BY TELEGRAPH. Latest From Washington. THE SABBATH TO BE PROPERLY OBSERVED. A SLEEPY SENTINEL TO BE SHOT. GENERAL ROSENKRANS HEARD FROM. MORE MILITARY APPOINTMENTS. A LIEUT-COLONEL CASHIERED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7. The following order has just been promulgated: HEAD QUARTERS, ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, WASHINGTON, Sept. 6th, 1861. GENERAL ORDER NO. 7.

THE Major General commanding desires and requests that in future there may be a more perfect respect for the Sabbath on the part of his command. We are fighting in a holy cause and should endeavor to deserve the benign favor of the Creator—unless in case of attack by the enemy or some other extreme military necessity, it is commanded to the commanding officers that all work shall be suspended on the Sabbath, that no unnecessary movements shall be made on that day, that the men shall as far as possible be permitted to rest from their labors, that they shall attend divine service after the customary Sunday morning inspection, and that officers and men alike use their influence to insure the utmost decorum and quiet on that day.

THE General Commanding regards this as no idle form, one day's rest in seven is necessary for man and animals; more than this, the observance of the holy day of the God of Mercy and of Battles is our sacred duty.

GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN, Major General Commanding. Official—WILLIAMS, Asst. Adj't. Gen. THE SLEEPY SENTINEL. The name of the private who is to be shot on Monday for having been found guilty of sleeping at his post is William Scott of company K of the Third Vermont volunteers.

McClellan has approved of the said sentence, and formally declared him no longer an officer of the military service of the United States.

The State troops were in part returning from Virginia.
