DR. JOHNSTON.

DR. JOHNSTON.
Dr. Johnson member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the meet eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greatest part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and disewhere, has effected some of the most actualising cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the cars and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bushfulness, with frequent blushing, atteided sometimes with darangement of mind were cured immediately,

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. dresses all those who having injured them-ix a: te and improper indulgencies, that secret is made which ruins both body and mind, un-and solling cablt which ruins both body and mind, un-fitting them for either business or society.

These are seen of the sed and mulancholy ear at semi-duced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Bock and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Paiphation of the Heart, Dys-geness, Nervous-Erritability, Derangement of the Digestic Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consump-tion for MENTALLY, the fearful effects on the mind are much to be areaded :—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Drorossion of Spirits, Evil Forebedings, Aversion to Society, Self-distrust, Love of Solitotic, Timidity, Sc., are some of the ovil effects.

Thousands of persons of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their decline in health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough, and sympms of consumption. ms of consumption.

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, in Julyed in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evit companions, or at school, the effects of which are neightly feit, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hopes of his country, the darling of his parents, should be statched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequences of devating from the path of nature, and indulging in certain secret habit. Such persons must, before context blating

DR. JOHNSON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR OR. GANIC WEAKNESS.

By this great and important remedy, Weakness of the legans are speedily cured, and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most nervous and debilitated whe and uses an arge, mayo seem managamay reneved. All ampediments to Marriage, Physical or Mental Disqualifi-sation, Nervous, Trembiling, Weakness or Exhaustion or the most fearful kind, speedily cured. TO STRANGERS.

TO STRAMMERS.

The many thousands cared at this institution within the last twelve years, and the numerous important Surgical operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the reprinters of the papers, and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, issues the standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.—When the misguided and imprudent votery of pleasure finds he has imbibed the socie of this painful disease, it too often happens that the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or aread of discovery determ time from applying to those who, from education and respectability can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, affecting the head, threat, nose, skin, doo, progressing on with frightful rapidity, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to "that bourne from whemes no traveler returns." It is a meincholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskithliness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly potent, mercury, ruis the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.

She saw many of our dead unburied as she passed over the battle field, and distinguished some of them by their uniforms. She says the enemy's force is very large at Manassas, and that the officers are very busy drilling and disciplining the troops; that Gen. Beauregard is constantly on the move, going from one part of the camp to the other, and arranging, as they say, for some great movement, She reports that a large force of the enemy is at Fairfax

Unanimous Action in Favor of Staying.

BALTINOBE July 27. General Dix addressed the members of the National Guard this morning appealing to them for the sake of their country's interests, which demanded every sacrifice at this time, to remain a few days longer at their camp until his arrangements had been perfected. If any of the men had urgent business and domestic calls which would require their immediate personal attention, he would freely grant them passes to Philadelphia, but he would request, the regiment to remain until Wednesday next when they would certainly be allowed to zeturn home. After the Genl. had closed his indpeal, Col. Lyle put the question, those, in the negative to order arms and those in the affirmative to present them. Every arm was presented, and at the instance of the General three rousing

MORE THAN 1500 REBELS WOUNDED.

Mrs. Hinsdale, whose husband is a member of the Second regiment, which is now on the Virginia side of the Potomac, has returned from Manassas Junction. She was at Centreville during the engagement on Sunday, and waited there for the return of the soldiers, looking for her husband. Failing to see him she supposed him a prisoner at Manassas. The enemy captured her, and conveyed her thither and employed her as hospital nurse. On Thursday she 36 procured a pass from Gen. Beauregard and his consent to leave. She walked to Alexandria, where she arrived this morning fatigued and exhausted. Her husband was not a prisoner, but returned with his regiment. She reports as being at the Junction a large number of our

to their friends, and says that the wounded are well cared for. The offer of liberty has been granted to those who will take an outh not to again take up arms against the Confederates. A

Of the prisoners in the hospital are Henry L. Perrin and Lieut. Underhill, of New York who are employed as hospital stewards; E. F Taylor, of New Jersey, Surgeon Quarter Master; C. J. Murphy, Dr. Swift, John Bagley and Verndenburg, of the Fourteenth New York are in the hospital; surgeon Cuxton, of the Fifth Maine, and the surgeons of the Thirty-eighth New York, First Minnesota and Third United States unfortunately are prisoners. They were all taken at our hospital near the battle field. Mrs. Hinsdale says that the confederates buried their dead as fast as they could be recovered, and that the enemy represented they had
