THE UNION-THE CONSTITUTION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW.

HARRISBURG, PA.

Tuesday Afternoon, August 27, 1861.

PUBLIC OPINION is bound to triumph, and the man who vainly imagines that he will be allowed to force his opinion of treason on a loyal community, is either a double knave or a miserable ass. Such conduct was once tolerated, but when the stability of the nation is in danger, toleration for treason becomes a species of treason itself. The people will not submit tamely any longer to the assaults which a certain class of our northern presses are making on this government. Those who make them, may claim the right of opinion and the liberty of the press, but these become insignificant and valueless when their abuse endangers other liberty still more sacred and rights involving holier and nobler principles both of protection to persons and property. To show that the end of this abuse of the liberty of the press is at hand, the following is a list of newspapers that have either been suppressed by the military authorities, or destroyed by the people within the last few Every single one of these journals has been engaged, ever since the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln, in misrepresenting the policy of his administration and of stirring up rebellion in the south. Since the development of rebellion they have used their energies in giving it aid and comfort. We submit to the readers of the TELEGRAPH, whether their suppression was not just and legal.

"THE POST" is the title of a new hebdomidal just entered on its second number, published at Selinsgrove, Snyder county, by Israel Gutelius. It avows an attachment to the great principles and organization of the Republican party, and if we are to judge from the brevity and terseness of its editorials, it not only promises to be a valuable local journal, but an able expounder of a noble cause. We cheerfully commend it to the people of its locality, and trust also that its circulation may be widely extended beyond prietor.

THE confidence in the permanency of our government is rapidly increasing among the shrewd moneyed men of Europe, and the news of the recent $150,000,000 loan being so readily taken, cannot but produce the most gratifying effect. It is stated upon reliable authority that an offer was lately made to Secretary Chase, on behalf to pay the interest at Frankfort on the Main. The Secretary, however, eclined the offer, as he is confident in the ability of the government to maintain itself without asking the aid of foreign capital.

HON. EDWARD McPHERSON, Representative in Congress from the Adams district, has been appointed an aid on the staff of General McCall. If the aid makes as good a soldier as he does a representative, he will add new laurels to a reputation already of the most enviable character. He is a man of prompt though calm judgment, sincere in his resolves and his convictions, and as an advisory aid, General McCall will find in Edward McPherson a safe, steady and useful companion in arms.

Mr. Russer, correspondent of the London Times, contradicts the statement that the Provost Marshal of Washington refused him a pass JUDGE PEARSON'S CHARGE.

We print on the outside of this afternoon's TELEGRAPH, the very able charge of Hon. John J. Pearson, to the Grand Jury empanelled at the present Court of Quarter Sessions of Dauphin county. His Honor enters into a very interesting as well as accurate history of the different buildings formerly used for holding our courts, giving in detail their locality and cost. of Dauphin county. Aside from these local attractions, the charge of Judge Pearson has a not refrain from expressing a personal congratulaw in regard to the liberty of speech and the freedom of the press in a manner setting at rest the dogma that this liberty and freedom entitled editors and citizens to the right of assailing the government, because they object to its policy when it is seeking to restore order in times of eminent public and private danger. Legislation has furnished the correction to these abuses. The law is plain on the subject, that when men either by printed or spoken words seek to stir up the passions or embarrass the protection of a community, they transcend the liberty of the present forfeit the freedem. the liberty of the press and forfeit the freedom of speech. If it were otherwise, there would be no safety in the protection of an armed at the point of the bayonet. He said he saw Governor Harris, of Tennessee, a few days ago, force. If a licentious press is permitted to traduce an authority straining all its power to vindicate the law-if a bitter partizan that Kentucky would have to meet 50,000 Tenfeeling is suffered to cultivate its passions and resentments, incite the prejudices of the people and madden the soldiery with false impressions in regard to their discipline, there can be no reliance placed either in the sanctity of law and order, or the legitimate influences at the command of the government to vindicate the one and restore the other. Judge Pearson understands this condition of affairs, and discusses their dangers and responsibilities as a patriot and statesman. He does not even hustled about, arousing his secessionists to rehesitate to declare that those guilty of such acts are traitors, but he insists most justly that acts are traitors, but he insists most jusily that those who give information to the enemy, and either by written or printed words seek to prove that there are dissensions or divisions in our but the sudden and very imposing appearance ishing such crimes. The counsel and the ad- ington. monitions of the charge on this subject are worthy of the man who conceived and delivered them, appropriate to the place in which they were pronounced, and should be perused and were pronounced, and should be perused and pondered by the people of Dauphin county with a full appreciation of the noble patriotism yard in that town. Some of them were elderly and loyalty they seek to inculcate, and in the men and some young, and all had been comname of that people we thank Judge Pearson pelled to abandon their families, and were ill for the words he has uttered on these subjects. If they have the influence of only silencing one masked battery of sympathy for rebellion, they will have achieved a most desirable object for the people of this community.

