HARRISBURG, PA. Saturday Afternoon, September 28, 1861.

PRINTING MATERIAL FOR SALE.

Two Power Presses, old Adams' Patent. Two Iron Hand Presses, one nearly new, and a large amount of second hand printing material...

ATTENTION FIRST CITY ZOUAVES.—You are hereby notified to meet this afternoon at half past five o'clock, fully equipped for parade.

EXPIRED.—The ordinance fixing five o'clock a. m. as the time for opening the market, expired this morning.

CONTUMPTIBLE.—Some contemptible scoundrel amused himself last night by showing the marble steps in front of Mr. Wm. Hayford's residence in Market street.

WE OVERHEARD a spirited little conversation the other evening going far to show that military matters still receive their due share of attention in this city.

A chance to meet B. on the street, and not having seen him for several days enquired where he had been.

"Out in the country recruiting" replied B., twirling his mustache with a decided military air.

"Recruiting!" exclaimed A., surprised that his friend, who is a confirmed invalid had embraced the profession of Mars; "you recruiting!" the A.—

"No" quickly interrupted B., "My health!" Whereupon, in view of the length, breadth, depth and general profundity of the speaker, both parties incontinently adjourned to the "European" and "smiled."

KILLED ON THE RAILROAD.—A man named John Barry, residing at McKeesport, was killed near Swisshole station, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, on Wednesday, under the following circumstances: The deceased was seen on the track at the Swisshole crossing by the engineer of an approaching freight train, who blew the whistle and otherwise endeavored to apprise him of his danger.

The man was too deaf, however, to hear the alarm, and pursuing his way, reached the track just as the train came up. The engine struck him when he was about on the middle of the track, throwing him some distance and killing him instantly.

Coroner Bostwick was summoned and held an inquest on the body, when a verdict of accidental death was rendered. Deceased was about eighty years of age, and is believed to be quite deaf. His remains were sent home for interment.

BRUTAL ASSAULT ON A CITIZEN BY SOLDIERS.—Last Thursday, while Mr. Luther Simons was proceeding from his residence to this city, he was met by a couple of soldiers on the road leading to Allison's Hill, and asked by one of them if he was a policeman.

Before he had time to reply, however, the man attacked him, beating him in a shameful manner, breaking his jaw-bone and inflicting other injuries of the most serious character, after which they made their escape, leaving the victim of their violence on the road in a state of insensibility.

After a short time, Mr. Simons so far recovered as to be able to reach his residence, on the top of the hill east of the city, where he is still confined in bed under the care of his physician.

Mr. Simons is not conscious of having given the least offence to any soldiers, and the attack upon him, therefore, was without the least provocation on his part.

NO OFFICERS TO BE HAD.—It is folly, says an intelligent contemporary, for young men to continue pressing on to Washington in the vain hope of obtaining appointments in the departments.

There are not only no vacancies, but a number of clerks have been discharged, because there was nothing for them to do. If in some newly-created department a call is made for one or more clerks, there are always an average of twenty applicants for each opening, standing ready with "strong papers," nineteen of whom are necessarily disappointed.

IT IS SURPRISING, now, when the country is calling upon every citizen to consecrate his life to its salvation, to see able-bodied young men hopelessly hanging round the departments for employment, while the voice from the regiments around the metropolis is "fall in, fall in to our ranks, there is room for you here."

A NEW KIND OF DRESS GOODS.—We read in our exchanges that a paper manufacturer has just invented a kind of impermeable paper suitable for dress goods.

Its manner of employment is both simple and ingenious. It consists in replacing by small frames the hoops upon which are ballooned the petticoats of our ladies.—These new-fangled engines are covered with packing canvas, upon which you have only to glue, as on a common screen, the newly invented paper.

Thanks to this invention, when a lady wants a new dress, her husband has no longer to distress himself with the disbursement of forty or fifty dollars for twenty yards of velvet, or thirty of moire antique; all he will have to do will be to buy five or six rolls of twelve cent paper and send for the glue man. This is as simple as all grand ideas.

The father about to marry his daughter, will not be obliged a long time beforehand to bother himself about her trousseau—he will limit himself to asking his wife on the day before the wedding: "What paper shall we glue on to Emily?"

"Well, my love, the mother will reply, "do whatever you think proper—it seems to me that some twenty-two cent paper—with a pretty border, you know"—

Then a man will take a wife without dower—and the marriage contracts will stipulate that the father-in-law engages to paper-hang his daughter for the first three years.

