friday Afternoon, September 13, 1861.

CITY BONDS. -The Mayor this morning affixed his signature to another large lot of city bonds

RETURNED. - His Excellency Gov. Curtin and Staff returned to this city at noon to-day from Washington.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL .- Lord Tempest Vane an English nobleman of high standing, arrived in our city to-day on his way to the west. His lordship is stopping at Herr's Hotel.

THE REPUBLICANS of the Sixth Ward are requested to meet at the May House, on the Ridge road, to-morrow evening at 7½ o'clock for the purpose of selecting delegates to the County Convention.

PRESBYTERIAN SERVICES.—Rev. Samuel F. colt, of Pottsville, is expected to preach in the Old School Presbyterian church on Sabbath next, in the morning at 10 o'clock, and in the evening at half-past seven.

RECRUITING. There are quite a number of to see all the companies now in progress of or- Saturday. ganization filled.

Ar a prolonged meeting, held by the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of considering the subject of the lease of the Phipointed by the pre-ident.

RECRUITING AT THE "UPPER END."-The war spirit continues very active in the upper section of our county. Capt. E. G. Savage, of Lykenstown, has some twenty-five or thirty names enrolled for a new company; and Lient. John Parsons has also obtained a number of recruits for Capt. Detwiler's company A, Lochiel Cay-

Bogus STAMPS AND ENVELOPES .- It has been discovered that large numbers of bogus postage stamps and envelopes have been manufactured and offered at various rural post offices in exchange for the new issue of the government. No less than eight hundred of this trash were presented to a post master in Connecticut recently. Who the forgers are is not yet known.

DELEGATE ELECTIONS.—The delegate elections Mrs. Nell's tavern stand; Second Ward, at the the Park House, Market Street; Fourth Ward, at the public house of Wm. Hughes; Fifth the Alderman, and when the Major was apthe May House. The polls will be opened at sent the Lieutenant and his men to Omit's hotel, in favor of a union ticket are invited to partici-

SERVICE OF SKIRMISHING,—The Washington correspondent of the New York Independent says: The skirmishing which has already occurred is thailling, but is of great service to our troops, as it accustoms them to the fire of the enemy. Large detachments of troops are continually exposed to the random shots of the rebels, and, in a short time, they become not only gallant, young and patriotic Pennsylvanian, cool under the exposure, but eager to get into and the men under his charge were on their a nearer position, where the courage and powers of both parties can be tested.

Police-Before the Mayor .- There was quite a lively time at the Mayor's office last evening, occasioned by the appearance of a dozen or more of Germans, Irish and negroes of the sixth ward, brought up on a charge of maintaining nuisances in the shape of filthy hog pens. The following are the names of the parties: Henry Dahney; Thomas Tracy; Michael Connelly; Patrick Vaughn; Amos Cowan; Wm. Charles; Lewis Kopheim; Fred. Manns; Michael Bengler; Jno. Dengler; Martin Esch; Jos. B. Bustill. The hearing lasted nearly an hour, and presented some decidedly rich scenes. The Mayor finally concluded the cases by fining each of the parties one dollar-forgoing the costs in consequence of the dull times.

Samuel Hamilton and George Washingtonboth negroes—were found by the police "lying around loose" at the depot, and accommodated with lodgings at the lock-up. Said they were from Carlisle, and had come here to play servants to some military officers. Discha.ged. George Wilson and William Monday-two whisky faced individuals, from nowhere in particular and bound to the same place-were arraigned for vagrancy. Discharged by promising to leave "these diggins" in the shortest possible space of time.

Charles Evans, wearing the uniform of a soldier, was charged with being a deserter from Camp Curtin. Stood aside, flanked by police-

Jas. Rulet-a stout burly looking customer from the up-river country, was arraigned for vagrancy. James said he came here to enlist, and the Mayor, in order to enable him to carry out his patriotic intention put him in charge of the military guard.

In addition to the above cases there were six soldiers in the lock-up, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct -- all of whom, with Rulet and Evans, were placed in the custody of a squad from the Arsenal guard and marched to Camp Curtin.

John Deller—the keeper of a lager beer sa loon near the Catholic cemetery—was charged with passing counterfeit half dollars. The information was laid by a soldier, on whom, it is alleged, one of the half dollars was passed. The officer who made the arrest found two other appearance at Court to answer.

