THE CROPS --- Now that the corn and potato crops have reached that state of growth at which they cannot be easily affected, before they entirely mature, it affords us great satisfaction to be able to state that the yield of each, in Dauphin county, will be enormous, from the fact that an unusually large number of acres were planted. The great abundance of these crops must tend to make them very cheap, which will be good news to many whose means are limited, brought about, principally, by the present unhappy condition of the country.

VERY MEAN.-Last evening a party of rowdies went to the premises of a widow lady in Walnut street, and commenced helping themselves without "leave or license" to a choice variety of grapes, which she had cultivated with great are. The vandals, not content with stealing the fruit, wantonly destroyed the vine itself, an trommitted other depredations in the garden. When the lady remonstrated against ther conduct, she was grossly insulted by their vile langauge Unfortunately, she cannot identify any of the trespassers, so that they will be likely to escape the legal punishment which they fully FAST DAY. -To-day is the day set apart by the President of the United States as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer. In times like these it becomes a christian people to humble themselves before the throne of God, imploting his mercy, and forgiveness of our individual and National sins, and asking his bless ing upon our country in this time of her sore trouble. We hope that all our loyal citizens will abstain from their usual business to-morarms, and a speedy restoration of peace."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—Quartermaster General Hale is already receiving a large number of blankets and woolen stockings from the ladies in different parts of the State, in response to his call for these articles. The General says it is impossible to acknowledge all the articles received, but urges upon the community to do all in their power, as the soldiers will stand much in need of clothing as winter approaches.

DONATION OF BLANKETS FROM LEWISBURG ewisburg has already done nobly in the way of furnishing men to the Government to put down treason; and now her fair daughters not to be behind their sisters in other sections of the State in their exhibition of loyalty and patriotism, have given a hearty response to the late call of the Quarter-master General for blankets to shield our brave volunteers from the chilling blasts of the approaching winter. The contribution of the ladies of Lewisburg consists of one hundred and eighteen blankets, all of excellent quality, and well adapted to the service store, Market Square. It appears that one of correspondence which followed this munificent the clerks of the establishment went to draw a donation, with the kope that it may awaken a similar exhibition of patriotism on the part of the ladies of this city.

FOR STATESMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMAN, isling off the top of my head and threatming to make no baid.

In this unpleasant predicament, I way induced so try wood's Hair Restorative, main! to arrest the falling off of my heaf, for i had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color exception dyes. I was, however, greatly surpris d to find far the use of two botles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray bairs and sensible ity to the scalp, and dandruft ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, listrongly recommend all hu-bands who vitue the distribution of their wiv s to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting baid.

Very respectfully, B.N. A. LAVENDER

WOOD'S HAIR BESTO ATIVE.

PROF O. J. WOOD: tlear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fover, in New Orleans in 1851, I was indeed to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no wirds can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
