Senator Sherman on the Habeas Corpus Question.

Senator Sherman writes a letter to the Cincinnati Gazette, defining his position on the habeas corpus question. He says:

"Senator Wilson's resolution declared that the President's orders increasing the regular army and suspending the writ of habeas corpus were legal and valid; in other words, were among the powers delegated to the President by the constitution. I never met any one who claimed that the President could, by a proclamation, increase the regular army. The legal power to suspend the writ of habeas corpus has been recently claimed for the President, but I am convinced that by the plain meaning of the am convinced that by the plant meaning of the Constitution, Congress alone must determine cases in which the public safety requires its suspension. While I approved and justified the acts of the President I could not say with Senator Wilson that they were strictly legal or within his delegated powers. There are times when our executive officer must anticipate the action of Congress, but in such a case he assumes the hazard of a "Bill of Impeachment," or a "Bill of Idemnity." The President merely assumed this hazard, and in the vacancy of Congress wisely assumed a power not delegated to him by the Constitution. He places his own justification in his message on the ground of public necessity, and on this ground his acts have been approved, justified and legalized by Very truly yours,

JOHN SHERMAN."

WHAT THE K. G. C.'S HAVE DONE.-The Lou-

In a string number of the Clarksville Chronicle of the 2d inst., we find a communication from King Bickley, Monarch of the knights of the Golden Circle, to the Kentucky volunteers.

Nothing else has occurred during the whole campaign was let up, attached to a long rope from a steam Condition of Manassas .- Manassas is, on the whole, at present, one of the most stinking spots on the face of the globe. The only wretched hotel which was there has been closed.-What is called the guard house consists of an open shed in the street, where the prisoners are compelled to remain, exposed to the clements, until they are removed to Richmond. With the exception of Jeff. Davis, during his visit at Manassas, and a few of the Generals, the officers all have to sleep on the floor, and the headquarters of Beauregard, recently removed to Mr. Ware's house, resemble a dilapidated pig stye on a large scale. Manassas, however, will continue to be the great focus of the Virginian army.

WAKED UP THE WRONG PASSENGER.-A purchaser of boots and shoes, from Lexington, Ky., who is now in Boston, reports that in one store marked that "he had rather be under the rule of Jeff. Davis than Abe Lincoln." This sentiment elicited a scorching rebuke from the Southern merchant, who left the establishment in disgust, saying he had fought disunionists in Kentucky, and should not patronize them in SEIZURE OF A VESSEL-HER CARGO CON Massachusetts.—Boston Transcript.

MOVEMENT OF THE REBULS OUTRAGES UPON UNION MEN

Six Thousand Union Men Obliged to Abandon their Homes.

ROLLA, Mo., Aug. 23. Accounts from Springfield state that from 3,000 to 10,000 of McCulloch's army had left for the North. A small part of his force had eached Lebanon, on the Rolla road, and are ngaged in making reprisals and committing depredations on the Union men.

About 700 of the exiles from Springfield have oined Colonel Boyd's regiment. Not less than 5,000 Union men have been obliged to abandon their homes in the south-west, leaving their property at the mercy of the rebels. There is much distress among these people, large numbers naving neither money nor provisions.

The baggage train of the Federal army which vas brought from Springfield by Major Sturges is said to be worth $1,500,000.

The passage of the rebel army north will enable our forces when they move back to Springfield, to cut off its communication with an opportunity for retreat to Arkansas and thus Confederate army, and he adds, 'I desire to completely enclose it in the western counties of Missouri.
