Monday Morning, July 15, 1861.

CAPT. W. HARVEY BROWN, of this city, assignad to the fourteenth regiment United States Infautry, (regular service,) which is ordered to endezvous at Fort Trumbull, is now at New London on his way to that station. Harvey is a good fellow and will make an excellent officer-

Rev. I. R. Gates, of Williamsport, was in this city on Friday, en route for Washington, where he expects to spend the Sabbath and ad. dress several of the regiments. It is probable that Mr. Gates will be appointed a Chaplain in the army, and a better man could not be selected for that position

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—The Fourth New Jersey A Good EXAMPLE.—Ine Fourth New Jersey regiment, at Washington, were paid off last week, and the men, instead of squandering their money in riot and licentiousness, sent it nome to their families.—Exchange Paper.

A great many of the soldiers at Camp Curtin instead of saving or sending their money home, squandered it for whiskey, upon which they ot drunk and disgraced themselves.

Mone Thoops. -The New York thirty-fifth regiment passed through this city on Saturay en route for Washington. The men are rmed with muskets, and equipped in United States uniforms. A full corps of drummer oys accompanies the regiment. Another New ork regiment, now on the road, will reach ere some time this evening.

ne arrest of a Philadelphia soldier, in connecon with others, for abusing a horse and breakng a wagon belonging to Mr. Locher. The fun " proved rather expensive, as the particiants were obliged to pay damages to avoid roing to prison. Robert, falling to profit by the esson taught him on that occasion, was again before Alderman Kline on Friday for drunkenters and disorderly conduct, and went to prison Another soldier, named James Wiljams, was put up for the same offence.

THE RETURNING VOLUNTEERS -A number of patriotic ladies in this city are busily engaged in making preparations to welcome our gallant colunteers on the day of their return home. The maintenture of the reception, so far as the ladies are concerned, will be a sumptuous bananet served up in Capitol Park, and the singing of "Home Again" and the "Star Spangled Banner" by twenty or thirty little girls. From res nt indications the boys will get the "bigest feed" on that occasion which they have adulged in since leaving Harrisburg. It is exected that they will return about the 20th of is month.

A Lover in Peril.-A few nights ago itend of ours, whose suburban residence is half adden in a little forest of shrubbery and shade rees, shortly after midnight heard the soft read of steps down the garden walk, and looking out saw a human figure winding softly around toward the gate. This was a very improper or at least suspicious hour, for a stranger to be prowling about his house, and to ascertain the meaning of the intruder's presence, our friend commanded him, in a loud voice, to stop or tell his business there. But no answering voice came from the departing figure. Our friend then raised his rifle and fired at the man, half seen among the leaves and branches. The shot, instead of bringing him to a halt, only frightened him into a swifter retreat. It subsequently became known that the nocturnal visitor was only a friend of "Bridget," to whom e had on this occasion been paying a rati

MILITARY PRINTERS HAVING THEIR JOKE .- A delegation of printers from the Twentieth Ohio regiment, now stationed at Fairmont, Va., have taken possession of the True Virginian printing office, in that town. Their first leading article was an invitation to the late editor, to come back —thus :

Men with military trappings now occupy once sat. They write Union articles with your secesh pen; they drink Union whisky out of your old bottle, Drinkard; and the devil wears or coat; and the pike you kept as a relic of John Brown at Harper's Ferry, the boys use now to cut your rules, and the paper and ink you prepared for secession purposes are now used to print army blanks upon. O, Drinkard! You cought to be here. How can you stay away?
Your types are set up for Union articles; your press prints them. And more than this, the Stars and Stripes float from your window; and we all know, from the files left in your sanctum, that this doesn't suit you. Come back, then, and take possession. Bring all your friends— Henry A. Wise, John Letcher, and the rest with you.

