REGIMENT OF CAVALRY FROM PENNSYL VANIA.

We understand that the government at Washington has called on the authorities of Pennsylvania to furnish a regiment of cavalry forthwith. This affords a splendid opportunity to a TRAITORS SHOWING THEIR HANDS class of men in the old Keystone who have been debarred from serving in the infantry force of this state, to serve their country in the new regiment of cavalry.

We infer from this call that offers will at once be received by the state, of companies to ers of slaves as would be impoverished. fill up this regiment. The men are to be furnished with everything necessary to their equipment, horses and accoutrements of the best metal and quality.

In accordance with the plan of organizing all the regiments furnished by this State, the the relief of M. O. Roberts. new regiment of cavalry is to be organized in the most complete and efficient manner, and only those who are qualified will be accepted to serve.

VIGCROUS ACTION OF COL. BIDDLE

" WILD CAT" REGIMENT. Intelligence has been received here that Col. Charles J. Biddle, commanding one of the Pennsylvania reserve regiments, lately encamped at Cumberland, occupied New Creek bridge, Maryland, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Sunday last, by order of Gen. McClellan.

Lieutenant Colonel Kane, of the same regi directing the committee to institute an inquiry ment, occupied Piedmont, and Captain E. A. Irwin took the postat New Creek village. An Impostor. - The fellow Blessing, arrested yesterday for robbing Mr. Valentine of a considerable sum of money, at the White Hall Hotel, represented himself as a recruiting officer for Sherman's battery. By the following card from Lieut. Craft, it will be seen that Blessing is an impostor, having no connection whatever with Col. Sherman's regiment.

To the Editor of the Daily Telegraph :-- Allow me through your columns to contradict the assertion of the hotel thief calling himself John Lewis Blessing. On reading the paragraph, I was struck with the fellow's cool impudence, believing myself to be the recruiting officer of Colonel Sherman's regiment of artillery stationed in this place; and I have yet to find that I am

We wish it distinctly understood that we desire to enlist young men of good character only, as it is the intention of the commanding officer to make his regiment the crack regiment of the army, and he is able to do it. As the harvesting season is drawing to a close, a number of young men will necessarily be thrown out of employment, and here is just the chance, especially to intelligent young men, who can thus speedily rise to the rank of noncommissioned officers, without serving out a long enlistment in the ranks. My Rendezvous is Jauss' Hotel, South Second street.
