HARRISBURG, PA.

Saturday Morning, August 3, 1861.

THE CAMERON GUARDS will meet at the Exchange this morning at eight o'clock. A full and punctual attendance is desired.

THE UNION PRAYER MEETING will be held in the Presbyterian Church, corner of Market square, this (Saturday) afternoon, commencing at four o'clock, as usual.

PASSAGE OF ARTILLERY.—A number of cannon and caissons, ambulances, &c., have passed over the Northern Central Railroad, within a few days, to Washington, where all the available batteries in this State are to be concentrated as rapidly as they can be transported.

ARRESTED ON TWO CHARGES.—A woman named Leah Felix was arrested on Thursday afternoon, by Officer Cole, for keeping a disorderly house in Verbetown, and also for stealing a medal valued at twenty-five dollars. Alderman McFarlane, of the sixth ward, committed her for trial.

DEGREE CONFERRED.—At the late commencement of the Franklin and Marshall College, in the city of Lancaster, the degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon our fellow citizen Joshua M. Westling, Esq., a graduate of the institution. A well merited compliment.

MAN STABBED.—A row occurred on Thursday afternoon at the Bull's Head tavern, near the upper winding bridge, among a party of drunken soldiers, one of whom was stabbed in the leg with a bayonet. As the "special" police do not circulate in the suburban districts of the city, no arrests were made.

WASHINGTON RIFLES.—The people of Lykens-town have made arrangements to honor the members of this company with a public reception on their return home. The Rifles were among the first in this section of the State to rally in defence of the country, and behaved like gentlemen and true soldiers during their three months' service, doing credit to themselves and the country. The "boys" richly deserve an enthusiastic public welcome. The company left for home this yesterday morning.

THE NEW ARTILLERY REGIMENT.—The First Artillery Reserve Regiment of Pennsylvania, now in Camp Curtin, has been organized by the election of the following field officers: Colonel—Richard Henry Rush, of Philadelphia. Lieut. Colonel—Charles T. Campbell, of Chambersburg. Senior Major—Alfred E. Lewis, of York. Junior Major—H. T. Danforth, of Pittsburg. This new regiment, which is now supplied with effective batteries, will soon proceed to the seat of war at Washington.

SUBORNS FOR PENNSYLVANIA REGIMENTS.—Among the last acts of our recent Legislature was one removing the power of appointing Surgeons from the Colonels of regiments, and requiring all candidates for this important post to be examined by the Surgeon General and a Board of Examiners, their professional qualifications being reported to the Governor in the order of merit. Under this law, all the regimental Surgeons of the Pennsylvania reserve volunteer corps have been examined and appointed, and we are pleased to learn that the same course is to be pursued hereafter in regard to all other regiments. In order to supply the ten regiments demanded in the last requisition of the President, a Medical Board convenes at Harrisburg on Tuesday next, at nine o'clock, A. M., in the House of Representatives.

SOLDIERS ROBBED.—The pickpockets have operated extensively and successfully among the paid-off soldiers for several days past, robbing many of them of their hard-earned money. We heard of numerous instances of pocket picking on the streets yesterday afternoon; and last night a number of inebriated volunteers, while "lying around loose" on door steps and in the Capitol grounds, were robbed of their entire three months' pay, and are now as destitute as when they arrived in this city. An officer, whose name we did not learn, lost a pocket book containing between one and two hundred dollars. It was taken while he stood on the street surrounded by a crowd of excited men clamoring for their pay. Most of these robberies were perpetrated by professional "knucks," disguised as soldiers, who have been bobbing around since the payment of the soldiers commenced, on the look-out for victims. It is safe to say that hundreds of dollars have been stolen from volunteers within the last week; and we feel but little sympathy for those who get drunk and lie down on the street with money in their pockets.

THE EFFECT OF THE WAR UPON THE BOYS.—That was a narrow philosophy which inferred from war no results but evil, for in the economy of society it so happens that the sternest virtues arise out of vice. To note a normal effect of the struggle, we have but to remark the a tring up of the youth of the land in consequence of the great military movements around us. The boys were fast degenerating under the old regime of peace. Their rivalries had little of the physical in them, and in place of the contests of embryo speculators, bookkeepers and writers. In other words, we were growing as artificial as possible, and the enervating influences of peace had extended even to the sterile hills and mountains. But the war has awakened a better ambition, and tempered with mental a bodily education. The young men are familiarizing themselves with the musket, and undergoing the fatigues of drill and encampment. Throughout the town we see the children parading. Books for the time are laid aside, and if the fight goes on in a few years, we may see infused into the organization of our society a hardy, inflexible courage, which will go far to reclaim the North from its libellous cowardice, and make the people equal for all purposes of aggressive and defensive war. Let the war go on.

