UNION COUNTY CONVENTION

At a meeting of the People's County Committe the following resolutions were unani mously adopted, viz :

WHEREAS, The present condition of our Nathe subversion of our free institutions; and whereas, in the opinion of this committee, that unity of purpose can be measurably promoted by discarding all party organizations in our coming elections, and by making known fideli-ty to the Government as well as fitness for the various positions the only tests for office. -

Resolved. That this committee deem it expe dient at this time to dispense with the usual party call, and instead thereof, do hereby call upon all the qualified voters of Dauphin county, who are in favor of sustaining the National prosecution of the war, funtil the last vestige of rebellion is crushed out, and the tradors who initiated it, by plundering the government they meant to betray, ly punished,) to assemble in town and district meetings, on Saturday, the 14th of September, and elect two delegates to represent each elec-tion district in Dauphin county, which several delegations shall assemble in County Con-vention at the C urt House in the city of Harrisburg. on TUESDAY, the 17th day of SEPTEMBER, A D. 1861, at 10 o'clock, A. M. for the purpose of nominating a full county ticket for the support of all titizens favorable to the objects stated.

The several meetings in the townships, boroughs and civies will be held at their usual places, except in the township of Jefferson, where the election is to te held at the usual place of holding the general elections; and the election in the township of West Londonderry will be held at the public house of John H. Rich, in said township. The election polls in the townships are to be opened at four o'clock and closed at seven, and those in the boroughs and cities are to be opened at seven and closed at nine o'clock.

Resolved, That the electors in the several districts be requested to instruct their delegates to vote in Convention viva voce. PHILIP IRWIN. Chairman.

THE DAY TORTUGAS. There are doubtless some of our readers who see in the papers that mutineers have been sent to the "Dry Tortugas," but have rather an indefinite idea as to what sort of a place it may be. This locality to which mutinous and disorderly soldiers are sent to serve out their term of enlistment, is a bleak and barren sand key in the Gulf of Mexico, about one hundred miles southwest from Cape Sable. It is cheerless and uncomfortable, desolated by simoons, and peopled by venemous reptiles-decidedly one of the most uncomfortable points to which the Government is obliged to send its insubordinates. The mutineers banished to Tortugas do not go as soldiers, but as unarmed laborers, and will be compelled to work upon armed fortifications, much as penitentiary convicts do in quarries and sandbanks.

ELLIS B. SCHNABEL, notorious in this his native and the other states of the north and east, as a foul mouthed advocate of the very foulest of northern dough faceism, has been arrested by the United States Marshal of Connecticut, and imprisoned at Fort Lafayette. He was for a long time one of the pets of the Buchanan administration, and was sustained on a sinecure office by Buchanan, purposely to abuse every man who differed with him, and assist in hurrying forward the very trouble in which we are now involved. So far as his arrest is concerned, that should have been done long since, because power as exhibited by the people, and not the if the charge of treason against him should power of a military despotism. They fear that prove false, he is guilty of sufficient other when the people are thus organized by their enormities to send him to the penitentiary for own volition, armed by a government which a few years at least.

MOVEMENTS OF THE REBEL ARMY—RA-PID INCREASE OF THE FEDERAL FORCES.

A Washington correspondent gives us the information that there are fresh and unmistakable indications of a large concentration of rebel troops at or near Leesburg, and on a line from there to the Chain Bridge. Our scouts at the last named place have noticed for several days a steady increase of rebel troops back of the rebel force at or near Leesburg is not regarded with suspicion in itself, but if it is the nucleus General Banks and Colonel Geary, the latter of whom has charge of the river near Nolan's Ford. The river has thus far been in a condition in which it could not be safely forded by a large army. Boat loads of rebel scouts have crossed, however, and of late they have exhibited a good deal of boldness in their operations on the Maryland side of the river, to the terror of the loyal citizen of that region. Under such circumstants the caril, now open to Cumberland, is worthing anothing. The boata unity of purpose to sustain and assist it in men fear deadly attacks, and are liable to shots suppressing the rebellion which is now seeking from the Virginia shore, as the canal follows the subversion of our fear institutions of the canal follows. close to the river banks.

