DR. JOHNSON

BALTIMORE

LOCK HOSPITAL.

HAS discovered the most certain, speedy and effectual remedy in the world for

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

RELIEF IN SIX TO TWELVE HOURS.

No Mercury or Noxious Drugs.

☞ A CURE WARRANTED, OR NO CHARGE, IN FROM ONE TO TWO DAYS. ☜

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Pains in the Loins, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, Decay of the Physical Powers, Dyspepsia, Langnor, Low Spirits, Confusion of ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Tremblings, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Stomach, Affections of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin—those terrible disorders arising from the indiscretion or Solitary Habits of Youth—those dreadful and destructive practises which produce constitutional debility, render marriage impossible, and destroy both body and mind.

YOUNG MEN.

Young men especially who have become the victims of solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talent and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE,

Married persons, or those contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, should immediately consult Dr. J., and be restored to perfect health.

ORGANIC WEAKNES

Immediately cured and full vigor restored.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J., may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Dr. Johnson member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greatest part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind were cured immediately,

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who having injured themselves by private and improper indulgencies, that secret and solitary habit which ruins both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.

MENTALLY, the fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded:—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evil effects.

Thousands of persons of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their decline in health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough, and symptoms of consumption.

who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are sightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hopes of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating effect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DR. JOHNSON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

By this great and important remedy, Weakness of the Organs are speedily cured, and full vigor restored.

Thousands of the most nervous and debilitated who had lost all hope, have been immediately relieved. All impediments to Marriage, Physical or Mental Disqualification, Nervous, Trembling, Weakness or Exhaustion of the most fearful kind, speedily cured.

TO STRANGERS.

The many thousands cured at this Institution within the last twelve years, and the numerous important Surgical operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the reporters of the papers, and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.—When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, affecting the head, throat, nose, skin, &c., progressing on with frightful rapidity, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.

To STRANGERS.—The Doctor's Diplomas hang in his office.

FROM OUR MORNING EDITION

NEW RIFLE REGIMENT.

We learn from Charlestown that Major Joseph F. Knipe, of this city, a member of Brigadier General Williams' staff, has recruited a new rifle regiment for the war from those about to disband. He will assume the command. The gallant Major has shown himself to be a man of "pluck," and those who know him will not doubt his competency for regimental command.

ARRIVAL OF A REGIMENT.

The seventh Pennsylvania reserve regiment arrived here from West Chester last evening and went to Camp Curtin, where they remained until eight o'clock this morning, when they left en route for Washington. The regiment will compare favorably with others from this State already in service. One of the companies contains a number of young men from Carlisle, late students in Dickinson College, who have shouldered muskets in defence of the stars and stripes. Col. Harvey, of Wilkesbarre, is in command of the regiment.

NEW VOLUNTEER COMPANY.

Our clever friend, Isaac S. Waterbury, who served his country faithfully for three months in the position of Adjutant of the second Pennsylvania regiment, is about raising a company to serve for three years or during the war, and a number of good men have already signed the roll. Others who intend re-enlisting, and desire to connect themselves with a first class company, commanded by a whole-souled man and competent officer, should avail themselves of this opportunity to do so. The roll of Capt. Waterbury's company will be open for signatures at the Walnut Street Exchange during the whole of to-day.

FIRST PENNSYLVANIA REGIMENT.

We learn by a dispatch from Harper's Ferry that two hundred and thirty men of the first regiment, (with which the Cameron Guards of this city are connected), left that place last night for Harrisburg via Baltimore. They will probably reach here some time this afternoon. The [illegible] regiment intend remaining with the division for the present. Whether the Cameron Guards constitute a portion of the returning party the dispatch does not state. The universal feeling in this community is that, under existing circumstances, the boys should continue in service, and strike at least one effective blow for the flag of their country.

PENNA. TROOPS FOR WASHINGTON.

