DEATH OF A SOLDIER. -Thomas J. M'Allen, originally a member of the Cameron Guard died in the city of Baltimore on Saturday morning. His remains were brought home to his widowed mother, and from thence intered on yesterday. Mr. M'Allen left this city with the Cameron Guard and was stationed for seval week in and around the city of Baltimore while that place was placed under their care; but the company leaving that city rather unexpectedly the cars left without him. Assoon as Mr. M'Allen discovered this state of affairs he pany formed in that city and was serving in that capacity when he was called from this stage of action. Mr. M'Allen was well known in this city, where he leaves a widowed mother, a sister and a large number of friends and acquaintances who mourn his early death whilst serving

CAMP CAMERON. -- We recently paid a visit to of things generally. The camp is beautifully our present worthy Secretary of War, about seem to have been left on account of their singular beauty. On the north runs the road, and just beyond it the Lebanon Valley Railroad.in city-like order, and are called quite a variety of names. Company A (the Federal Guards) have their East and West commons, Federal and Liberty streets, as well as Pittsburg, to which city they belong.

Col. Black's orders are very strict and of the right stamp. No obscene language or swearing whatever is tolerated. Discipline of a very strict character is enforced, and six or seven aen are detailed every morning to clear away Il rubbish, "level the grounds," pull up

The neighborhood is remarkably healthy, none of the men being unable to stow away their share of "pork and beans."

On the first night of the encampment, Capt. up an eloquent prayer for our success, for help from above, and for the friends all left behind. Every evening these meetings are growing more interesting, and the result-how could it be otherwise?-is that everything goes on harmoniously. One of the companies have a choir of really first-class singers; also a band, composed of a guitar, violin, banjo, accordeon, etc. and the leisure hours are well improved in this

Last Sunday, being the first in camp, was appropriately observed, the regiment being formed about four o'clock p. m., and marched into the grove, where the Rev. Mr. Moore, of the Methodist Church, delivered a most eloquent the men will be mustered into the service of the found in the 11th chapter of St. Mathew, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." The remarks of the appreciate the solemnity of the occasion.

Col. Black is now in Philadelphia, making arrangements for overcoats, uniforms, etc., for man and model soldier.

The regiment will remain in its present encampment until the men receive their uniforms

A DEAD LAW .- Some time ago the Legislature enacted a bill making the profession of astrology, divination and fortune telling, or the publication of announcements of such nefarious trades, punishable with fine and imprisonment. The object of the bill was generally commended, and for a time the public prints no longer teemed with the ridiculous and blasphemous ards. We notice, however, that they have revived, both the trade and the announcement, and the Philadelphia papers are again teeming with advertisements of "the lady with the natural gible points the to call your very thoughts, and cause speedy marriages, to give lucky numbers and cure drunkenness." The 'teacher of all now advertising astrology' is ont again, promising to help all in "sickness, | business, matrimony and trouble." The places of residence of these people are boldly given, and they carry on their nefarious business as the Act of Assembly prohibiting it, had hever been passed. Appropos of fortune talling, it is said that Armstrong, who was recently hanged for murder in Philadelphia, was extremely

SUBGEON GENERAL'S OFFICE, Aug. 9, 1861.

THE following act of Congress in relation to the Corpe of Medical Cadets is published for the information of all concerned:

"Sec. 7. And be ut further enacted, That there be added to the Medical Staff of the Army a Corpe of Medical Cadets, whose duty it shall be to act as diessers in the general hospitals and as ambulance attendants in the field, under the direction and control of the medical officers alone. They shall have the same rank and pay alone. They shall have the same rank and pay as the military cadets at West Point. Their number shall be regulated by the exigencies of service, at no time to exceed fifty. It shall be eighteen and twenty-three, who have been reading medicine for two years and have attended at least one course of lectures in a medical college. They shall enlist for one year, and be subject to the rules and articles of war. On the lifteenth day of the last month of their service, the near approach of their discharge shall be re-ported to the Surgeon General, in order, if de-stred, that they may be relieved by another detail of applicants.

Application must be made to the Surgeon General for admission into the corps, in con-fomity with the above act stating the date, place of birth, place of residence, period of medical studies, and enclosing the certificate of the dean of the college (or, when not obtainable, others at-infactory evidence of the fact) that the applicant has attended one full course in a medical col-

These applications must also be accompanied with testimonials of the good moral character and sound physical condition of the candidate. Baleimore Central to the Lebanon Valley Bail- When an application is favorably considered road over which latter road it left with the noon the candidate will receive a letter authorising him to appear before an Army Board of Medi-cal Examiners, who will make a special report in each case. From among those approved by the board the Surgeon General will select such a number as the service may require.

As the services of this class of medical and surgical assistants are at once required, applications, to be successful, should be promptly made to the Surveon General, who will direct the can didate to appear before one of the Army Medical Boards now in session in Washington and the city of New York.