It is within the bounds of possibility that the ebels will cross the Potomac at Nolan's Ford or Edward's Ferry in great force, and bring on Poland, divided Ireland between sects and so a conflict at or near Poolesville, but it is not cieties—made proud Scotland a mere vassal. probable they will risk so much for the chance of capturing Washington. One thing is certain—if they do not cross within ten days from the present time they will not do it at all, unless it be after they have won a victory, if they and State Administrations in the vigorous should ever do so. Ten days hence the government forces in this vicinity will be so great that the rebels will not dare make an offensive move ment, but will rather require all their energies to defend themselves at Manassas. The plans of General Scott for the future are of course kept secret, but all the indications are against an immediate advance. It is very much doubt ed here if anything important will be done before October. Our troops are improving every hour. Delay is strength to us at present, and is believed to be a source of weakness to the enemy. It is possible, however, that this is a mistake so far as the rebels are concerned. They may be recruting as rapidly as ourselves.

but it is not probable. THOSE DEMOCRATIC ORGANS that have lately been giving so much aid and comfort to the rebels as to attract the attention of the federal authorities and the notice of the grand juries of several counties in Pennsylvania, have changed from open sympathy, while others nurse their treason by declaring that a military despotism is to be established. This is the cant of the creatures who opposed the doctrine of Douglas of popular sovereignty in the territories, a doctrine which they pronounced falacious and mischievous, because it invested the people directly with power to frame their own constitution, adopt such domestic institutions as they saw fit, He is at present the Auditor General of the and in all things provide for their own comfort, own development, and own political power and establish its distinctions in society—select and influence. It denied the right of suffrage on the subject of slavery. The miciple is now sought to be established, by the declaration that the object of the efforts of the government is to establish a military despotism. This holds good only so far as the opposition to the right of suffrage in the territories on the subject of slavery is consistent with the spirit and meaning of our free institutions. The army of the Union—the great force of the volunteer system is founded on the fact of popular sovereignty, because its organization depends entirely on the will of the men in the ranks. Every officer in the volunteer corps is made elective, and herein is the secret of that military despotism which the rebels at the south and their sympathizers at the north fear. They fear the force of popular they are sworn to sustain, and led by men of BEN. The right of property was destroyed, whenever the wants of rebellion could not otherwise be satisfied. Private property was considered as even less sacred than public possession. It has been seized or destroyed to suit the will or the purpose of the rebel chiefs. All this is very natural. The public safety is what has made every blood-thirsty villain, who has filled the world with groans, yearn for power. It was this public safety principle that changed the destiny of all the ancient republics. It made slaves of the people of Greece and assassins of the Roman soldiers. It has held and will continue to hold the governments of Europe that are now enslaved, at the feet of their masters. It has changed the skimnishes, &c., reported to have taken place. Republics that were baptised in the blood of Frenchmen-made a howling wilderness of

Under the provisions of the law to which we refer, every citizen of the United States "who shall be within the confederate states" is liable to be apprehended, retained or secured and removed as an alien enemy," and this act applies to every Union man in the seceding states who is unwilling to deny his allegiance to the United States, and who refuses to make a dec laration in due form of his intention to become a citizen of the confederate states, and acknowledge the authority of that government. In other words, a Union man in East Tennessee or Western Virginia not engaged in the war, but pursuing in quiet his usual avocation, who refuses to declare his intention to submit to the authority of the confederate states, is "liable to be apprehended, restrained or secured and removed" from his state. This is the liberty for which the people of the south are called on to pour out their blood and contribute their treasure. When the proper time has arrived, the aristocracy who are at the head of this rebellion, their tone, some of them have entirely refrained will banish from the slave states all who are opposed to slavery, and hasten by this means the enslavement of all labor, without regard to color, sex or condition.

These results of rebellion are all natural. They have been produced by the same cause in all climes and countries. They follow as darkness follows the light, and are as certain; as death is the doom of sin. The southern rebellion to be a success must enslave every poor hold their slaves. On looking about at the wharves, we find every coal yard empty, and we might almost say swept. The appreach of cold weather makes us all feel solicitous on the subject of fuel. From its present scarcity its value has become greatly enhanced, and it now readily commands from $7 to $7.50 per sack. At the auction sale of Liverpool fine salt, by Messrs. W. DEPREDATIONS BY THE REBELS

LEXINGTON, Aug. 29.

The rebels, encouraged by the exaggerated reports of the battle near Springfield, are congregating in large numbers in this and the sur rounding counties, committing all kinds of out rages upon Union men and their property. If they are allowed to overrun Lafayette, Ray, and other such counties in this part of the State, as they are now doing, they will steal enough from the Union men to subsist their army for a month. In view of this condition of things, assistance has been asked of General Fremont The Home Guards still occupy the fortifications here, and are well supplied with arms and provisions. They can probably hold the place, out reinforcements are needed to operate agains parties who are ravaging the country. Prominent Union men are daily threatened with death, and Gov. King, of Ray county, has been frequently warned, but his devotion to the Union is unshaken, and he and his sons are ready to shoulder their muskets.

ROLLA, Mo., Aug. 29.—The correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat furnishes the following intelligence.

An attempt was made, yesterday, to blow up the train due here at 4.50 this afternoon.

As the train reached a point eight miles east of here an explosion took place beneath the locomotive, literally covering it with dirt and gravel, and slightly wounding the engineer.
