HARRISBURG, PA.

Tuesday Afternoon, August 20, 1861.

COUNTY COMMITTEE.

The County Committee of the People's party will meet at the Court House in Harrisburg, on Tuesday, the 27th day of August instant, at 12 o'clock p. m.

P. IRWIN, Chairman.

ARRIVAL OF RECRUITS.—About two hundred recruits arrived here last night for Col. Seigle's and Good's regiments.

SURMAN'S ARTILLERY.—About one hundred and fifty recruits for Sherman's Artillery regiment, left here this morning in charge of Lieut. Geo. W. Crabbe, Jr., for Washington city.

FOR THE PENITENTIARY.—The Sheriff of Franklin county passed through this city yesterday afternoon having in custody two convicts for the Eastern Penitentiary. One of the parties was sentenced for two years for robbing a jewelry store, and the other, one year for horse stealing.

ARREST OF DESERTERS.—Two men, named Wm. H. Miller and John Shaffer, both members of Capt. E. S. Wright's company, (Col. Black's regiment), deserted from Camp Cameron, near this city, a few days since, and made their way to Pittsburg. They were both arrested upon information from the officers, and committed to jail by Mayor Wilson of that city. They will be held in close custody until ransomed into the charge of an officer of the regiment.

HAVE MARCHING ORDERS.—The Reading Light Infantry, Capt. W. W. Diehl, have marching orders, and will leave to-morrow afternoon of Thursday morning for this city. We are also informed that Capt. Breuholtz and Hervey Sherman have similar orders. After these companies have all left, Reading will have thirteen companies in the field, with several more forming.

LAUGH AND GROW FAT.—We are among that class of philosophers who are of the opinion that joyfulness and mirth are conducive and even necessary to long life; it is only your low-spiced, misanthropic, moody bodies who die off before they have made half a life of it. Now, in conducting our paper, we strive to throw into its columns a spice of wit and humor that shall render it doubly palatable to our immense list of subscribers. We avoid disagreeable and dry details, and endeavor to give such matter as shall interest, instruct and amuse our readers, always giving them such food for the palate as promotes laughter and good spirits. Sterne tells us that every time a man laughs he adds something to his life. There is no denying the fact that laughter is good for the health; it is a proconvective to the appetite and a friend to digestion. The far-famed Dr. Lydenbaum once said that the arrival of a merry Andrew in town was more beneficial to the health of the inhabitants, than twenty times the amount of medicine.

LEFT FOR WASHINGTON.—Col. Sam. Black's regiment left Camp Cameron this afternoon for Washington city. The regiment numbers over eleven hundred men, well uniformed and equipped, and thoroughly drilled. They will prove a valuable acquisition to the forces around the capital of the nation. Appropos of this fine regiment, we omitted to notice at the time a pleasing incident which transpired a few days ago, while the regiment lay at Camp Cameron. Before leaving Pittsburg, company A, Captain Hull, was presented by the Liberty street Methodist Episcopal Church with a beautiful flag, to be borne by it into active service. The flag was, by the company, through Major Switzer, presented to the regiment as the regimental flag. The Major made a few appropriate remarks, giving a brief history of the flag, which was presented to the regiment with the understanding that it should be returned to the company at the expiration of its term of enlistment. Col. Black received the flag on behalf of the regiment, in a few happy and eloquent remarks, in which he stated that the colors should never be dishonored, and if ever stained at all, it would be with the best blood of the regiment in its defence. The interesting ceremonies of the day were concluded by a prayer meeting, held in Capt. Hull's quarters, which was participated in by a large majority of those in camp.

POLICE.—Before the Mayor.—John Seaman, one of those unfortunate individuals whom a contemporary terms the "froyed edge of the web of society," was an occupant of the city Lock-up last night, having preferred his "E pluribus unum" blanket to the more capacious coverlid of nature. There being no charge against him, of course, he was discharged this morning.

John Talyon, whose "beard of formal cut" and martial-like integuments demonstrated his military profession, was up charged with the offence of drunkenness. John's face looked for all the world like one of those old-fashioned pyramidal bee-hives, and for that matter we dare say felt like one. He was discharged with an injunction to sin no more.

Lewis Fritz, described as a "hathless fellow," a wanderer of "friends and fortune bereft," was charged with vagrancy. Put under marching orders to leave the city for the good.

Thomas Noland, an old bruiser, with a head bearing the frosts of sixty winters or thereabouts, was arraigned for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Thomas, it seems, has enlisted for the war, and desired to put himself in fighting trim by taking to fighting whiskey. The exercise, however, proved to much for him, and he found himself in the hands of a policeman. He was discharged.

Joseph Lewis, described on the police sheet as a "stranger," was charged with the larceny of a breastpin from one Frederick Bender. It was evidently a "true bill," for the stolen article was found on Joseph's person. He was committed to answer.

See Professor Wood's advertisement in another column.