THE DOG LAW expired on the 20th of this month, and owners of canines may now permit their animals to run with unrestricted freedom until next "dog-days."

AN English jury has lately been terribly troubled in its mind by the question, "Is a velocipede a pedestrian? Pedestrians have a right to the sidewalk; a lady rolled her baby on the sidewalk in a velocipede; an obstructed citizen prosecuted her; lady pleaded that the velocipede was a pedestrian; the jury stayed out eight hours, and came back with the verdict, "really can't say."

INSULTING WOMEN.—Two genteelly dressed individuals, bearing the semblance of men, stopped the wife of a respectable mechanic in Short street yesterday afternoon, and grossly insulted her by using language that would have made even the inmates of a common brothel blush by its indecency.

Not content with this, they rudely caught her around the waist, and would have committed other outrages had they not been suddenly interrupted by the appearance of some men who heard the cries of the women, and came to her relief.

The rowdies quickly fled from the scene, pursued by some of the men, but they fortunately succeeded in making their escape. Enter in the evening the husband of the woman, having been fully posted in reference to the dress and general appearance of the rascals, secured the services of Chief Radabaugh, and made an extended search after them, but were not able to meet with any party answering their description.

"Somebody's dead in there," was the remark of a little child, to her companion, as they passed a door, on the knob of which was hung a piece of black crape.

Yes, somebody is dead in there, and yet how little is thought of it by the outward world, save by the near friends and relatives of the departed one.

It may be a child of three or five summers—a father's pride—a mother's joy—a pet of numerous friends, and still the crowd passes carelessly on, merely remarking "somebody's dead in there!"

Perhaps it is a father or tender mother, upon whom the happiness and prosperity of loving children were depending, and who are now orphans, turned upon the charities of a cold and heartless world, to experience its stern realities—and as the crowd hurries by, no enquiries are made, no soothing consolation offered, but merely the thought strikes the passer by that "somebody's dead in there!"

It may be an old veteran, whose hair is silvered with the frosts of seventy winters—who has encountered the tempestuous billows of life, for these long years—whose pleasures and sorrows, smiles and tears, are embowed with the earthly remains, and the spirit gone to render up its account to the God who created it.

Yet, how little we realize the magnitude of the passing thought—"somebody's dead in there!"

Poison.—Before the Mayor.—Andrew Sponaler, well known hereabouts, was up for drunkenness. Andy was one of the three months' volunteers, and has again assumed the soldier's trowsers for a three year's campaign.

He was remanded to the lock-up to await the guard from Camp Curtin.

John Murphy and Daniel McLain—two vagabonds, one a boy of fifteen years, or thereabouts, halting from Lancaster—were arraigned for "lying about loose." They were discharged with an injunction to make themselves "scarce" in the city limits in the shortest possible space of time.

George Vanlear—a mahogany hued negro, with a crop of wool resembling an unraked stubble-field—was poked up in the Market house, where he had taken lodgings for the night. Discharged.

John Martin—A delapidated specimen of humanity, with "vag" written all over him—was arraigned for his bad looks, and discharged with an injunction to resume his travels.

William Hillman halls from Fourth and Shippen streets, Philadelphia. He arrived in this city a few days ago, as he states, to procure work; but not succeeding in this laudible effort, he concluded to play police officer "on his own book."

Chief Radabaugh, however, got wind of the affair, and nipped Williams' aspirations in the bud, by taking him off to the lock-up. He was discharged with a severe reprimand by the Mayor.

ANOTHER FEMALE SOLDIER.—Recently a young man who called himself Jack Slater, made application to be recruited into company A, of Col. McLean's regiment, encamped near the Falls of Schuylkill, Philadelphia.

Jack was rather a good looking fellow, with a closely cropped "nob," and the faintest possible mustache. He was accepted, sent to drilling, and soon attained sufficient proficiency to be trusted on guard duty.

Last week there was a ball given in the vicinity, and the soldiers attended it in large numbers. Jack was among the gayest of the gay, and he succeeded in making a very decided impression upon several of the girls with whom he danced.

On last Wednesday, a person who happened to visit the camp, recognized Jack as an old acquaintance, and in a moment of surprise, ejaculated, "Hello, Jenny, what are you doing in that rig?"

This remark excited suspicion, suspicion gave rise to inquiry, and inquiry resulted in the discovery that Jack was no Jack at all, but a female named Ellenora Virginia Slater, whose home was in Division street, in the fourteenth ward.