NEW COMPANY.—We learn that first Lieutenant John A. Rodgers, of company B. of the tenth regiment, has been transferred to the command of it and is now engaged in filling up a Lancaster county company, to be attached to Col. Joseph F. Knipe's regiment, under the late requisition for ten new regiments.

REORGANIZATION OF A REGIMENT.—We learn that since the arrival of the eleventh regiment in Harrisburg it has been reorganized and tendered to the government for the war. Lieut. Colonel Richard Coulter was chosen Colonel, Major Wm. D. Ernest, of this city, Lieutenant Colonel, and F. E. Embick, of Williamsport, Adjutant. The companies will go home to recruit, and return to Harrisburg as soon as they can be filled up and reorganized.

NO JUBILEE THIS YEAR.—For several years past the colored people of this city have regularly celebrated the anniversary of the West India Emancipation, which occurs on the first of August, by a grand public parade and other jubilant demonstrations. This year the day was permitted to pass by unhonored by any public jubilee. A picnic party was substituted for the usual parade and display, and we have no doubt our colored friends enjoyed themselves immensely in the woods yesterday.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A man whose name has not reached us, was run over near Altoona by the express train, the other day, and almost instantly killed. He was walking on the track at the time, and was not discovered by the engineer until the train was right upon him. His head was crushed to a pulp, and his body frightfully mangled. The train was stopped, and the deceased picked up, but he was then beyond the reach of human aid, and he died in a few minutes. It was thought that he was intoxicated, otherwise he would scarcely have remained on the track, but to this there is no proof. The body was taken to Altoona.

COMMENDABLE.—We take pleasure in referring to the fact that while most of the liquor dealers in our city promptly took advantage of the revocation of the Mayor's order to re-open their bars and resume the indiscriminate sale of liquid poison, thereby causing disorder and riot, and endangering the lives and property of our citizens, Col. John H. Brant continues to keep his hotel closed and permits no one to enter. We notice that the extensive liquor store of Col. John H. Ziegler, in Market street, is also closed and business entirely suspended. The course of these gentlemen is worthy of the highest commendation, and we feel justified in tendering them the thanks of all law-and-order-loving citizens.

STORMING OF A DEN.—A few days ago we noticed the storming of a den in the rear of the Capitol by a party of soldiers, the destruction of the furniture, and the forcible ejection of the female occupants. The house was subsequently converted into a barracks for the soldiers and is now used for that purpose. It is currently rumored that the proprietress of a rival institution in North street, disguised in male apparel, led the storming party to the attack on Fort Allen, and took an active part in demolishing the furniture. What action will be taken by the owners of the damaged tenement remains to be seen. We hear it intimated that the late patrons of the dismantled fort contemplate retaliatory measures, and are making preparations for an attack upon and general demolition of the North street institution.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.—The injunction upon the taverns and beer shops was removed yesterday, and whisky and lager again flows in continuous streams. As a natural consequence the city was overrun with drunken soldiers last night, who kept up their boisterous revels until a late hour, to the alarm and annoyance of citizens. Riotous demonstrations occurred in various localities; free fights were the order of the night; and pickpockets, taking advantage of the inebriated condition of the soldiers, robbed them with impunity. Private houses were invaded by squads of drunken ruffians, and families grossly insulted and threatened with personal injury. Had the grog shops been kept closed for the balance of the week, in accordance with the almost unanimous desire of our citizens, this disorderly state of affairs would have been prevented.

ACCIDENT AND DEATH FROM THE PREMATURE EXPLOSION OF A CANNON.—On the occasion of the return of the York volunteers, a few days ago, a terrible accident occurred from the premature explosion of a cannon, during the firing of a salute. Two young men who were engaged in ramming home the charge at the time of the explosion were horribly disfigured, while a third who was standing over the touch hole had his face terribly burned. The gun was pointed in an eastern direction, elevated in a somewhat horizontal position, and the rammer was thrown clear across to the station house at the depot, a distance of about a quarter of a mile, and in its descent struck an old gentleman named John Fisher in the head, who was standing in the crowd congregated at that point awaiting the arrival of the troops, and almost instantly killed. The old gentleman was taken to an adjoining building, where he died in ten or fifteen minutes afterwards.

PUGILISTIC.—In our last issue we noticed a beastly exhibition of pugilistic skill between a Welchman and Irishman, which occurred in State street on Wednesday evening, and resulted in what the "fancy" term a "drawn fight." The friends of the rival pugilists insisted upon a repetition of the "mill," which took place last evening in an open field in the upper section of the city, and was witnessed by a large number of spectators, mostly of the "fancy" stripe. A ring was formed, seconds appointed, and all the formalities usual on such occasions strictly observed. Several rounds were fought, in which the combatants exhibited considerable pugilistic skill. Bets were freely offered on the Irishman, who seemed to have the most friends; but the Welchman proved himself the "best man," and was declared the victor. His opponent left the field badly damaged. No attempt was made by the "special" police to stop this brutal exhibition or to arrest the parties concerned in it.