BROKE HIS ANGLE.—A boy named Henry Hochland, residing in the Sixth ward, had one of his angles broken yesterday by falling from an apple tree.

PICNIC AT COLD SPRING.—We understand that a large party of ladies and gentlemen of this city intend going on a picnic excursion to Cold Spring next Thursday.

HORSE THIEVES.—The professional horse thieves appear to be driving an extensive trade just now, probably owing to the facility with which the animals can be disposed of to unsuspecting persons who purchase on Government account. The police authorities here receive dispatches almost every day notifying them of such robberies, but as it is a difficult matter at any time to work up such cases, it is rendered still more so now in consequence of the war.

WHAT CAN BE A MORE beautiful scene than looking west over the Susquehanna at sunset, when old Sol casts his expiring beams over the waters and the distant trees and mountains, and paints the clouds with a hundred tints, as if, like the closing of a panorama, he had left the most magnificent part of the day's entertainment for the last! We have heard strangers, looking upon this glorious picture, express themselves in the most rapturous strain, and, for our part, enthusiastic lover of nature as we are, we can never tire of viewing the scene. Looking out upon the river, at this particular period, with the several islands pictured on the prospect like fairy things, the heavens and earth all aglow with expiring splendor, the busy hum of town life subsiding into the gloom of the evening, it is impossible to conceal the emotions which every true heart feels, and no one ought to fail to thank fortune for placing him where he can enjoy so much of the beautiful!

MORE TROOPS.—The recent order from the War Department has created quite a stir among the volunteer regiments and companies now forming throughout the State. All have received marching orders, either for this city or Washington, and a brisk movement has already commenced. The following companies have arrived here since yesterday morning:

The Biddle Guards, of Huntingdon, Capt. J. M. Biddle.

Capt. Bennett's infantry company, from Minersville, to join Col. B. G. Christ's regiment.

Capt. Brant's company from Lewellyn, to join same regiment.

Capt. Rhoad's company from Allentown, to join Col. R. S. Good's regiment.

A company of cavalry, from Ashland, to join Col. Rusk's Regiment in Philadelphia.

The noon trains to-day also brought companies from Wilkesbarre, Sunbury and Shamokin. Additional companies will continue to arrive by every train, and we may expect brisk times for the next few weeks.

A WOMAN OF GOOD TASTE.—You see this lady turning a cold eye to the assurances of shopmen and the recommendation of milliners. She cares not how original a pattern may be, if it be ugly, or how recent a shape, if it be awkward. Whatever laws fashion dictates, she follows a law of her own, and is never behind it. She wears very beautiful things which people generally suppose to be fetched from Paris, or, at least made by a French milliner, but which are often bought at the nearest town and made up by her own maid. Not that her costume is either rich or new; on the contrary, she wears many a cheap dress, but it is always pretty, and many an old one, but it is always good. She deals in no gaudy confusion of colors, nor does she affect a studied sobriety; she either refreshes you with a spirited contrast, or composes you with a judicious harmony. Not a scrap of tinsel or trumpery appears upon her. She puts no faith in velvet bands, or gilt buttons, twisted cording. She is quite aware, however, that the garnish is as important as the dress; all her inner borders and beadings are delicate and fresh; and should anything peep but which is not intended to be seen, it is quite as much so as that which is. After all, there is no great art either in her fashions or her materials. The secret simply consists in her knowledge, the three great unities of dress—her own station, her own age, and her own points. And no woman can dress well who does not. After this we need not say that whoever is attracted by the costume will not be disappointed in the wearer. She may not be handsome nor accomplished, but we will answer for her being even tempered, well informed, thoroughly sensible, and a complete lady.

THE FOLLOWING eloquent and highly poetical poem, is from a personally unknown yet epistolary valued and esteemed friend. We bid her welcome to the columns of the TELEGRAPH, and we know that our readers will cherish her first production with the hope that they may have the pleasure of perusing other of her future poems, as contributions to the TELEGRAPH:

A NATIONAL HYMN.

(Ss and 7s.)

Written for the Telegraph. O thou God of love and power, Hear us whilst we call on Thee; In this dark foreboding hour Unto Thee for help we flee— Lo! our nation's sky is darkened, Threatening clouds around us rise; To the ancients Thou hast hearkened— Father, deign to hear our cries! In this land of light and gladness, Where Thy church has sought her rest, Shall rebellion in its madness Sever ties which Thou hast blest. As a nation we have wandered From the paths our fathers trod; Yet when on our course we've pondered Turn—we seek thy face O God! We have sin'd, Ah, yes, we feel it;— Sit'st against Thy light and love; 'Tis the light of heaven reveals it, Shining from Thy courts above. If oppression is the "Achan" That doth trouble our the peace, May its chains at once be broken And its sceptered power cease. Let the ensigns of our nation— Like yon bow of promise true— Still call forth the heart's oblation As its fadefless stars we view. Liberty! O glorious banner! Go! and set His seal on thee; And though humbled is our manner, Though low our deliverer be.

