including in a certain secret habit. So he persons must, before contemplating effect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubiat happiness. Indeed without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pligrimage, the prospect hearly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another benelancholy reflection that the comes blighted with our own OR JOHNSON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR OR GANIO WEAKNESS.

By this great and important remedy, Weakness of the Organs are speedily cured, and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most nervous and doblitated whe had lost all hope, have been immediately rejeved. All impediments to Marriage, Physical or Mental Disqualitication, Nervous, Trembling, Weakness or Exhaustion or the most fearful kind, speedily cured. to Strangers.

TO STRANGERS.

The many thousands cured at this Institution within the last twelve years, and the numerous important Surgicus operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the reporters of the papers, and many other persons, accies of which have appeared again and again before the public, bettlet he standing as a gentleman of character and repossibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the sillicted.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.—When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, is too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, affecting the head, throat, nose, skin, couprogressing on with frightful rapidity, till deathoputs a period to his dreadful sulferings by sending him to "that bourns from whence and trayeler returns." It is a meinacholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terribic disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruit the constitution and make the residue of him miserable.

To Strangers.—The Doctor's Dipiomas hang in his To STRANGERS. - The Doctor's Diplomas hang in his House .-- Mr. Stevens stated that the army bill was based on estimates of war department, and that it was the desire of the committee of ways and means to finish their business in the least possible time. They could not wait for other committees to make their reports, as they hoped to complete their business so that the House might adjourn next Thursday. They are dis-ber of men. If the rebellion in the Southern States requires twice five hundred thousand men, I am for employing them, and the eighteen loyal Northern States will do the same thing. We intend that the Constitution and the Union shall be maintained; let treason assume what shape it may, and marked by whatever numbers, it shall not destroy either the one or the other. I trust in God the gentleman from Kentucky does not speak the sentiments of his own section, much less those of the entire State; but whether he does or not, I say frankly it matters not to those engaged in this work of preserving the Constitution and the Union, for whatever may be their action the government will be sustained and perform its legitimate offices. Mr. VALLANDIGHAM, (Ohio,) offered a proviso to the bill that no part of the money appropri-

Mr. Polk resumed his remarks. He said in the State of Missouri no law of the United States had been obstructed, and yet the State, under no pretext of law, had been invaded by United States troops from Iowa and Kansas.-He proceeded to argue that the President had Lyon, and in some detail to occurrences in St. Louis, which he characterized as illegal and unconstitutional, and also referred to the course of Gen.