The old Keystone has sent a reinforcement of about thirteen thousand equipped men to Washington within a few days. Three regiments left Camp Curtin yesterday, and others went from the Pittsburg, Easton and West Chester camps, most of them passing through this city. In the course of a few days Col. Geary's regiment, and the Merchant Troop, both of Philadelphia, will also leave for the seat of war. Thus far Pennsylvania has nobly responded to the call of the President, and should another requisition be made we have no doubt it will be promptly filled.

The fourth Wisconsin regiment left yesterday afternoon for Washington, and a regiment from New York passed through late in the evening en route for the same point.

RE-ENLISTMENT OF VOLUNTEERS.

Many of the three months' volunteers now here intend to re-enlist for the war. Most of the State Capital Guards of this city will do the same. Some of them complain of the incompetency of their commanding officers, and give this as a reason for their return. Judging from the condition of certain epauleted gentlemen who have been "splurging" on horseback for a few days past, these complaints are well founded. Men cannot be censured for declining to go into an engagement under drunken officers. Several companies are now in process of organization, and we have no doubt that a large proportion of the volunteers now in this city will re-enter the service. Isaac S. Waterbury, of our city, the late popular Adjutant of the second regiment, is raising a company, and from present indications the roll will be filled in the course of a day or two.

DINNER FOR THE SOLDIERS.

The ladies who have undertaken the management of the dinner to be served up to our returning volunteers, inform us that it will come off in Capital Park at an early day next week. Many of the ladies in this city, and a number in the adjoining rural districts, have volunteered to furnish supplies of substantial provisions, with such seasonable delicacies as the market affords, so that our gallant soldiers, who have endured much hardship and privation in the service of their country for three months past, may expect to fare sumptuously on that occasion. We are glad that the women of our city, at least, appreciate the patriotism of the men who were among the first in the State to respond to the call of their country, and take up arms in its defence, and many of whom are now preparing to rally again under the stars and stripes, and return to the tented field.

REBEL BATTERY ATTACKED.

LOUISVILLE, July 22.

The report of an attack on the battery at Cape Hatteras, by the steamer Wabash, is confirmed. It is also stated that an attack was made on Oregon Inlet, and the rebels dispersed by shells.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

CHANGE OF PROGRAMME.

Gen. M'Clellan to take Charge of the Army of the Potomac.

The Grand Army to be Reorganized and Increased.

Large Reinforcements on the Way to Washington.

ACTIVE DEFENSIVE PREPARATIONS.

Offensive Operations to be Resumed.

NO APPREHENSIONS FOR THE SAFETY OF THE CAPITAL.

THE BATTLE YESTERDAY.

The Slaughter not so Great as at First Reported.

RETURN OF SIX HUNDRED OF THE ELLSWORTH ZOUAVES.

GEN. WILCOX NOT DEAD.

WASHINGTON, July 22.

Gen. McClellan has been summoned by the government from Western Virginia to repair to Washington to take command of the army of the Potomac. Gen. Rosencrates takes his place in command of the army of Western Virginia.

The Corps de-Army at Washington is to be instantly reorganised and increased. The orders have already been given. Offers of regiments already raised and being made will be accepted with such rapidity as to insure that this will be accomplished in a few days. Large reinforcements from various districts are already on the way either, orders having been telegraphed for them yesterday while the battle was in progress.

The government entertains no apprehensions for the safety of the Capital. Preparations not offensive operations are going on vigorously. General McDowell has returned to his head quarters at Arlington Heights. The regiments comprising his army will resume their position, which most of them have already done.

SECOND DISPATCH.

Nine o'clock P. M.—The estimated number of killed and wounded in the battle of yesterday is gradually decreasing by arrivals from the woods and surrounding country. Six hundred of the Ellsworth Zouaves have already returned. It is now understood that Col. Wilcox, of the First Michigan regiment, acting Brigadier General, is not dead as reported but is badly wounded.

CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

IMPORTANT PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, July 22.