LIBERTY! O glorious banner! Go! and set His seal on thee; And though humbled is our manner, Though low our deliverer be.

LIBERTY! O glorious banner! Go! and set His seal on thee; And though humbled is our manner, Though low our deliverer be.

ATTENTION, FIRST CITY ZOUAVES.—You will meet for drill this Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, in the Exchange. A full attendance is requested. By order of the Captain.

MILITARY RELIEF FUND.—A meeting of the committee will be held this evening at the Exchange at half past six o'clock. Punctual attendance is respectfully requested. By order of the President. O. EDWARDS, Secretary.

THE FALL ELECTIONS.—The chairman of the County Committee of the People's party has issued a call for the meeting of the committee at the Court House in this city on the 27th of August.

THE RECRUITING BUSINESS in our city continues to progress with commendable energy. Capt. Waterberry's company is fast filling up, as is also Col. Good's Zouave regiment. Besides these, we observe that Capt. Wm. B. Sipes, late of the State Capital Guards, has opened a recruiting office, for a regiment of cavalry, which he has been authorized to raise by the Secretary of war. He has already secured a number of recruits, and others are constantly presenting themselves for enrollment.

JOHN L. GOSWOLD, who served so gallantly as a private in the Lochis Greys, has attached himself to the company about being formed by Capt. Waterberry, and when that company is fully organized, is to serve in the capacity of first lieutenant. Capt. Waterberry could have no better or braver man to second his command, and no company of men could possess an officer with whom they are necessarily closely connected, in whom they can repose more trust with more confidence, and who will more faithfully discharge his duty in every particular. Gotshall is one of the men who require little training to make good soldiers. His heart is where his hand should be—in the fight battling for his country.

U. S. CAMP.—We have previously noticed the fact that Harrisburg had been selected by the government at Washington as the site of one of the proposed camps for the concentration and instruction of volunteers from the northern and eastern States previous to their being mustered into the service of the United States. In accordance with recent instructions from Washington, Capt. D. H. Hastings, 1st cavalry, who has been stationed here for some time as a mustering officer, has been examining the country in our vicinity for a suitable location for the proposed camp, and has selected the grounds recently occupied by Col. Sam. Black's regiment, near the county poor house, which with some additional territory has been found to contain all the facilities, requisites and essentials of a first class camp ground.

THE TUESDAY and Friday evening markets in this city are an institution worthy of a more extended circle of visitors than that formed by the housewife and public caterer. At this season when nature has overtaken her omniscopia of fruits and vegetables a walk through the lower market house will well repay the trouble. The piles of melons, cantaloupes, peaches, apples, green corn, tomatoes, squashes, &c., that lie exposed to the purchaser fresh from the vineyard, with the daily dew of night upon them, present a scene that is cheerful to look upon. This afternoon the market house presented its climax of fullness in some of the fruits of the earth especially the melon. They are sold exceedingly cheap—as low as fifteen and twenty cents for good ones—and some considerably cheaper. There will doubtless be a crowded market to-night.

FRESH SOFT CRABS, OYSTERS, BARBACUED CHICKEN and all the delicacies of the season will be served up this evening at Mrs. Cramer's Restaurant under the Buehler House.

JONES HAS BEEN STRUCK.—"Well, our friend Jones has received a smart blow," said Smith to Brown, as they met and shook hands. "How?" rejoined Brown. "Why he has been struck," replied Smith, "awfully struck." "With what?" asked Brown excitedly. "Why he has been struck with the low prices that Ulrich & Bowman continue to sell their cotton goods." The store is South East corner of Front and Market streets. aug19-2t.

HAVING returned from the city I now have on hand a full assortment of all kinds of Dry Goods: 200 pieces of new Calicoes; 200 dozen of Stockings; a splendid lot of Black Alpaca; a large lot of Hoop Skirts; 1,000 yards of Crash for Toweling. All kinds of Summer Dress Goods at great reduction. S. LEWY, Rhoads' Old Corner.

THE ADVISERS, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having in a former year with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—was anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. GENERAL ORDER NO 1.

HEADQUARTERS PENNSYLVANIA MILITIA, Harrisburg, August 1st, 1861.

THE GOVERNOR has learned with deep mortification that one Lieutenant and a number of the privates and non-commissioned officers of the Second Regiment of Infantry, Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, on being called on, in accordance with their oaths, to enter the service of the United States, have refused to do so.

He therefore hereby dismisses them from the service of the State, and directs their names to be published, that Pennsylvania may know her derelict sons, and may not again be defrauded by those who, after partaking her bounty, in the moment of peril desert her.

All mustering officers are directed to prevent their re-enlistment in any of the gallant and loyal regiments now forming for the defense of our country. We do not need their services, nor will we risk our cause in their hands.
