HARRISBURG, PA Monday Morning, August 19, 1861.

THE WAR FOR THE UNION. There are those who speak of the war as i they had no personal interest in the result of it, or in the object sought to be attained by it. or in the object sought of the government and as the policy of the administration. Thus, while the integrity of the Union are objects as vital to them as to those who favor a vigorous prosecution of the war. The manifestation of loyalty is no more binding upon a republican than upon a democrat; and the duty of preserving throwing or interfering with the rights or es the government is as obligatory upon the one is equally deficient in sense and patriotism.

lican war; and Republicans may fight its batpreserve the government. If the continuance of the government is desirable at all, it is desirable to all alike. And if any man holds back because his party is not in power, he is but a step behind those who are in open rebellion.

There are those who thus hold back, and for this reason. These are, however, we are glad to know, "few and far between." The masses of all parties at the north are in perfect accord in regard to the necessity and propriety of vigorously prosecuting the war to restore and preserve the Union. But there are more in sympathy with treason than there should be; and there are more than there should be who allow their party prejudices to interfere with their patriotic impulses.

If the Union should be permanently dissolved, or the Government destroyed, or weakened, Democrats would suffer equally with Republicans. It would be a loss to the world. Democrats equally with Republicans, should, therefore, co-operate in whatever plans are best adapted to achieve the end desired. This is felt by the half million valiant men who, without a thought of party, have entered the field. It is felt, also, by the millions ready to sacrifice fortune and life rather than see the noble inheritance bequeathed to them by their fathers cloven down by the fratracidal hands raised against its existence.

They mistake the temper of the people who nerent to the issues of the contest in order to punish those to whom they may be politically opposed. If those who took sides against liberty in 76 were held in abhorrence, and if the memory of those who arrayed themselves Union, and with those who are seeking to destroy it? Let them take counsel from the past, and

REV. FATHER MATHER, of the Catholic church in this city, than whom there is none more devoted to the Union among all the pastors in the country, informs us that there is no such a priest as J. A. King in the city of New York. It will be remembered that we printed a dispatch yesterday, giving an account of his alleged arrest by an excited mob as a secessionist. King, from what our informant stated, must be an impostor as well as a traitor, and yet the following paragraph from the New York Tribune of to-day, gives some credence to his priestly capacity. The Tribune says on the subject: J. A. King, the Catholic priest who was arrested on Thursday night for uttering violent secession sentiments in a lager beer saloon, was taken to headquarters and kept till morning. Upon the representations of his friends he was then delivered over to the discipline of his

THE CANDOR OF THE PATRIOT is like the credit of its proprietors. We denounce and prove them to be traitors, and they whine and expostulate on the liberty of the press, believing that the license which they possess as editors entitles them to assail or to sell their country, as their political passions or preferences for traitors may dictate. We expose their folly and hold it up to the scorn and contempt of the community while they garble paragraphs and mistate facts and arguments as they apppear in the columns of the TELEGRAPH. Our readers know this to be true—the disgusted patrons of the Union admit this fact every day on the streets, and yet McDowell and Barrett claim to be men of honor. Bah!

WHEN THE EDITORS of the Patriot wrote the which appeared among the other treason in that sheet this morning, they should have stated TELEGRAPH. That unfortunate wretch is now

Instead of judging the administration by the repeate official declarations of the President, and th record of Congress in a resolution adopted al most unanimously by both Houses, they take the fanatical declarations of some extremist wh does not represent any party, and parade that that this war is not waged on their part in any spirit of oppression, or for any purpose conquest or subjugation, or purpose of overtablished institutions of the states, but to deas upon the other. The Union is an inheritance fend and maintain the supremacy of the Constiin which every citizen has an equal share, and tution, and to preserve the Union, with all the the man who feels or professes indifference to dignity, equality and rights of the several states the means used to preserve it, because he had unimpaired, and that as soon as these objects no part in electing those to whom the people are accomplished the war ought to cease," these have confided the administration of its affairs, miserable party mischief makers persist in de claring that the existing war is waged for "neht A Republican has no more at stake in the groemancipation;" that it was begun and i Union than a Democrat. And yet we hear the carried on by the abolitionists; and that it is remark, every day, that this is a "Repub- virtually," an abolition war." But every man of sense knows that it is harmless faction—who indulge in this kind o the war of no party; but a war waged by traitalk, although they know they lie when they not tons to destroy, and prosecuted by patriots to say so. The fact is, they secretly sympathize with the rebels, although they have not the with the rebels, although they have not the old courage nor the manliness to go over to their will ranks and help fight their battles. It is this class who are at the bottom of the had in a peace'. meetings recently projected in the me lower part of Lancaster county, and the object of which is to furnish indirectly that " aid and comfort" to their rebel friends in the revolted states which they dare not furnish directly. We speak knowingly when we say that the leading spirits in this movement derive their inspiration from Ben Wood and the clique of sympathizers with treason of which he is the soul and center in New York, and that some of them are in correspondence with him. These men are not to be trusted. They should be closely watched and their conduct carefully noted. We would deprecate anything like personal violence, for the day of reckoning will come when all such accounts can be more effectually squared at the ballot box. While it is necessary to crush the overt act of treason with the sword and the halter, this kind of sympathy with traitors, which is meaner than treason itself, can be frowned down by an intelligent and patriotic public opinion. Already this new masked battery d treason is pretty nearly "played out" in thi

DEMOCRATIC TERMS OF PEACE. The Patriot seems to object to any other old allies, the slave breeder and nic. south. Here are the terms his set fort.