See Professor Wood's advertisement in another column.

THE THOMAS A. SCOTT REGIMENT.—There are egiment, many of whom belong to this city. The regiment is encamped at York, and intended principally as a guard for the railroads which may be taken possession of by the government. | termination to stay at home is fixed. We learn from the York Republican that Saturday last was a gala day in the camp, the uniforms having arrived in the morning. The clothing for the regiment is of far different quality from that supplied to the three month's volunteers, an affords an indication of an intention on the part of the Government to reform the abuses which have existed to too great an extent in this respect.

The uniform of the Thomas A. Scott regiment consists of pantaloons and dress coat of dark blue with a blouse jacket and fatigue cap of the same color, and an over coat of light blue army cloth, and they will also be provided with a competent supply of under clothing, shoes, can-

A busy and amusing scene was presented at the camp on Saturday afternoon when the distribution of clothing took place. As Uncle Sam only allows his soldiers to be of three different sizes and proportions, it follows as a required size and proportion, stand a slim chance and whose pants had to be turned up about eight in ten days from now we shall not be surprised they afforded much amusement in the camp on camp.

> The outfit received comprised axes, picks, shovels, hatchets, camp kettles, and in fact al-

The arms for the regiment have not yet been received but are expected during the week. It ladelphia and Erie Railroad, the whole matter is not yet known what description of arms will was referred to a committee of three, to be ap- be sent, but the officers have promise of the best and most improved weapons. As soon as the arms are received, the regiment will be removed down to Cockeysville to relieve the Twentieth | little money, for a destitute old man is indeed a Indiana, now stationed there. We refrain from giving a list of the officers, as the regiment has not yet been organized, but will be in a few You save money, by all means. But an old days, when we will be enabled to give a full account of the organization.

JUSTICE TO A STRANGER AND A SOLDIER requires us to state, in connection with the arrest of the lieutenant alluded to in Thursday and yesterday's Telegraph, that his committal was both hasty and illiteral, under all the circumstances of the case. He had a number of men under his charge, was ordered to have them fed at Omit's hotel by his major, and when that officer was not just on hand when Mr. Omit wanted his money, it was forcing the law and putting justice to a strange test to commit a United in this city will be held to morrow evening, at States officer on a charge of false pretences bethe following designated places: First Ward, at cause he had procured meals for a number of men in the United States service at a certain public house of B. S. Peters; Third Ward, at hotel, on the order of his superior officer. When the matter was brought properly before Ward, at Raymond's Hotel; Sixth Ward, at pealed to he acknowledged frankly that he had 7 o'clock, and close at 9 o'clock. All persons and of course was responsible and ready to pay the bill. But what sort of redress was this for the Lieutenant, who was thus sought to be disgraced by the hasty action of a sour and politically prejudiced bonaface? We have a notion that other Lieutenants will avoid Omit's hotel in the future and seek entertainment where the desert is made up of other fare than a prosecu tion for false pretenses and an imprisonment almost without a hearing. The Lieutenant, way to defend the honor and glory of their country. When they are in battle, the thought of the meal they ate at Omit's hotel and the hour that the Lieutenant passed in prison at the instance of Mr. Omit, will be a pleasant reflection. In a wicked world, treason assumes all kinds of shapes and acts in various grades.

----Pension to Volunteers.—It will no doubt interest our brave volunteers to know that, in case they are disabled or killed while in service. their families will not want for bread. The na tion, through the Government, stretches out its protecting arm over the widow and the fatherless of its soldiers, tenderly adopting them as its own; and every man wounded or disabled in the service of his country, may rest assured that, in his hour of helplessness, his support is assured. Already, the families of many of those who fell at Bull Run are in receipt of pensions from the Government. By section first, of the law passed July 4, 1836, soldiers of the volunteer or militia service, and the widows of soldiers dying in battle or from injury or disease, incurred while in service, are entitled to the full benefit of the invalid pension laws. Volunteers for more than six months are especially provided for by an act passed at the last session of Congress. The wounded soldier receives an annual allowance proportionate to his disability. If totally incapacitated from labor, he receives the pay of a soldier in active service; if partially disabled, a proportionate pension, graduated according to the certificate of the examining Surgeon. Widows of officers and DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS soldiers get one-half the pay which their husbands received. If no widow survives, then the pension is paid to the children, if any, until they arrive at the age of sixteen years. No bounty land has been voted to soldiers for service subsequent to the act of March 3, 1855, but when peace is restored, due provision in this respect will probably be made for the loyal soldiers now in service, or their immediate surviving relatives, should the principals not live to claim it. Those who have claims, or desire further information upon this subject, may obtain it by meritian to the Commission of the party of the understanding the principals of the loyal soldiers now in service, or their immediate surviving relatives, should the principals not live to claim it. Those who have claims, or desire further information upon this subject, may obtain it by meritian to the Commission of the principal pension is paid to the children, if any, until tain it by writing to the Commissioner of Pen-

