A tragical occurrence was witnessed near this Can afford you success in this meddest of wars willing yesterday the Pennsylvania Forty-You ve no yields chance to term your list lixth, Col. Knipe, on their way to join Gen'l. composed principally of Irishmen, who have given the commander much trouble. When near Muddy Run, the of the men got engaged in a fight, and one of them, named Lanahan, Why, you know that you'd not stand the order of Major Arnold C. Lewis, tied to the rear of a baggage wagon! After proceeding about a mile it was reported to Major Lewis that Lanshan was at large with a loaded gun in his hand. The Major, accompanied by Assistant Surgeon W. Charles Hogers, rode towards Lanahan and ordered histoto give up the gun. Lanahan refused; and while the Major was in the act of getting of this house to enforce his order, Lanahan retrested a few steps, took de-liberate aim, and about the Major in the back with a ball and three buckshot. The latter fell and expired in three minutes, without uttering a sord. Lanahan was secured, and the body of the unfortunate officer was placed in a wagon and guarded to the camp. Lanahan is now in the hands of the Provost Marshal, and will be tried by a drum-head court probably to day. The murderer is a resident of Scranton, Pannsylvania. Major Lewis was thirty-two years of age, was married about a year ago, and leaves a widow but no children. He served in the Mexican war, and on the breaking out of the present rebellion, was editing the Catasaqua (Lehigh county) Herald, which occupation he resigned to enter the army. He was dearly beloved by the whole regiment, and his death hangs like a pall upon the spirits of his associates.

Yesterday morning, Col. Le Due, of the New York Thirty-fourth, keeping guard on the Potomac, discovered a body of rebel cavalry on the opposite side partially concealed by trees and ravines. From various movements it was supposed that they were in considerable force, and that they meditated constructing some offensive works there. About noon he commenced throwing shells from a point too far distant to produce much effect. Changing the position, he threw several shells into their midst, scattering them in every direction. This occurred at the mouth of the Seneca river. The Massachusetts Twelfth, Colonel Webster. has recently taken a position which relieves the

IMPORTANT ARRESTS.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 24. Messrs. Kreamer and Nightingale, of Hunterdom were arrested and brought to this city today charged with treasonable conspiracy. It is alleged that they have been engaged in recruiting men for a treasonable organization called the "Sons of Liberty," having for its motto 'Jefferson Davis before Abe Lincoln." Subsequently the tack was changed, and recently it is alleged they have been enlisting men for the Union, but secretly with the intention of serving the purposes of Jeff Davis. They were imprisoned in the Mercer county jail. The grand jury are examining the evidence against them, and will report during the present term. The friends of Col. James W. Wall were greatly rejoiced to-day upon receipt of a dispatch from him that he had been released from imprisonment at Fort Lafayette.

THE WAR IN KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 24.