New Orleans Cressent, a journal that was a cell more zealous than the Patriot for the election of Breckinridge :--

"The North must be made to sue for peace is highly probable, breaks down for want of means wherewith to carry on the contest.

The "Peace Party" in the North is not, how south would like to see there. They are for peace merely because the war has prostrated business, and threatens to involve them in a fearful National debt. They are not for peac because they believe the south to be right.-What we want is for them to declare for peace on the broad ground that the south is right on principle. When they take the position that the provocation of the south was more than sufficient; that the right of secession under our form of government, is undoubted: that it is a correct theory that all governments ought to derive their ex istence from the consent of the governed; in short, the south not only had the right to resist but was fully and amply justified in so doing then, and only then, will there be a peace party at the north worth talking about."

The Patriot seems to be doing all in its power to break down "the enemy," and make them sue for such terms of peace as the slaveholdors may dictate. On these questions, there is no difference, as will be seen by our quotations from the Crescent, between the northern doughface and the southern rebel. Both labor to humiliate free government as administered by Abraham Lincoln.

THE DIFFERENCE between the public sentiment in Tennessee and Pennsylvania, is illustrated by the manner in which the people of both Commonwealths indulge the freedom of the press. In Tennessee, the brave and indomitable Parson Brownlow is overwhelmed with the force of the traitor power, and his newspaper suspended, because it advocates the cause of the Union. In Pennsylvania, Barrett and McDowell are tolerated while they daily assail an administration that is bending all its energies to save the Union. This is the difference between the people north and south—and we are at a loss to know which of the people of these States communication headed "Exciting to Riot," and are to blame most whether Tennessee or Pennsylvania are most to blame in their treatment of their newspaper editors. We have the end of the man, who was used as a tool to notion that among honest and patriotic men, bring false charges against the proprietor of the the blame will fall upon the people of the old Keystone state, because while the suppression in the county prison, charged with highway of Brownlow's paper will not effect the cause robbery. Barrett and McDowell should take of the Union, the toleration of Barrett and Mc-Dowell in our midst affords an example to still Ir will be gratifying to the friends of Hone bolder acts of treason that may possibly injure Joseph Casey in this state, to know that he has the cause of the Union. We submit the difference to the judgment of the people of Harrisburg.

THE DEMOCRACY OF NEW YORK have never refused to fuse before. They have been accustomed to make all sorts of bargains, and they WE VENTURE to assert that "Fair Play," who have entered into every description of fusion flourishes in the Patriot, in a tissue of worn-out but when the friends of the Union ask them to falsehoods, has eaten salt at the table of the unite for the sake of the Union, they proclaim men whom he abuses, and that he is his debtor that they owe a higher allegiance to their party To Hisndship or money. Such ingratitude only than they do to their country. How awful the animates the columns of the Patriot. Medical

The Knoxville (Tenn.) Whig of the 10th which will probably be the last issue for some time, observes of Nelson's arrest:

The treason of Mr. Nelson consists in his having advocated the cause of the Union, and against the war of 1812, is dishonored—what and be compelled to accept the crims war the Stars and Stripes of his country, in oppose, measure of infamy awaits those who shall, in will propose. This is the only way this war the Stars and Stripes of his country, in oppose, measure of infamy awaits those who shall, in will propose. This is the only way it will tion to the heresy of Secession. To this grievous offense he has added the unpardonable sin of permitting his fellow-citizens to elect him to Congress. To be consistent, and to carry out their principles, they ought new to arrest and send on to Richmond, every man in the district who voted for Nelson.

We have but little to say, now, respecting this arrest, and the hot haste with which the gallant and patriotic Nelson has been hurried off to Richmond. We shall await the action of the authorities there, with some degree of interest, as will the thousands of Union men in East Tennessee. Before dismissing the subject, however, we will take occasion to congratulate the people of Richmond in this, that when they cast into their filthy city prison Thomas A. R. Nelson, they will have more brains, patriotism, honor and chivalry in their prison, than can be found in their Rump Congress. ABUSE OF POWER BY THE SOUTH-GROSS OUTRAGES ing the rebels.

xeep them out of the hands of our subscribers At Cumberland Gap, or the office near there, we are informed upon reliable authority, there is a large pile of letters, to say nothing of pa pers, addressed to us, which secessionists will not allow to come forward. These letters no doubt, mostly from Kentucky, contain several hundred dollars for subscriptions. At Bristol we are informed, our paper is thrown aside, and not allowed to go further east.

One contemblible puppy, who fills the dignified position of route agent on the railroad, boasted in this city, that he intended to destroy the papers sent out by him, because they were incendiary sheets. Similar acts of perfuly are committed all over the country, by a set of unprincipled villains, who handle mail matter, and whose only title to public fayor and confi dence is, that they have the honor to wear around their necks a collor, having upon it this inscription: I AM JEFF.
