XXXVIIth Congress--Extra Session.

[CONCLUSION OF TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.]

WASHINGTON, July 80. SENATE.—After the conclusion of Mr. Pearce's speech on the joint resolution approving of the acts of the President, the resolution was postnoned until to-morrow. The tariff bill was then taken up and passed yeas 22, nays 18.

On motion of Mr. TRUMBULL the bill to suppress insurrection was taken up. Mr. Carlisle, Virginia, moved to strike out the eighth section of the bill, which provides that the military commander of a district shall cause suspected persons to be brought before Rebels Taking Soundings on the him, and administer the oath of allegiance to them. On their refusal to take such oath he may detain them as prisoners.

Mr. Carlists said this was giving great power to a commander, which might do considerable injury. The men who are disposed to aid this effort to overthrow this Government, pay no attention to an oath.

A message was received from the House announcing the passage of the tax bill, and a joint resolution to adjourn on Friday.

The tax bill was taken up, and on motion referred to the committee on finance.

Mr. Cowan (Pa.) thought it was not necessary to make a new law for military commanders. iThe enemies of the country have no rights. under the law of the country. They have cut themselves offfrom all such rights. A military commander has but to carry out the laws of the country. As they are rebels they have no right to claim the benefit of the writ of habeas corpus. He was opposed to the bill.

Mr. BAYARD [Dal) moved to posspone the Col. Anderson at Washington. further consideration of the bill till to-morrow. Mr. Freeznow (Me.) remarked that if the bill was postponed at all, he hoped it would be indefinitely. After further discussion the consideration of the bill was postponed till to which Р. M.

A message was received from House that that branch had disagreed to the Senzte's amendments to the Tariff bill, and saked a committee of conference. A committee was appointed.

Mr. HALE, (N. H.) made a report from the Committee of Conference on the bill to provide ron clad steamers. A long discussion ensued on the question of agreeing to the report, in regard to the amendment to include the ships not yet completed, in the provisions of the bill having reference to Stevens' battery.

On voting, and it being found that a quorum s not present, the Senate adjourned.

House.-Mr. Rice (Mass.,) from the Nava Committee, reported a bill authorizing the conside, they would soon wish themselves back struction of twelve small side wheel steamers of light draught and great swiftness, and appropriating twelve hundred thousand dollars for this purpose.

Mr. Rice said our naval force was inadequate o maintain an effective blockade and the suppression of privateering. Mr. Shirk was then sworn in.

Mr. Porres, (Wis.,) from the select committee appointed to ascertain the number of persons now employed in the several departments who are known to entertain sentiments of hostility to the government and have refused to take the oath of allegiance, made a report in part, stating that they had given due attention to the subject but had scarcely advanced to the threshold of inquiry.

Having found it impossible to complete their investigation, the Committee asked leave to confinite the same during the recess of Congress, with power to take testimony. This request was agreed to. Mr. JULIAN (Ind.) asked leave to introduce resolution declaring that the retention of such disloyal persons in office should receive the Courtesies elegant as they have been unusual in the history of the private soldier, and ministered by the fairest of the women of Carlisle, have been showered on the bronzed volunteer. The men who but a week ago were beyond the Potomac, where, they say, secession has blighted even the exhaustless pity of woman, and made fiends of the men, now feel and manifest their appreciation of the kindness of our people. God bless the volunteers of our old State. If they have not been permitted to do all their hearts hoped, or our country's needs demanded, they have done much-indeed they have done all their commanders asked of them, and done it cheer-in the fully and bravely.
