Saturday, the 14th of September,

The several meetings in the townships, boroughs and cities will be held at their usual places, except in the township of Jefferson, where the election is to be held at the usual place of holding the general elections; and the election in the township of West Londonderry will be held at the public house of John H. Rich, in said township. The election polls in the townships are to be opened at four o'clock and closed at seven, and those in the boroughs and cities are to be opened at seven and closed at nine o'clock.

THE DRY TORTUGAS.—There are doubtless some of our readers who see in the papers that mutineers have been sent to the "Dry Tortugas," but have rather an indefinite idea as to what sort of a place it may be. This locality to which mutinous and disorderly soldiers are sent to serve out their term of enlistment, is a bleak and barren sand key in the Gulf of Mexico, about one hundred miles southwest from Cape Sable. It is cheerless and uncomfortable, desolated by simoons, and peopled by venemous reptiles-decidedly one of the most uncomfortable points to which the Government is obliged to send its insubordinates. The mutineers banished to Tortugas do not go as soldiers, but as unarmed laborers, and will be compelled to work upon armed fortifications, much as penitentiary convicts do in quarries and sandbanks.