SENATE.—Mr. SIMMONS, (R. I.,) introduced an amendment to the bill to increase the revenue, etc. Referred to the committee on finance.

The bill to increase the medical corps of the navy was taken up and amended so as to provide for filling vacancies in the naval academy, and passed.

The bill to provide iron clad steam ships and floating batteries, passed.

The bill providing for the confiscation of property of rebels found in arms against the government was taken up.

Mr. TRUMBULL (Ill.,) offered an amendment providing that any person held to service or labor, employed in aiding the rebellion against the government, shall be forfeited to his master.

Mr. BRECKINRIDGE asked for the yeas and nays, which was agreed to.

Mr. TRUMBULL's amendment was agreed to.

Mr. TRUMBULL said he was glad the ayes and nays were called for. He wanted to see who would vote to allow the traitorous masters to employ slaves to shoot down Union men. If the Senator from Kentucky favored it, let him vote for it.

Mr. BRECKINRIDGE said the remarks of the Senator were not called for. He intended to do his duty according to his own idea of the Constitution.

Mr. WILSON, (Mass.,) said he should vote for it gladly. He thought the time had come when the Government should put a stop to traitors employing their bondmen to shoot down men fighting for their country—he hoped public sentiment would blast any Senator who defended traitors in doing such things.

Mr. BRECKINRIDGE said he supposed the Senator was doing what he believed to be his duty, and he (Mr. B.) should do the same thing; and when the Senator attempted to deter him from doing his duty, by intimating that public opinion here or elsewhere would blast him for doing what conscience said was right, he talks to the winds. He would use no unparliamentary language, but the Senator knows it is perfectly idle to make such attempts.

Mr. PEARCE (Md.) thought it best to use all the liberality possible. The measure would not be of any real value.

The amendment was agreed to—yeas 32, nays 9. Messrs. Breckinridge, Johnson, (Missouri,) Kennedy, Pearce, Polk and Powell voting negatively. The bill then passed.

Mr. FESSENDEN, (Me.,) from the committee on finance, reported a bill supplementary to the act authorizing a national loan, which passed.

Mr. MCDOUGAL, (Cal.,) offered a resolution that it is the policy of the government to organize an army of one hundred and fifty thousand men on the basis of the regular army. Referred to the committee on military affairs.

The joint resolution approving of the acts of the President was postponed.

The Senate then went into executive session.

After the doors were opened, the bill to increase the military establishment, which had been returned from the House with amendments, was taken up, and the Senate refused to concur with the House.

The resolution to pay the widow of the late Senator Douglas was returned from the House with an amendment to pay her $1,080 for mileage The Senate refused to concur.

Mr. WILSON, (Mass.,) introduced a bill in addition to the act authorizing the employment of volunteers, which was laid over. A message was received from the President, and after another executive session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. STEPHENS, Ways and Means, reported a bill to refund duties on arms imported by the States. Passed.

Mr. BLAIR, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill for the organization of a volunteer home guard to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting property in the several States where such may be deemed necessary, and arming the same. Ordered to be printed.

Mr. VANDEVER asked leave to offer a resolution that the maintenance of the Union and the preservation of the Constitution is a sacred trust which must be executed; that no disaster shall discourage us from the performance of this high duty; and we pledge the employment of every means for the suppression, overthrow and punishment of the rebels now in arms.

Mr. STEVENS not believing that such resolutions from either side would do any good, or strengthen our hands, objected to the introduction of the resolution.

Mr. M'CLERNAND having propounded a question as to the bill for the increasing of the regular army, &c., Mr. BLAIR responded by saying that the Senate passed the bill adding new regiments, but the House amended it by substituting their own, providing for volunteers instead. The latter bill has gone to the Senate, where both now are.

Mr. CRITTENDEN introduced the resolution offered by him last week. First resolution, that the present deplorable civil war was forced on the country by the disunionists of the southern States now in revolt against the Constitutional Government and in arms around the Capital. Adopted—yeas 121, against two, namely Barnett and Reed, Missouri. The remainder of the resolutions were adopted, one hundred and seventeen against, two for, namely, Potter and Mitchell.

