OUR PLATFORM THE UNION—THE CONSTITUTION—AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW.

HARRISBURG, PA. Tuesday Afternoon, August 20, 1861.

AN APPEAL TO ARMS! The Federal Capital in Danger!

Pennsylvania Summoned to its Rescue!

The following proclamation was issued by Gov. Curtin to-day, and immediately telegraphed to the principal cities in the State...

In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the said Commonwealth.

A PROCLAMATION.

To the Freemen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: Washington is again believed to be in danger. The President has made an earnest appeal for ALL THE MEN that can be furnished...

The three months' volunteers, whose discharge has so weakened the army, are urged, by every consideration of feeling, duty and patriotism, to resume their arms at the call of their country...

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twenty-first day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-sixth.

By the Governor: ELI SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

THE DESERTERS ROLL.

We publish a list this afternoon, that will strike every traitor and deserter with dismay, and fill the breasts of loyal men with indignation to behold the evidence of the faithlessness of those in whom the country had reposed its safety...

The people of Pennsylvania will thank Governor Curtin for publishing this list, as one of the first and best blows which has been given to the secret sympathizers for treason in our own midst.

THE PEOPLE AND THE SOLDIERS of Washington city are in ecstasies with Campbell's Artillery Regiment, a portion of Pennsylvania's contribution to sustain the Union.

The Union men in Kentucky and Tennessee say that a great Federal victory in Virginia, when the next battle occurs, will extinguish the rebellion in those States.

Since our capitalists have taken the new government loan so freely, the Treasury Department entertains no doubt that it will be largely taken abroad, in spite of the croaking of Northern sympathy for treason...

FAYREBORN, editor of the Lewistown True Democrat, and an advocate of the election of Breckinridge for the Presidency, has been removed from a clerkship in Washington.

The SMALL POX is raging with fearful effect among the traitors at Manassas Junction. Masked batteries are no protection against such an assailant.

THE FINANCES.

Ever since the assembling and adjournment of the late extra session of Congress, a combined effort has been made by the traitor sympathizing press of the north to cripple the credit of the government.

So far, the credit of the country has been sustained; but who can tell how long this credit can stand if the government is thus assailed, and if the people allow their interests to be jeopardized by a licentious and desperate political press.

The people themselves have also the opportunity now to increase the evidences of their confidence in the government by contributing whatever aid in their power to its support.

Opportunity will at once be given to the people all over the country to subscribe to the loan; and, indeed, subscriptions may now be made by the Assistant Treasurers of the United States, either at Boston, Philadelphia, or New York.

A NEW BUSINESS has recently sprung up in the south in the shape of slave stealing.

A NEW BUSINESS has recently sprung up in the south in the shape of slave stealing. Hundreds of men, it is said, visit the eastern section of Virginia, where they find plenty of slaves "running loose," who have been deserted by their masters, and have no difficulty in taking them and conveying them off to South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama.

ONE OF THE PLANS of the BRACK PARTY is to disband all the Federal forces, to level all the breastworks, destroy all the entrenchments, made for the protection of the Federal capital, and then invite the rebel leaders to a convention in which terms of peace are to be settled between the two parties.

ALL the regiments of volunteers that arrive in St. Louis are armed with the improved Minié musket. General Fremont has taken energetic measures to supply his men with first rate arms, both small and great.

ARIZONA AND LOWER CALIFORNIA.

When the rebels struck their first blow at the Union, they declared that their object was only to free themselves from a yoke. Before that blow had been struck, they were secretly engaged in pilfering the public treasury, carrying off and appropriating to their own use such of the public property as was sacredly deposited in their own midst, robbing their debts when owed to merchants and manufacturers in the north, and doing other acts which proved that they were determined to destroy before they left the Union of the American States.

The following article from the New Orleans Picayune exhibits the policy of the confederate rebels on this subject. We commend it to the peace party of the north:

ARIZONA AND LOWER CALIFORNIA.—The immense importance of the acquisition of the territories of Arizona and Lower California to our southern confederacy must not be overlooked. Arizona has already declared in our favor...

Thus the empire of our confederacy will become as extensive as we could desire; and indeed, when we come to look back at the vast and unwieldy extent of territory formerly owned and administered over by the government of the old United States, we are forced to the conviction of a remark made years ago at Washington, that the country was becoming too large to be administered by one man.

