"The militia are being mustered in to-day, and many of them came into it with considerable reluctance. There are some who have no ardent sympathy for the cause. They will fight for the South, of course, if obliged to fight, but they have the feeling that if it had not been for South Carolina there would have been no necessity of fighting. Many others can badly spare the time. Their oats is unharvested; r other crops are still imme no hands to work them but their own, and it is truly a matter of inconvenience and injury to be obliged to turn out. Yet in this section there are many that can fight, and who can be spared to fight, but who will not unless they are compelled to do it. Besides this, with the militia will come out the ordinary fire-arms of the country, which will not come without." WHY THE MYSTERY? Is there not something significant in the fol lowing from the Richmond correspondent of the Charleston Mercury;

"The government seems zealously to; conceal everything they can from the public here. Up to this day, (the 4th.) since the fight, no report made of the wounded or dead; nor will they allow those who have sons or brothers, at Manassas go to ascertain their fate, and administer to their necessities if wounded. All we learn is from the newspapers, which obtain their in formation chiefly from the wounded who are brought here. The death of Col. Fisher, of North Carolina, was not known until his body arrived on its way to North Carolina.

A correspondent writing from Manassas to

Memphis paper, says:
"I also learn from one of our surgeons that the wounded prisoners taken by our army are not by far so dangerously wounded as the ma-jority of our own men. Most of our wounds JUST RECRIVED from the are from Minnie balls, which made great ghast are from Minnie balls, which made great ghast ly openings and frequently gone entirely through the body—while those upon the great with the latest and very hardsome emblems and patriots been less fatal. MORE PRISONERS.

Since the first fight near Manages, the train from that section have been busily engaged in bringing Yankee prisoners to Richmond. There are some twelve or fifteen hundred now here, in-cluding about two hundred and fifty wounded. UR UOVERNMENT," by M. M.