On motion of Mr. TRAIN a resolution was adopted tendering the thanks of the House to the Sixth Massachusetts regiment for their alacrity in responding to a call of the President, and their patriotism and bravery on the nineteenth of April, in fighting their way through the city of Baltimore while marching to defend the Federal Capital.

Mr. CAMPBELL offered a resolution which was passed that the thanks of Congress be tendered to the five hundred and twenty Pennsylvanians who passed through the mob of Baltimore and reached Washington on the 18th of April in defence of the National Capital.

Mr. WRIGHT offered a resolution declaring that the reverse of our army on the twenty-first, and the full run caused by the rebel army, in no manner impaired our ultimate success in that love of the Union and the Constitution so dear to twenty millions of people, and calling on all loyal citizens to respond by furnishing men and money. Laid on the table.

Mr. VANDEVER's resolution, above referred to, was again offered and passed.

On motion of Mr. COX, Resolved, that the President of the United States, if compatible with the public interest, communicate to this House all, or such portions as he may deem advisable, of the correspondence on file in the Department of State, between this Government and all foreign Powers, from '58 to the present time, with reference to the maritime rights.

Mr. WICKCLIFFE offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of War to inform the House whether the Southern Confederacy, or any State thereof, has in its military service any Indians, and if so, what is their number and tribe.

Mr. ELLIOT objected. We have no knowledge of a Southern Confederacy.

Mr. LOVEJOY. Say rebels.

Mr. WICKCLIFFE, responding to a suggestion, modified his resolution by saying "so-called Southern Confederacy."

Mr. DUNN. I move to extend the inquiry to negroes.

Mr. WICKCLIFFE. I have not been informed that they have negroes in service.

Mr. DUNN. I have; and they shot down our men yesterday.

Mr. DUNN's amendment was adopted, and the resolution passed.

Mr. HORTON, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill to appoint an authorised agent, to ascertain the costs, charges and expenses of property incurred by said State for arming, equipping, transporting, &c., its troops in aiding and suppressing the present insurrection against the United States. Passed.

PRIVATEERS OFF HATTERAS.

NEW YORK, July, 22.

The British schooner Teviot, from Nassau (N. P.) reports, off Hatteras, on the 19th, she was chased by a private schooner, who fired twice. When the schooner was hove too she was allowed to proceed on her nationality being ascertained. The pirate was a pilot boat about fifty feet long, painted deep lead color, and copper bottomed. No name on her stern. She had a long gun amidships and was manned by thirty men. The Teviot also reports seeing a steamer off the Hole in the Wall, which made for the schooner, but afterwards shaped her course for the Hole in the Wall.

COL. GEARY'S REGIMENT TO MARCH.

PHILADELPHIA, July 22.

The Twenty-eighth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, now encamped at Camp Coleman, Oxford Park, will break up camp about the middle of the present week. Col. Geary has received instructions from General Scott to proceed to Harper's Ferry, and cross into the valley of the Shenandoah to join the army under General Patterson. The Enfield rifles are now being inspected for the command at the Bridesburg Arsenal, and immediately upon their receipt, the regiment will take up its march.

REBEL ACCOUNT OF THE BATTLE.

NEW ORLEANS, July 22

Despatches from Richmond, dated last evening, state that a battle had commenced near Manassas Junction, at four o'clock in the morning, and became general about seven o'clock, when the Federalists retired, leaving us in possession of the field. Sherman's celebrated battery of light artillery was taken. The battle was terrible, with great slaughter on both sides. It is impossible to furnish details.

ARRIVAL OF A STEAMER.

FARTHER POINT, July 22.

The steamship North American, from Liverpool on the 11th, via Londondery on the 12th, passed here to-day. She has 174 passengers and £50,000 in specie.
