A QUARTETTE, consisting of a harpist, violinist, v. calist and collectionist, favored various localities of our city this morning with serenades, to the great delight of our juvenile population.

DETENTION.—The express train from Pittsburg failed to make its usual time here this morning, caused it is said by a freight train having run off the track somewhere between this city and the mountains.

EXPRESS AREAD OF THE MAIL. -The New York Post, one of the best of our New York city exchanges, comes to this city regularly every day by the Hope Express ten hours in advance

SOLDIERS, STRANGERS, and all whom it may concern will find the best assortment of nick and fancy store, No. 91 Market street, two doors east of Fourth street, south side. We cannot enumerate all the necessary and convebefore purchasing.

A CHICAGO EDITOR ON HIS TRAVELS. -The its route. The editor says:

The country through which we pass be-tween Philadelphia and Harrisburg, a distance of one hundred and six miles, is probably set-tled by the most intelligent agriculturalists, and is brought to a higher degree of agricultural perfection, than any space of country of equally great extent on this continent. We will not except New England in this statement."

APPLICABLE TO THIS REGION.—Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, in a recent speech at Coatland, said something for the benefit of men in this section of country who are going around "on the sly," endeavoring to prejudice the ignorant against the Government. Read it and don't let any one catch you at such "dirty tricks" hereafter :

"My friend tells me there is something to be said about taxes. Who objects to taxes? An individual here and there who not being well intormed, trinks if he can have peace it will that Judas Iscariot is laughing in his sleeve to think he was not living in this day, for he would have been surely underbid.

GOOD FOR NORRISTOWN.—The Norristown Demade up of four brothers of another family. families is one good day's work, and if all addendum to female beauty. And, voila, hoops should volunteer in that style it would not are worn, and will continue to be worn, until take long to depopulate the town. Norristown has now sent over seven hundred to the war in is still more charming and still more gracefulincluding three month men.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning a young man named Wm. McLaughlin, a brakesman on one of the military trains on the Northern Central Railway, met with quite a severe accident at a place called Spark's Switch, about twenty miles from Baltimore. It appears that he was in the act of putting down the brake. at the above station, when his feet slipped, and had it not been for the soldiers who caught him, there is not the slightest doubt that he but slight injuries, having his foot caught between the bumpers of the cars, which was smashed. He was taken to Baltimore, and at latest accounts was doing well.

FLAG PRESENTATION AT CAMP CURTIN.—Yesby his aids and the different officers of the state government, visited Camp Curtin for the purpose of presenting flags to Cols. Irwin and Nagle's regiments. The flags were the same as those provided by the Legislature for all the frequently stated, exceedingly handsome and commandant of Camp Curtin, were both imwhich we formed a small and homely portion, were permitted inside of the line by Cel. DIVINE SERVICES will be held in the Fourth the pastor, Rev. James Colder.

THE DAUGHIN GUARD.—Recruits for this fine volunteer company continue to present themselves daily, and there is every indication that the muster-roll will be completed at an early day. The company is to be commanded by Mr. Frederick Geety, a member of the old "Dauphin Guard," which our citizens will recollect had the reputation of being one of the best drilled companies in the State. The rendezvous of the company is in Beaty's building, opposite the Bomgardeer House.

POLICE. - Mayor's Office. - In the absence of his honor, the Mayor, Justice Beader heard the lock-up cases this morning.

C. W. Holt, Wm. Riely, Wm. Anderson and James Whalen, were arraigned for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and as none of the party had the wherewithal to pay fines, etc., they were discharged with an injunction to leave the city for the city's good.

Wm. Hummel, a dapper little "yaller boy," with an unexceptionable pair of "ivories" and eyes as bright and broad as pewter platter plates, stood charged with kicking up a "rumpus" in the lower market house, and resisting 'der perlice." William was sent across the way for five days.

Catharine O'Bryan, a saucy looking little mulatto, apparently just out of teenhood, and fat as butter, was up for disorderly conduct on the streets. She was dismissed with a severe reprimand.

THE GAME SEASON has now fairly "set in," and our sportsmen are making the most of it. urn of course relieves him of the suspicion of Wild Pigeons still hang back, although we see by our exchanges that they are numerous elsewhere. Reed birds, however, are said to be abundant. They will remain in season until about nacks and fine toilet articles at Keller's drug the middle of October. time in the vocative. THE HOOP QUESTION. We sometime ago alluded to the fact that a bold effort is being made by the fashionable females of Europe to do away entirely with hooped skirts. The Empress Eugenie discarded them some months since. Queen Victoria, who is also a specimen of plumptitude, has made up her mind that she can do without hoops, and forthwith all the titled ladies who surround her discover that hoops are exceedingly dangerous in case of fire, and held a meeting to dissuade all the sex from indulging in the use of them. But will they raise the price of butter. But he who rebels at succeed in this proscription? It is our private taxes to support such a war, you may believe opinion, that it will not be so easy a matter to convince the fair sex all over the world that hoops are unbecoming, and until they are convinced on that point, all that may be said about the peril from fire arising from their use will fender, speaking of two companies that left for amount to but very little. THE ART OF CATCHING THE HORSE.-A corres pondent of the Valley Farmer truly remarks that there are few things more aggravating than to be in a hurry to go to some place and have a great trouble to catch a horse. I have sometimes made the assertion that a horse which I raise will never be hard to catch unless some one else spoils him. The way I manage is to keep them gentle from colts, handling them as often as convenient. When young horses would have fallen on the track and been in. are running to grass give them salt occasionally, stantly killed; but fortunately he escaped with and let them fondle about you, making as little show of trying to get hold of them as possible. There is nothing surer to spoil a horse forever than to run as if trying to hem him in, and yelling at him authoritatively, or scolding, when he can see, just as well as you know, that he is out of your reach. To put on the cap sheaf, terday evening, Governor Curtin, accompanied whip him severely for causing trouble, and my word for it, the next time you want to catch him he "will not listen to the voice of your charming, charm you never so wisely."

tour mon he since a fourth was added to them, by half faling off the top of my head and threatening to make me baid.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's, Hair Restorative, main!, to arrest the falding off of ms bair, for i had really so expectation that gray thair could ever be restored to its original color exception of the main of my was the failing off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensith ity to the scale, and dandrid ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wile, at whose sublotation I was toduced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strong y recommend all hu brids who vine the identification of their wy story fit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting baid.

Very reprectitely, Ban. A. LAVENDER.
