Monday Afternoon, September 9, 1861.

L. L. Allen, of Ohio, delivered his last lecture on temperance, in this city, in the lecture room of the Baptist church last evening. There was a large audience present, who manifested much interest in the eloquent remarks of the

To MILITARY MEN. - An advertisement in another column to military men we refer our readers who are inclined to enter the service of their country. We are assured the opportunity offered is an excellent one, and none but efficient men need address. The company is to be a crack one, and in every way worthy the attention of those who wish to enter a first class

THE VERBERE RIFLES.-This fine company, which has a large number of men sworn in, will go into Camp Curtin to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. If any of our young men intend to offer their services to their country, they cannot enter into any company that possesses a better set of men, or in which they would find more pleasant associates. Great care has been taken that none but good men should be taken

THE 17TH OF SEPTEMBER. - Fetitions are circulating for signatures in Philadelphia, praying the councils of that city to pass a joint resolution recommending to all the citizens of Philadelphia to commemorate the 17th day of September next, the anniversary of signing the Constitution of the United States, as far as possible, by patriotic observances similar to those similar action by the authorities of this city.

OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT BY ROWDIES.—At a late hour last Saturday night a soldier from Camp Curtin, named William O'Donnel while quietly walking along Fourth street above Walnut was attacked by three or four rowdies who beat him in such a merciless manner that he is not expected to recover. When found, O'Donnel was lying in the gutter apparently lifeless, with his skull fractured and other parts of his body badly bruised. He was carried to the residence of Mr. John Thomas in Fourth street, where wounds, and yesterday morning he was removed to the hospital at Camp Curtin, where he now lies in a critical condition. His assailants are known to the police, and it is to be hoped that they will be captured and dealt with according to their deserts.

POLICE MATIERS.—A white man, whose name we could not learn, was put in the city lock-up about two o'clock yesterday morning by Chief Police Constable Radabaugh. The officer arrested him in the office of the Jones' House, whither he had fled, having seen the officer approaching up the street with a lantern. At the hearing before the Mayor, he was identified as the man who some time ago went to Dr. Rutherford's office after night for the purpose of getting a pistol ball extracted from his arm, which he no doubt received in some burglarious attempt. He is evidently a dangerous man in the community, in consideration of which the Mayor give him thirty days across the way.

A burley looking negro, named Hanibal Davis, was arrested last Saturday for stealing a little Lieutenant Colonel again made his apcoat from Heir's hotel, the property of one of pearance, and threatened to hang the engineer the servants of that establishment. DESERTERS IN PRISON .-- Two German volunteers named Norman and Schmidt are now in our county prison, charged with desertion. They were arrested at Lancaster on the authority of Lieut. Col. Biddle, an aid to Gov. Curtin, and afterwards brought up on a writ of habeas corpus hearing remanded them to the custody of Lieut. B. Lichty of Capt. Bolenius' company at Camp Curtin, which gentleman in a card to the Lancaster Evening Express of last Saturday thus continues the particulars concerning the case, in reply to a published letter of the deserters complaining of their ill treatment:

"After the hearing of the case, they were remanded to my custody. Their friends then in-terfered and one of the prisoners made his es-After considerable trouble and an attempt to escape on their part, they were put into the county prison and kept there until one o'clock a.m. As they had made several attempts to escape, we thought it prudent to have them handcuffed together until they would arrive at Camp Curtin. On their arrival there they were immediately taken to Capt. Bolenius, who told them that if they would hereafter obey orders he would at once release them. They refused to do so, and he then ordered em to be taken to the guard house and kept there until 6 o'clock a. m. They were not kept there more than two and a half hours. The footing and fell under the wheels, which passed there more than two and a half hours. The commanding officer then ordered them to be taken to prison until they were willing to submit. Norman and Schmidt served under Capt. Bolenius during the three months' service, and seemed well satisfied with the treatment they then received. If they had not been treated well, is it reasonable to suppose that they would have re-enlisted for three years for the thirty dollars bounty which they allege had been promised them."

HIGH-HANDED PROCEEDINGS AT THE DEPOT-New York Lieut. Colonel on his Travels .- Quite an excitement occurred at the depot yesterday morning, which for a time threatened to culminate in a very serious disturbance. It appears that a train of cars arrived here from New York city, containing three or four companies of cavalry under the command of a Lieut. Colonel named Kilpatrick, intended to fill up a regiment of cavalry, now in Washington city. There was some delay at the depot, owing to there being no locomotive ready to draw the train, when the Lieut. Colonel, a pompous ooking dapper little individual, with "importance" written all over him, detailed a squad of men to proceed to the Round-House of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. and procure a locomotive

He politely requested them to leave the establishment, which they refused to do, at the same time using highly insulting language; whereupon Mr. Young, who is tive Seats free to all. stout-limbed, muscular man, struck out from his right shoulder with a force that sent one of the soldiers on a balloon expedition some five feet from the locomotive. The other soldiers at once pitched into Mr. Young, who gave every promise of being able to finish them off in detail, when they finally concluded that "discretion was the better part of valor," and left for reinforcements. They soon returned to the round house, their number augmented to ten or fifteen, but in the mean time the employees of the machine shop had rallied in full force, and evinced a determination to defend the company's property to the last. The soldiers looked with dismay upon this formidable array of men, and without which annually mark the return of the 4th of making the least demonstration turned and re-July and the 22d of February. We suggest traced their steps to the depot. Mr. Young, on his return to the depot, hunted up the officer in command, when the aforesaid dapper little Lieutenant Colonel presented himself

> "By what authority do you take possession of private property," asked the Superintendent in a calm, yet firm and dignified voice.