What Fat said to President Buchanan, who in appointing to Paddy for having kept him waiting two hours before he granted him an interview, explained that it was in consequence of the immense pressure of his official business, which has become veritable. Said Fat, "Well, Mistre Buchanan, if one President is not enough to attend to the official business, and the people's wants, at the same time, why the devil don't ye have two!"

PANSON BROWNLOW issued the following card with the last number of his paper. It tells the story of the workings of the institution of slavery, as encouraged by the confederacy, better than we can relate it, and much better than its defenders in the north desire to have it proclaimed.

As far as we are concerned, we can suspend our publication, in obedience to the dictates of tyranny and intolerance—we will yield to the demands of an armed mob—turn over to them our office and what little property we have—deprive ourselves and a helpless family of small and big our bread from door among the Union men who are able to give—but we shall refuse, most obstinately refuse, to do any of our duty, to think or speak favorably of such a confederacy as this, or to agree that honor, patriotism or love of country has influenced the men at its head, who have plunged the country into this revolution!

It is of the utmost importance that the navigation of the Potomac should be kept open at all hazards. As it is now, the price of coal and wood is unusually high, and it is feared that if they will be done the usual rate of freights...

Mr. Fox, the Assistant Secretary of the Navy went down the river in the steamer Mount Vernon, to Aquia Creek and made a close examination of the place. Batteries are being erected, and breastworks extended. Considerable activity is apparent among the troops there, whose numbers could not be definitely ascertained.

W. W. COOKMAN, the Washington city banker, denies that he has offered money, sympathy or encouragement to the southern confederacy. It was stated that he had offered his immense fortune to aid the rebellion.

SOME of the SOLDIERS in Washington city, when they get "hard up for funds," sell their overcoats to hackmen. The Quartermaster's Department have issued an order to re-claim all such clothing.

EVERY SOLDIER who loses his gun, whether in cowardly throwing it away on the field of battle or through neglect, is to have twelve dollars, the price of the gun, deducted from his pay.

THE SKELETON regiments in Philadelphia will compose an army of nearly ten thousand men. Besides these, the home guard compose another large force, a great portion of which will at once offer their services.

THE WAR DEPARTMENT has announced that there was already an undue proportion of commissaries, quartermasters and paymasters for the army.

WASHINGTON, August 20. As much has been said about the attitude of the European powers threatening the blockade, after special inquiry at the State Department, there is authority for saying, that in the instance when the Niagara was off the station of Charleston for twenty four hours, Lord Lyons brought the subject to the notice of the United States government.

Officers who have not been mustered into service have power to enroll men, but are not competent to muster them under the provisions of the General Order No. 58 of the current series from the War Department.

In this case the muster must be made by some officer, either volunteer or regular, authorized in the service, and the oath must be administered by a civil magistrate or an officer of the regular army—preferably the latter.

When one half of a company has been mustered into service, the First Lieutenant thereof can also be mustered in, and when the organization of the company is completed, the Captain and second Lieutenant can be so mustered.

When the men of a company have been mustered by more than one officer, the fact must be stated on the muster roll opposite to their names, by whom mustered, which roll must be signed by each officer.

The field and staff officers of regiments can be mustered into the service upon the completion of the organization of the regiments or companies, as follows: Colonels of entire regiments, Lieut. Colonel of four companies, Major of six companies, chaplain, surgeon, adjutant, quartermaster, and assistant surgeon, for entire regiments.

The cost of transportation of troops from one place to another, in the manner prescribed for the general recruiting service.

The War Department is astonished and gratified with the response instantaneously made from the Governors of the Free States to its call yesterday for troops. Regiments were put in motion all over the North.

As it is known that the Cabinet are a unit on the measures for the prosecution of hostilities, the attacks on prominent members of the Administration as regarded here are intended to thwart its policy of efficient operations.

Report says that the Confederate troops have crossed the Upper Potomac, and are in large numbers within fifteen miles of Washington, on the Maryland side of the river.

It is of the utmost importance that the navigation of the Potomac should be kept open at all hazards. As it is now, the price of coal and wood is unusually high, and it is feared that if they will be done the usual rate of freights...

TWO SECESSION PAPERS CLEANED OUT. Boston, Aug. 20. In Haverhill, last night, Ambrose L. Kimball, editor of the Essex county Democrat, a weekly secession sheet, was forcibly taken from his house by an excited mob, and was covered with a coat of tar and feathers, and ridden on a rail through the town.

Subsequently under threats of violence Mr. Kimball promised to keep his pen in aid of rebellion and was liberated. The town authorities and many good citizens unsuccessfully attempted to quell the mob.
