WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.

There is authority for stating that the proclamation of the Governor-General of Cuba, recognizing the rebel flag, is spurious. No such proclamation has been made.

The Navy Department has cause for congratulation in the promptness and efficiency of the commandants of the several Navy Yards—all orders being obeyed with remarkable precision and expedition.

Recently Major General Fremont telegraphed for a number of guns and gun carriages, and within less than a day thereafter the department was informed that these war requisitions were already on their way from Philadelphia, Brooklyn and Portsmouth. There is as much quiet around and about the department as in any of the ordinary government bureaus, yet the amount of business transacted is very heavy and its important results daily become more apparent.

By an order issued from the War Department to-day the commanding officer of the United States forces at Hatteras Inlet, North Carolina, is authorized to accept the services of such loyal North Carolinians, not to exceed one regiment, as in his neighborhood may volunteer to take up arms for the United States, and to designate a regular officer to muster them into

And no one such persons as he may deem suitable to officer ever heard of Dixie's land being other than the companies, batallions or regiments, that Manhattan Island, until recently, when it has may, if approved, be commissioned by the President President.

There is no truth in a report, published in the Baltimore papers to-day, that three hundred of the enemy, fearing starvation, had lines.

There is no news of the other side of the Potomac to-day, up to the to their old homes, where they had lived in present time.

It is stated that our government has information that the proposition of the administration to accept the terms of the Paris Conference, for the abolition of privateering, has been rejected through the intervention of England.

It was soon ascertained that the rebels in considerable force were concealed behind a arge warehouse and other buildings in that vicinity, when Captain Shriber, of the Massachusetts Thirteenth, quickly run up a tweivepounder rifled cannon, and fired a number of shots into the buildings behind which they lay concealed, causing them to disperse with a supposed loss of some five or six men killed.

When slavery existed in New York, one Dixy owned a large tract of land on Manhattan Island and a large number of slaves. The increase of the slaves and the increase of the thrown down their arms and come within our abolition sentiment caused an emigration of the slaves to more thorough and sec tions, and the negroes who were thus sent off clover, with feelings of regret, as they could not imagine any place like Dixy's. In those days negro singing and minstrelsy were in their intancy, and any subject that could be wrought into a balled, was esgerly picked up. This was the case with "Dixie." It originated in New York, and assumed the proportions of a song there. In its travels it has been enlarged, and has "gathered moss," It has picked up a "note" here and there. chorus has been added to it, and from an indis tinct chant of two or three notes, it has become have thus been at pains to state the real origi-