"By military authority, sir!" responded the diminutive "Importance," giving his mustache twirl that had an awe inspiring effect.

Mr. Young intimated that when that authority eminated from the proper quarter he would cheerfully obey it, but he would not permit such outrageous proceedings in a place where a physician was summoned who dressed his the civil law was still superior to the law

The little officer here commenced to fume and fret in a manner laughable to look upon. According to his account he had put a steam-boat captain in irons, and wouldn't stop a moment to put the Superintendent, the Directors, President, and all the attachees of the road in the same condition. He was a terrible little custoner, this little Lieutenant Colonel.

The killed and wounded were taken to Baltimore and placed in the hospital.

In justice to the Northern Central Railroad, it is proper to state that the cars composing the train belonged to the New Jersey Central Railroad, having came direct from Jersey City without being changed.

It is stated that when the accident occured, two or three of the soldiers were on the locomo tive with the engineer, which certainly fully exhonorates the latter with any complicity in causing the melancholy occurrence.

EXPLOSIVE MATERIAL IN BURNING FLUID. -A correspondent sends a Philadelphia paper the following in reference to the manufacture of burning fluid: "As accidents from burning fluid explosions are increasing in numbers daily, let me call your attention to fact a that every one using the article should know. Certain parties are using in the manufacture of the fluid, benzine made from coal tar, as a substitute for turnentine, the latter having risen in price, owing to the blockade of southern States. The fluid made with benzine is fearfully explosive, and the slightest defect in a lamp may cause death to even the most careful in filling and handling FOUND DEAD .- Last Saturday afternoon Alderman Kline was called upon to hold an inquest on the remains of a man, found dead in quest on the remains of a man, found dead in Eby & Kunkle's warehouse, at the canal, foot of Walnut street. PROPOSALS FOR SIDE-WHEEL STEAMERS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,

Bureau of Construction
Washington, Aug. 8, 1861. IN CONFORMITY with the act of Congress approved the 5th August, 1861, the Navy Department will receive proposals for the construction and equipment of Twelve Side-Wheel

The load draft of water not to exceed six feet nine inches; to be armed with two rifled guns, of 7,000 lbs. each, one at each end of the vessel; also, with two 12-pounder howitzers; the complement to be one hundred persons, with provisions for sixty days, to have two thousand allons of water in tanks, and to be provided with a condenser for distilling potable water.— To be schooner rigged, and have a rudder at

The Department desires to have the highest attainable speed, which must be stated in the offer, together with the length of time it can be maintained and the quantity of coal that can be carried in the bunkers for that speed, which should not be less than for eight days.

The proposals must be for the hull, spars, rigging, sails, and canvass work, boats, anchors, and cables, tauks, casks, furniture, cooking apparatus and utensils, steam machinery and spare work, with all the equipments for a vessel of war complete and ready in all respects for sea service, and ready to receive her officers, men, armament, stores, provisions, and fuel for team machinery.

The armament, stores, provisions, and fuel will be furnished by the Government.

The specifications must fully describe the materials to be used, the method and size of astening, the detail of the size, material, finish, kind, and arrangement of machinery, and of the various equipments included in the propo-

The plans must be working drawings, from which the vessel and machinery can be built, showing the allotments of space for accommolations, store-100ms, magazine, and shell-rooms, lisposition of the coal, &c.

The boilers and engines to be below the deck the main shaft may be above; the boilerpressure not to be less than thirty pounds per square inch, and a surface condenser to be used; the paddle-wheel to be overhung.

Upon application to the Commandant of any navy yard the bidder can see the list of equip ments required for the propeller gun-boats, to which, as far as practicable, these are to conform, and for which convenient stowage is to

The bidders will state the least time within which they will agree to complete the vessel for sea and deliver her at such navy yard as they may name, without extra cost to the Government. It must likewise be stated in the offer the total amount for which they will engage to do all that is required above and embraced in their specifications and plans; and the bid must be accompanied by name of guarantors that if awarded they will execute the contract.

The usual conditions of Government contracts vill be observed. Payments to be made at four lifferent intervals, as the work progresses, re-taining one-fifth of the whole amount for ninety days after the delivery of the vessel, to repair any defects that may be discoved within that time in trial at sea. It is understood that in the contract a guarantee will be inserted of the fulfilment of the condition of speed, fuel, satisfactory working of the machinery, &c., with a forfeiture in case of failure.

The reputation of bidders as successful steamship builders will have due weight, and the proposal must state the name of the marine en-gine building establishment at which they in-tend the steam marking to be made.