A young man who applied at a recruiting station not a thousand miles from this city for enlistment, was asked "if he could sleep on the point of a bayonet," when he promptly replied by saying, "he could try it, as he had often slept on a pint of whisky, and the kind they used where he came from would kill farther than any shooting-iron he ever saw "

CORE HAVELOCKS .- A patent was issued on the 7th inst., to Mr. J. K. Gittens, of Greenpoint, for a novel application of cork to the interior of hats and havelocks. The idea of this appliance is to protect the wearer from the intense rays of the sun, which it is claimed it will do more effectually than can be done by any other means. Mr. Gittens has succeeded in inventing machinery to cut cork in the very thinnest pieces. This lining which he uses for have locks, &c., is of the thickness of paste board, perfectly elastic and a non-conductor of heat matter of course, that those who are not of the and water. It may be wadded up in a handful and when released will assume its former posiof securing a fit. One man promenaded in his tion. It is lighter than any other substance of new outfit, whose coat nearly reached his heels, which a havelock can be made; a blanket made of it will answer the same purpose and be companies, beside those who have already sent or ten inches at the bottom in order to clear of not half the weight of a rubber blanket; it detachments to the field, now recruiting in the his feet. A little attention from the tailor will is impenetrable by water; but its greatest recity. The war spirit continues very active, and of course remedy all these little difficulties, but commendation is that it is a non-conductor of neat, and thus becomes a great protector of the soldier from the sun. The thermometer which will stand at 112 degrees in the sun, will indicate but 88 when placed under a hat or havemost everything necessary or useful about a lock lined with cork. Mr. Gittens is preparing to line hats and havelocks with this material upon an extensive scale.

SAVING FOR OLD AGE. - No one denies that it is wise to make a provision for old age, but we are not all agreed as to the kind of provision it is best to lay in. Certainly, we shall want a sorrowful sight, and suggests to every one that his life has been foolishly, if not wickedly spent. man needs just that particular kind of strength which young men are most apt to waste.—

Many a foolish young fellow will throw away on a holiday a certain amount of nervous energy, which he will never feel the want of until he is seventy; and then, how much he will want it! It is curious, but true, that a bottle of champagne at twenty may intensify the rheumatism at three score. It is a fact that overtasking the eyes at fourteen may necessitate the aid of spectacles at forty, instead of eighty. We advise our young readers to be saving of health for their old age; for the helds good with regard to health as to maxim holds good with regard to health as to meney-waste not, want not. It is the greatest mistake to suppose that any violation of the laws of health can escape its penalty. Nature forgives no sin, no error. She lets off the offender for fifty years, sometimes, but she catches him at last, and inflicts the punishment just when, just where, just how he feels it most. Save up for old age, but save more STAPE than money; save health, save honor, save knowledge, save the recollection of good deeds and innocent pleasures, save pure thoughts, save friends, save love. Save rich stores of that kind of wealth which time cannot diminish. nor death take away.

VERY Soon.-The above remark by General McClellan, in connection with the expected bat-tle to put down rebellion, MEANS SOMETHING; and who of us can realize the mighty interests involved? Permit us to say, that success is with the right, and the right will prevail; and here pardon us for giving advice. Domestic Dry Goods are largely on the advance. Urich & Bowman are still selling at low prices, southeast corner of Front and Market Streets. sep12-2t.

HAVING returned from the city I now have on hand a full assortment of all kinds of Dry Goods: 200 pieces of new Calicos; 200 dozen of Stockings; a splendid lot of Black Alapacha; a large lot of Hoop Skirts; 1,000 yards of Crash for Toweling. All kinds of Summer Dress Goods at great reduction. S. Lewy, S. LEWY, Rhoads' Old Corner.