THE BOOK OF PSALMS. - One of our religious exchanges, alluding to the Book of Psalms as illustrated by and adapted to the present times, says: "How sublime a liturgy for the war have we in the book of Psalms. The battlesongs of Homer can not stir our souls for the conflict of to-day. These belong to the extinct is wholly of the past. The old war-songs of nationalities and races are local in their spirit and allusions, and can not be reviewed with the same effect in later times. But the Psalms are not for David, Palestine, Israel, alone. They speak to the heart of universal man. They exalt not kings, nations, governments, local and national divinities, but Jehovah, the Maker of the heavens and the earth, the King of Kings and Lord of lords. They celebrate not alone the triumphs of particular kings and cousness in the earth. The Providences of the hour is a new revelation of the significance of the book of Psalms. There is no longer any perplexity about even the Imprecatory Psalms. They explain themselves as not the maledictions of a revengeful spirit, but the cry of humble God-fearing souls for the vindication of truth and right against iniquity. God is now illustrated by the country of the armies, but the triumph of Justice and Right-

On Friday the father of Burns had McKibben pieces Broche Bordering very cheap. A large excepted as an accomplice and Alderman Per lot of bleached and unbleached Muslin. Now arrested as an accomplice, and Alderman Peffer bound him over to appear at the next court for trial.

Another Man Shot .- On Saturday a soldier named James Valiant, belonging to the Wayne Guards of Philadelphia, was shot near the military store house., It appears that a guard was sent to the city to arrest and take to camp all drunken stragglers, of whom this man was one. After his capture he broke away from the guard and attempted to make his escape, when one of them fired at him while running. the ball taking effect in his leg, inflicting a severe wound, and bringing him to the ground. The man was conveyed to camp where the ball was extracted. The wound is not considered dangerous, although it will disable the man for duty for several days.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT. Mr. Wm. A. Tarbutton, of this city, has been appointed Drill Magter at Camp Curtin, with the pay of a captain, and entered upon his duties on Saturday. Mr. Tarbutton has had much military experience, and we have the authority of competent judges for saying that he is admirably qualified for the position. It affords us sincere pleasure to announce his appointment. Major General M'Call has done himself credit, and the service a great benefit, by the selection of so estimable Pulled Again.—In our last issue we reported and competent a gentleman. We learn that Major Hershberger, who is succeeded by Mr. Tarbutton, voluntarily absented himself from his official duties and went away with the fifth

An Ex-Constable in Prison.—Some weeks ago George Garman, former constable of the fifth ward, was arrested on a charge of larceny, at the instance of Mr. Snyder, a lager beer selfer. Mr. George S. Kemble went security for his appearance at Court. Recently Garman enlisted in the Kepner Fencibles, and Mr. Kemble fearing that the company might be called into service before term-time, yesterday surrendered Garman, who was committed to prison. The circumstances connected with the larceny are as follow: A girl who was stopping with Snyder stole a considerable sum of money out of his bureau drawer, and Garman volunteered to recover it. He found the girl, terrified her into an acknowledgment of her guilt, and obtained the money, only a portion of which he returned to Mr. Snyder, retaining some twenty dollars. The girl and Garman are both to be tried at the next term, when the case will be fully ventilated.

A "Bully" Paper.—The gayest specimen of a newspaper that has found its way to our sanctum of late is The Loyal Citizen, which some unknown friend in the Missouri Federal Army sends us. It is "published by the printers of Company E, Second Regiment Iowa Volunteers," at Macon City, Missouri. The town was taken by our forces, the secessionists put to flight and the identical chair in which your peaceful body by our forces, the secessionists put to flight, and the printing office made to do loval work. The paper indicates, unconditionally for the Union. A few weeks ago we left our peaceful homes, not of our own choice, but in response to the call of our country, with a resolute determination to sustain, at all hazards, the constitution and large of the best the feast and met relegious and laws of the best, the freest and most glorious government ever formed by human skill; and if any of our readers think we are going to change our determination, they are very much mistaken. We are resolved that the glorious old Star Spangled Banner, the emblem of our nationality and the hope and pride of the world, shall float in triumph forever throughout this mighty nation; and wherever we see a traitor attempt to haul it down and hoist in its stead the contemptible secession rag, we will shoot him on the spot. This, citizens of Macon City, is, in brief, our position. Extending to all loyal citizens the right hand of fellowship, and promis wholly of the past. The old war-sones of ment of all their constitutional rights, we make our bow, and take our leave as editor of the no comment—it speaks for itself: EDITOR TRIEGRAPH:—I see by communica-tions to papers from other camps, that some of the soldiers late of Camp Curtin find fault with the citizens of Harrisburg. I am the oldest captain by commission and length of stay in Camp Curtin, and can truthfully and warmly bear witness that better treatment in camp, ble God-fearing souls for the vindication of truth and right against iniquity. God is now illustrating and demonstrating the inspiration of the Bible. No other book so well depicts our case, meats our wants, inspires our courage, uplifts our strength, guides, supports, comforts us.
