Thursdaj Morning, September 5, 1861.

A NEW and handsome flagstaff has recently been erected on the roof of the Luncasterian school house.

A system of popular lectures is shortly to be inaugurated in our city with the view of promoting the cause of temperance.

TIME EXTENDED. -- By a recent order of Court the city survey commissioners has been extended to the 19th of October, inclusive.

EAGLES. -- Two American bald eagles are now domiciled in the enclosure formerly appropriated to the deers in capitol park. They are fine specimens, and attract much attention from di itors.

LEO BROKEN. - A small .boy, named Robert Elliott, whose parents reside in North street, horse running over him. He was carried to his residence, and is doing well.

POLICE-Before the Mayor. - Henry Kimmer, Jusse Moons and J. S. McCartney, volunteers, were arraigned for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Discharged. Benj. Shorter-a vagrant, found lying around loose. Discharged. on a promise to leave the city forthwith.

Ficayune Butler-a tight little negro, with been "caught napping" in the market house. Picayune was discharged.

A tall, rough-hewn Millesian, who responded to the name of Hugh McDonald, stood charged sides give the "contraband" plenty to eat, with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Sent supplied him with funds to prosecute his jouractoss the way for thirty days.

MULITARY TACTICS. -At this particular time it is highly proper for volunteer military men, officers as well as privates, to post themselves be accomplished by experience and observation, but in view of the recent army orders concerning the competency of officers--if not from a must seek to inform themselves sufficiently before entering the service, in order to gain the

THE CITIZEN FIRE COMPANY AND THE PENN-SYLVANIA RAILROAD.-It will be recollected by our citizens that on the 7th of July last snumber of freight cars were consumed by fire on the scene of the disaster, and rendered very efficient aid in arresting the progress of the flames. A MARRIED MAN COWHIDED BY WOMEN .--- AD interesting cowhiding affair came off at a house in one of the streets east of the State Capitol about o'clock Tuesday evening. It appears that a married man. well known in certain circles, is "numerous" on love making. Not content with following and addressing several of oring to procure a living for his family, he was visited his residence, and found the rumor confirmed. The matter was quietly talked over by the injured young lady and the neglected wife, and an arrangement made for a visit in the evening to punish the recreant husband. Accordingly last evening both ladies armed themselves with cowhides, and waited until the coming of the husband. In a few minutes he came trudging along, innocent altogether of the warm reception he was about to meet .--When he had entered the house both ladies sprang upon him, and commenced at once to belabor him furiously with their cowhides. He yelled like a coward, and cried lustily for help. respectable lady, and has been obliged to labor rust and the wear of the weather, and the new

A rumor of his already having a wife reached the ears of this lady, and she at once visited his residence, and found the rumor comthat if a pain or twinge here or there were gone then his enjoyment would be complete. In temper, in recreation, he gradually mutates from the extravagant and exaggerated to the mild and sedate. What would have been jolity five years ago, would now be rather steupid by reason of the excessiveness. Even the heart loses its fondness and grows cold to those who once were dearest to it. Incidents which at one period would have caused a shudder and excited a sympathy, become scenes which are beheld with the calmness of indifference.
