Mothers Try It 11 And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your dougters before it be too late, but also yeur sons and husbaads, for while the former from false delicacy, often go down to a premiture grave, rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business, that if it were not for you, they too, would travel in the same downward path, until it is too late to arrest their fattai fall. But the mother is always vignat, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will userringly point you to PROF.