It seems that Jack, or rather Jenny, had two lovers in the company which she entered. A spirit of adventure, joined to a desire to be near her male friends, induced her to go into the ranks. Her companions, with a female friend, assisted her in her design; they accompanied her to a wood near the camp ground, where a suit of male attire was furnished her, and her luxuriant locks were clipped off.

Her female togethery was given to a lady friend to bring to town, which the lady friend put in pawn for her own special advantage without loss of time.

Alderman Beiler, yesterday, sent Jenny below for thirty days as a vagrant, and so ends the adventure. Jenny says that there are numerous female soldiers in the ranks, and she declares that two of her own feminine companions are at present with Company C, of Baxter's Fire Zouaves, now at Washington.

BAPTIST CHURCH SERVICES.—Preaching to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock by the Rev. Mr. Robinson of the Presbyterian Church.

IN TOWN.—Mr. Augustus Ball, of this city, who has been at the seat of war as leader of the band connected with the 2d Michigan Regiment, has returned here on a visit to his friends.

He will again return to his camp, near Munson's Hill, in the course of a few days.

NORMAL SCHOOLS.—Mr. M. C. Wickensham, the able Principal of the State Normal School at Millersville, Lancaster county, has been commissioned a Captain, and is recruiting a company for Col. Hambricht's regiment, to serve during the war, to be called the "Normal Rifles."

This company is intended to represent the educational element in the army, and will embrace young men of education and character.

SECOND TRIAL OF THE "STRANGER."—There was another trial of the Friendship Steam Fire Engine this morning at the corner of Canal and State streets, but we were not furnished with the result of its performance, which are understood to have been of a very satisfactory nature.

We suggest to the company that they give it a trial some fine day in Market Square, where its performance can be more generally witnessed by our citizens.

JUDICIAL CONFERENCE.—The conference appointed by the Republican Union Conventions of the counties of Dauphin and Lebanon, composing the 12th Judicial District, met at the public house of Geo. W. Eby, in Palmyra, Lebanon county, this morning at 11 o'clock.

Present—F. K. Boas, D. Fleming and W. W. Hays from Dauphin, and A. S. Ely, Thomas Walker and John Deininger from Lebanon county.

F. K. Boas, Esq., was appointed President, and A. S. Ely, Esq., Secretary.

On motion of W. W. Hays, Esq., the following resolution was unanimously adopted: Resolved, That we recommend for re-election as President Judge of the 12th Judicial District the Hon. John J. Pearson, who, in the discharge of his duties during the last twelve years has shown himself to be possessed in an eminent degree of all the essential elements of judicial character and ability, and worthy of the confidence and support of every voter in the district.

F. K. Boas, Pres't. A. S. Ely, Sec'y. Palmyra, Sept. 28, 1861.

UNION CONVENTION.—A call for a meeting over the above caption appeared in the well known Breckinridge organ of this city on Thursday morning last, and was also circulated through the city by handbills printed at the same place calling a meeting of Union men to assemble at the Court House at two o'clock on Friday afternoon.

Not exactly knowing the meaning or the object of the call our reporterly duty called us to the place. After repeated tolling of the huge bell in the steeple of the Court House, L. N. Ott, Esq., called the meeting to order, whilst the following gentlemen occupied seats within the bar of the Court House, viz:

J. P. Butherford, Jacob Shell, William F. Murray, L. N. Ott, J. D. Ross, Jacob Fialar, Daniel Hill, John P. Shoop, Sol. Landis, Ed. Shell, H. M. Graydon and Stewart Wilson.

Mr. Ott nominated J. D. Ross, chairman. Jacob Fialar and J. P. Shoop, Secretaries.

Isaac Nisley and John Haldeeman, Secretaries, whose nominations were agreed to.

Mr. Ott moved that a committee of nine be appointed to settle tickets and draft resolutions. Agreed to.

Jacob Shell, Esq., was appointed chairman. Mr. Ott moved that H. B. Schreiner be added to the committee; which was agreed to.

Mr. Schreiner appeared in front of the speaker's chair and stated distinctly that he desired no such appointment.

Mr. Ott moved that the convention adjourn for half an hour, in order to allow the committee to fix up the ticket and resolutions. Agreed to.

Dr. BARR inquired of the chair whether the action of this committee would be subject to any amendment, or if it was intended that this committee should fix up the matter to suit themselves, and that the Union men would then be asked to ratify it.

Mr. Butherford exclaimed that none of the candidates on the other ticket would be nominated, and that the report of the committee would be subject to amendments.

Mr. Ott now commenced a regular speech and proceeded until one of the gentlemen reminded the President that the Convention had agreed to adjourn and the President in turn reminded the speaker of it; whereupon the Convention adjourned till three o'clock.