There are other portions of the charge which are equally interesting at this time, but to which we can barely call attention, without referring at length to their details and merits. The charge must be read to be appreciated. No notice that we can make of it could possibly give the reader any idea of its real importance It is a paper which every citizen of Dauphin county should preserve for future reference.

Troubles of Union Men in Kentucky and Tennessee.

FAMILIES DRIVEN FROM THEIR BOMES The Louisville (Ky.) Journal says:

"We stated a short time ago that two young men, named Busbey and Harp, arrived in this city from Hickman county, Kentucky, having been driven from their homes by the secessionists of Southern Kentucky and Tennessee Three large families, numbering fully twentycourts, giving in detail their locality and cost. To the local reader there is much to engage attention in that portion of the charge, and we commend it to the careful perusal of the people

Their condition is really decirable. Their condition is really deplorable. They were forced to leave their farms at a few hours' notice, leaving their crops and household goods general and a national merit, which we cannot at the mercy of the heartless rebels. They allow to go unapproved, and for which we can-traveled with the aged and infirm, and youthful and tender members of their families from Hickman county in wagons, and encountered lation and pride. Judge Pearson defines the many hardships. They inform us that fully lation and the liberty of speech and the lifty families in Hickman and Ballard counties have been forced to leave their homes, and to abandon their crops and nearly all they pos-sessed in the world, their offence being that they entertained Union sentiments."

Lead Mines in the Hands of the Rebels. We are sorry to learn that the richest lead mine in Missouri, and indeed probably on the globe, is now in the hands of the insurgents; though they did not succeed in obtaining any of the metal. The mine to which we refer is situated near the village of Granby, Newton county, within twenty-five miles of the south-western border of that State. It was opened about two years ago by a party of capitalists, having their headquarters at St. Louis, and is known by the name of the Blow and Kennett mine. Last year it yielded about seventy-five thousand pigs, or six millions of pounds. Unlike the mines in eastern Missouri and north western Illinois, this is situated in a level prairie of vast extent. The supply of ore has been pronounced inexhaustible by the State geologist, nearer than the Missouri, and no railroad behas usually been taken on account of the su-

SOLDIERS' RATIONS

OFFICE COM. GENERAL SUBSISTENCE, WASHINGTON, August 19, 1861.

Messrs. Editors: From the numerous letters which have been referred to this office complaining of the want of food and the bad quality of that furnished by the Commissariat to the volunteers, I am led to believe that a brief statement of the truth may give satisfaction to the public mind.

Before the action of the last Congress the ration (used by the Army for many years) furnished to the volunteers was as follows: 3 pound of pork or bacon, or 11 pound of fresh or salt beef; 18 ounces of bread or flour, or 12 ounces of pilot bread, or 11 pounds of corn meal; To 100 Rations.

8 qrts. of beans or peas, or 10 pounds of rice, or 140 ounces of dessicated potatoes or 88 ounces of dessicated mixed vegetables: 10 pounds of coffee;

15 pounds of sugar; 4 quarts of vinegar;

pound of adamantine candles;

pounds of soap, and

2 quarts of salt.

This ration had been found, by long experi nce in the regular army, to be ample.

Congress by an act of the last session, in eased this ration, until it is now as follows: 3 pound of pork or bacon, or 11 pound of fresh or salt beef; 22 ounces of bread or flour, or 1 pound of pilot

To 100 Rations 8 quarts of beans, 10 pounds of rice or hom-iny, and 1 pound of potatoes three times a work, or a substitute therefor; 10 pounds of coffee;

pounds of sugar;

4 quarts of vinegar; 14 pound of adamantine candles;

pounds of soap, and quarts of salt

Extra issues of molasses are occasionally made. This ration, if cared for, and properly cooked is more than can be eaten, and this ration the gov-is more than can be eaten, and this ration the government is ready to furnish.

The method of procuring it for the regiments is simple: Each Captain of a Company makes to his Colonel a return, stating the number of men in his Company and the number of days drawn for, signed by him. These Company redrawn for, signed by him. These Company re-turns are consolidated by the regimental Quartermaster and signed by the Colonel. This re-turn is an order on the depot or brigade Comnissary for that quantity of stores; and it is the duty of the regimental Quartermaster to see that he receives the full amount, and that it is all of good quality.

When stores reach the regiment it is the duty of each Captain to see that his Company re-ceive their due, as drawn for by him on his return, and that the quality is good.

If the Regimental Quartermaster and Captains attend to their duty, the men must receive their full allowance as set forth in the ration : and not an article but of good quality.

The government has on hand ample suplies of the very best quality, and is desirous of doing full justice to the volunteers. If the vol unteers do not receive it, the fault is that of GENERAL, FORWARDING their own officers. their own officers. aug27-1td J. P. TAYLOR, A. C. G. Sub.
