OUR PLATFORM THE UNION—THE CONSTITUTION—AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW.

HARRISBURG, PA. Thursday Morning, August 8, 1861.

CONDITION OF THE REGULAR ARMY.

The regular army of the United States at this date consists of about twenty-two thousand men. Of the old regular regiments, many have been decimated by various causes.

WE LEARN FROM WASHINGTON

That since the late battles that have resulted in a manner disastrously to our arms, a large number of officers have resigned, while several who have heretofore aspired to command are now willing to enter the ranks to be commanded.

A CAUCUS OF TRAITORS

in the Maryland Legislature have resolved to call a Convention to assemble in Baltimore on Tuesday, Sept. 10, for the purpose of devising means to oppose the war policy of the Federal Administration.

BRIGADIER GENERAL FIERCE

is out in the Boston papers with a statement in regard to the Big Bethel fight, in which he asserts that he acted under explicit orders, but that the plan of attack and orders accompanying it betrayed a want of knowledge of the enemy's position and numbers.

After the battle had taken place and public opinion had fastened on me the opprobrium of the defeat, I applied for a court of inquiry, that I might be set right and the blame, if any, rest on the proper officer.

THE MILITARY COMMISSIONERS created for the examination of newly appointed officers in the army, have resolved that the following requisitions should form a basis of the standard of qualification before an officer can be entitled to hold a commission.

WE REVISIT the battle of Bull Run, which we were daily treated by the Washington correspondents to narratives from a "reliable gentleman," just from Manassas or Richmond.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE says that when General Garnett was killed by our troops in western Virginia, his body was taken care of, embalmed and sent home to his friends.

THE FIELD AND REGIMENTAL OFFICERS KILLED AND WOUNDED AT BULL RUN. From late southern papers we make up the following list of field and regimental officers killed at the battle of Bull Run.

CONFEDERATE OFFICERS KILLED. General Bernard E. Bee, South Carolina. Colonel D. E. MacRae, North Carolina.

FEDERAL OFFICERS KILLED. Col. Cameron, Seventy-ninth New York. Col. John S. Slocum, Second Rhode Island.

FEDERAL OFFICERS WOUNDED. Major Sullivan Ballou, Second Rhode Island. Lt. Col. John A. Creiger, Fire Zouaves.

THE TAX FOR WAR PURPOSES. A bill has passed both houses of Congress, and is now a law, taxing certain incomes and properties.

THE TAX ON CARRIAGES AND WATCHES. Sec. 58. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said first day of April next, there shall be paid the following yearly duties upon every carriage.

REGISTRATION OF CARRIAGES AND WATCHES. Sec. 59. Be it further enacted, That every person having or keeping such watch or carriage as the owner thereof, or having the charge, custody or possession of the same as the agent of the owner, shall, on said first day of April next, and yearly thereafter, make and subscribe a true and exact entry thereof.

REGISTRATION OF CARRIAGES AND WATCHES. Sec. 59. Be it further enacted, That every person having or keeping such watch or carriage as the owner thereof, or having the charge, custody or possession of the same as the agent of the owner, shall, on said first day of April next, and yearly thereafter, make and subscribe a true and exact entry thereof.

tor to attend, within said month of April in each year, at three or more of the most public and convenient places in each county, within his respective districts, to give to the public notice, at least ten days previous to such days, of the time and place of such attendance.

Sec. 60. And be it further enacted, That any person who, after the month of April in any year, shall commence the having or keeping of any watch or carriage subject to duty, shall and may, at any time during thirty days after he shall so commence the having or keeping of such watch or carriage, make like entry and payment in manner before prescribed.

Sec. 61. And be it further enacted, That any person having such watch or carriage as he owns, or who has the charge, custody or possession of the same as the agent of the owner, shall make an untrue or defective entry, to evade the whole or any part of the rate or duty justly and truly payable thereon.

Sec. 62. And be it further enacted, That if, in the execution of this act, any question shall arise whether any person is lawfully employed in the transportation of merchandise, such carriage shall be deemed not to be so employed unless proof to the contrary be adduced by the owner or keeper thereof.

Sec. 64. And be it further enacted, That persons earning or having profits, gains and incomes, in their own right, or in trust, and all companies, institutions, associations, corporations or not corporate, and corporations, earning or having profits, gains and incomes, which profits, gains and incomes are or shall be derived from sources other than the property by this act subjected to a direct tax.

MOVEMENTS OF PRINCE NAPOLEON. Prince Napoleon left Washington on a visit to Mount Vernon, but not reaching the ranch Minister's residence up to midnight, a report prevailed that he had been captured by the Secessionists.

ARRIVAL OF REBEL PRISONERS. PHILADELPHIA, August 7. The United States gun boat Flag arrived at Fort Mifflin this morning, with thirty-eight prisoners taken from the rebel war vessel (formerly revenue cutter) Aiken, which was sunk off Charleston by the United States sloop-of-war St. Lawrence.

THE ARMY OF THE SHENANDOAH. SANDY HOOK, Md., August 6. There were several alarms in camp last night, all arising from a discharge of musketry by a freshly arrived regiment, the Pennsylvania 28th.

SAILING OF THE ARABIA. BOSTON, August 7. The royal mail steamship Arabia sailed at 10 o'clock this morning for Liverpool via Halifax. Prince Alfred and suite will take passage at Halifax for Liverpool.

BULL RUN, AS SEEN BY A SOUTH CAROLINIAN.

The war correspondent of the Charleston Mercury thus describes the battle of Bull Run: Suddenly an order comes, borne, I believe by General McGowan, for the second and eighth Palmetto regiments to hasten to the assistance of the left wing.

REMOVED FROM HIS POSITION

By a passenger who arrived from Harrisburg yesterday afternoon, we were informed that a party of ten volunteers from the 15th Illinois regiment had been fired upon by a party of secessionists.

STATEMENT OF ARMSTRONG THE MURDERER, TO BE HUNG ON FRIDAY.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 7. Thomas J. Armstrong, who is to be hanged yesterday made a long statement to the press. He declared he drove the wagon in which the murder was committed, but that James Reid robbed Crawford and then ran off. The statement will not affect his case, and he will be hung on Friday.