AT THREE O'CLOCK the convention was again called to order.

Mr. SHELL reported the following ticket: PRESIDENT JUDGE.—Jno. J. PEARSON. ASSOCIATE JUDGE.—R. F. KALKER, Samuel Landis.

ASSEMBLY.—Jno. A. Fisher, Wm. C. PROTHONOTARY.—J. C. Young. TREASURER.—Jno. L. Speel. ROYALTY.—Jesse B. Hummel. COMMISSIONER.—Peter Hocker. DIRECTOR OF THE POOL.—J. P. SHOOP. AUDITOR.—Francis Wernich.

Some one moved that the report be adopted. The President took the question, and it was voted down by a decisive vote, but nevertheless the President decided the report to be adopted.

Dr. BARR arose and stated the fact that the report was certainly voted down, and in order to determine it correctly, he requested the President to take another vote.

Mr. Butherford objected to taking the vote again, he said it was only done for the purpose of defeating the report.

Dr. BARR retorted sharply to Mr. Butherford by reminding him that his Union sentiments could not be doubted, that he had four sons in the army.

Mr. Ott also objected to taking the vote again. A stranger in the passage remarked that he desired everything fairly done, and demanded that the vote should again be taken.

DECLINATION.—The convention which met to-day, very kindly placed me in nomination for the office of Prothonotary. I am very thankful for this mark of their respect and evidence of their confidence, but having already accepted the nomination of the People's Union County Convention for that office, it would hardly be proper for me to accept the nomination of another party. I therefore most respectfully decline the second nomination.

Yours truly, J. C. Young. Harrisburg, Sept. 27, 1861.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES. DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS Prepared by Cornelius L. Cheeseman, M. D., NEW YORK CITY.

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are a safe, reliable, and certain cure for all irregularities, Painful Menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, white, all nervous affections, hysterical affections, pain in the limbs, &c., distended uterus, which arises from interruption of nature.

TO MARRIED LADIES. Dr. Cheeseman's Pills are invaluable, as they will bring on the monthly period with regularity. Ladies who have been disappointed in the use of other Pills can place their utmost confidence in Dr. Cheeseman's Pills doing all that they represent to do.

There is one condition of the female system in which the Pills cannot be taken without producing a PEUJOLIAN RESULT. The condition referred to is PREGNANCY. The result, MISERABLE. Such is the terrible tendency of the medicine to destroy the foetus, and to produce a dangerous condition, that even the reproductive power of nature cannot resist it.

It is therefore, strictly forbidden, and free from anything injurious. Explicit directions, which should be read so carefully, are given on each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosure $1.50. Sold by all Druggists, and by J. C. Cheeseman, 431 Broadway, New York City.

General Agents for the United States. R. B. BUCHHEIM, 14 Broadway, New York, and in Harrisburg by O. A. BARBER. nov29-daily

A CARD TO THE LADIES. DR. DUPONNO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.

These PILLS HAVE BEEN USED BY the doctors for many years, both in France and America, with unparalleled success in every case; and have been used by many illustrious ladies, who, in their own persons, have proved the efficacy of these Pills, and have recommended them to their friends, and to the public for the alleviation of those sufferings from any irregularity whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family where health will not permit it. Females particularly situated, or those who are in delicate health, are cautioned against those Pills which, in this condition, as they are sure to produce miscarriage, and to destroy the foetus, and to produce a dangerous condition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health—otherwise the Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box. Price $1.00 per box. Sold wholesale and retail by CHARLES A. BANNVART, Druggist, No. 3 Jones Row, Harrisburg, Pa.

"Ladies," by sending them to the Post Office, can have the Pills sent free of transportation any part of the country (conditionally) and of free postage by mail. Sold also by S. B. STEVENSON, Reading, JOHNSON, BOWLING GREEN, Philadelphia, J. L. LEAS, Leasans, Lebanon, DANIEL H. HERRICK, Lancaster; J. A. WOOD, Wrightsville; J. T. MILLER, York; and by one of our Agents in every town in the Union, and by S. D. HOWE, sole proprietor, New York.

N. B.—Look out for counterfeits. By no golden Pills of any kind unless every box is signed S. D. HOWE. All others are a mere imposition, and are false; therefore, as you value your lives and health, (to say nothing of being humbugged out of your money,) say only of those who show the signature of S. D. HOWE on every box, which has recently been added on account of the Pills being counterfeited. Lab-daily.
