DR. JOHNSTON.

DR. JOHNSTON. DR. JOHNSTON.

Dr. Johnson member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the mest eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greatest part of whose life his been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadeliphia and elsewhere, has eliected some of the most asconshing cures that were ever known. Many troobled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nercountess, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulcess, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind were cured immediately,

TARE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who having injured them-sizes b. private and improper indulgencies, that secret eives b, provide and improper indulgencies, that secret and softery nabit which rules both body and mind, uniting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy enects produced by early habits of youth, vis: Weaknoss of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Less of Muscular Power, Paipitation of the Heart, Dyapepsu, Norrous Irritability, Dorangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debitity, Symptoms of Consumption here.

MENTALLY.

MIRTALLY, the fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded :—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, De-pression of Spirita, Evil Foreboldings, Aversion to Socie-ty, Self-distrust, Love of Solitude, 'Umidity, &c., are some of the evil effects.

Thousands of persons of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their decline in health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emanisted, have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough, and symptoms of consumnation. YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, in dulyed in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are alghtly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hopes of his country, the darring of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. So th persons must, before contamplating

PINEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.—When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds ho has imbibed and imprudent votary of pleasure finds ho has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery determined the seeds of the seeds of the property of the sense of shame or dread of discovery determined from applying to those who, from education and respectability can aloue befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, affecting too head, throat, nose, skin, soo, progressing on with frightnir rapidity, hill death puts a period to his dreadful sudicrings by sending him to "that bourner from whence so travoler returns." It is a mediance, owing to the unskillniness of ignor and precenders, who, by the use of that deadly poston, merousy, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.

How he left a large fortune and com-mercial character of the highest order, and how his five sons settled in five great cities of Eu rope, and have had more authority over the war and peace and the destinies of nations than the Sovereigns themselves, the world pretty well knows. Despotic monarchs must be dependant upon money lenders, unless they are free from debt, and can command unlimited revenues for untold purposes-which is never true of despotic Sovereigns.
