Description of the Notes.

The above is a representation of the One Hundred Dollar Treasury Note. It is of the same expire every six months, and canbe readily cut the Bank Note Company have the exclusive use off, and presented to the nearest branch office for payment at the times of maturity. The various denominations of Treasury Notes, bearing 78-10 per cent. interest, are now being signed at Washington, and will be issued to the public size, and as near a fac simile as can be made on in a few days. They are as follows: $56, $100, wood, and at the same time adaptable to the $1,000, $5,000. In the meanwhile, subscripwood, and at the same time adaptable to the rapid printing of the typographical steam press. The original note, however, is of the finest artistle finish, and in two colors, viz: The large outline "C" behind "United States," and the figures "100" in tablet in each lower corner, are printed in green: the figures, lettering, portrait of General Scott, and the coupons, are all in black ink. The name and signature on the above are, of course, fictitious, having been put in by wood engraver, merely to show the general appearance of filling up. The back of the note is printed in green, with its amount very beautifully expressed in geometrical lathe work and figures. On one end of the back is also the indersment, and on the other end the rate of other end the $100 note. THE REBEL LOSS 1200.

CHIGAGO, Sept. 25.

Special dispatches from Quincy reports by telegraph to day that Gen. Seigel with a large force, and also Gen's. Lane and Hunter had arrived at Lexington and attacked Price. An fficer in the employ of the Government heard heavy firing while passing Hamilton yesterday, and says that it was believed that Seigel had Price in the same position as Mulligan had been placed in. In regard to Gen. Hunter this cannot be true, as he was at Rolla, two hundred and fifty miles from Lexington, on Saturday.

From the reports of some of Mulligan's com-mand who reached this city last night, we learn the following additional particulars:
The men left Lexington on Saturday afternoon. Nearly two hours were occupied in fer-rying them over the river. At three o clock they started for Hamilton, forty miles distant,