PUBLIC INDECENCY.—A drunken soldier named John Kern was arrested by Mr. James Lewis Friday morning for acts of public indecency and insulting women. Alderman Kline sent him to prison.

WOOD BURNED.—Some days ago the sparks from the fast freight set fire to a lot of wood on the Pennsylvania Railroad, between Derry and St. Clair station, and before it could be quenched, consumed from one hundred to one hundred and twenty-five cords.

RETURN OF THANKS.—The officers and privates of Company F, eleventh regiment, who have been quartered in the Exchange for some time, beg leave to return their sincere thanks to Mrs. A. J. Herr and Sheriff Boas for the many kindnesses shown them in cooking their rations, &c. They will be gratefully remembered.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A son of the green isle, named James O'Bryan, who had been indulging freely in fighting whisky, and felt like whipping all creation, assaulted John W. Chronister and pitched into him somewhat roughly. Officer Fleck captured the pugilistic Irishman and introduced him to Alderman Kline, who committed him to prison for trial.

A SHARP DODGE.—A fellow named Albert Perham stopped at the State Capital Hotel recently, and deposited with the proprietor a barrel of maple sugar in payment of his board. After "uplurging" here for a few days, the fellow suddenly disappeared, taking with him the barrel of sugar, which he managed to get possession of, and leaving the landlord "minus" the pay for his entertainment. We give the rascal the benefit of this gratuitous notice, and caution other landlords to be on the look-out for him.

TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—ONE MAN KILLED.—A terrible accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad at a place called Manunkynear M. Veytown, Thursday morning. The passenger train, with two locomotives attached, which left here at three o'clock, ran off the track at the place named, one of the locomotives going down a steep embankment and the other in an opposite direction. Both were entirely demolished and seven cars smashed up. One freeman was severely scalded and the baggage master slightly injured. A soldier, standing on the bumper of a car, was instantly killed, another had his nose cut off, and several were bruised and otherwise injured. We did not learn the cause of the run off.

AN EXPENSIVE JOKE.—On Thursday an officer of one of the returning companies charged a personal friend, a member of the medical profession, with robbing him of a twenty dollar gold piece, and made oath before Alderman Kline to that effect. It appears that the officer had a large amount of gold and silver coin upon a table in a room of his hotel, and the Doctor, by way of a "joke," as he alleged, grabbed a handful of the glittering coins off the table, and immediately restored them. Upon counting the money the officer found a twenty dollar gold piece missing, and charged the Doctor with having retained it. The latter persistently denied the charge, which led to the information before Alderman Kline. The Doctor finally consented to pay the officer twenty dollars, by way of "compromise," when the case was dismissed. Rather a serious and expensive "joke" for the disciple of Esculapius.

SIXTH WISCONSIN REGIMENT.—This fine regiment, numbering one thousand and sixty-two rank and file, reached here by the Pennsylvania Railroad from Madison, Wisconsin, on the 80th ult. and went into camp on the premises of Messrs. Bates & Hummel, between the railroad and canal, about two miles from the railroad station and east of Camp Curtin. The following is the list of the regimental officers: Colonel—L. Cutler. Lieutenant Colonel—J. P. Atwood. Major—B. J. Sweet. Adjutant—F. A. Haskell. Quarter Master—L. N. Mason. Surgeon—C. B. Chapman. Chaplain—N. A. Staples. Assistant Chaplain—A. W. Preston. Sergeant Major—M. H. Fitch. Hospital Steward—C. P. Chapman. Quartermaster Sergeant—E. F. Brooks. Commissary Sergeant—F. K. Jenkins. Drum Major—Wm. Whaley. Adjutant Clerk—C. S. Hill.

This regiment is under marching orders for Harper's Ferry to join General Banks' army, and will march as soon as conveyance for the sick can be provided. The long march, excessive hot weather, and the indulgence of green fruit and greener lemonade, pies, cakes and ice cream sold by camp followers outside of camp, has caused many cases of diarrhoea. A few are down with measles. A private of company E died last night from no disease except that caused by bad whisky. He was an old hard drinker and the first attack of illness speedily carried him off, medicine being powerless on his system. Such cases should be a caution to all soldiers, their chances of life being greatly lessened by such bad habits.

This regiment has now been encamped here several days, and not a case of drunkenness has occurred in the regiment, although their camp is by the side of the stock yard and tavern of Mr. Bartlett, just outside of the city limits, not controlled by the Mayor's proclamation; and which is dealt out there without stint. The troops furnished by Wisconsin are well equipped and clothed—are furnished with an extra Assistant Surgeon, a man to take care of the sick and disabled, an agent to precede each regiment and provide quarters, water and other necessities, all at the expense of the State, the Executive being of the opinion that the trifling expenditure requisite to supply these things is a judicious and economical expenditure that the soldiers are entitled to receive, and of which they, as tax payers, pay their proportion.
