PRINTING MATERIAL FOR SALE.

Two POWER PRESSES, one nearly new, and a large amount of second hand printing material, will be sold at exceedingly low prices, for cash or approved paper. All these materials are in a good condition, and would answer for any country office. They must be sold to make room for new and more extensive machinery, and at this office immediately.

THE PROPERTY of serving out tobacco with soldiers' rations is under consideration. Gen. Curtis is said to favor it, as a means of increasing the comfort and cheerfulness of the troops. The General himself is said to be an ardent chewer.

THE PENNA. CANAL.—The repairs on the Western Division of the Pennsylvania Canal having been completed in the beginning of last week, the water was let in on Tuesday. Boats were running on Friday, but were unable to get through, as a sufficient water had not yet reached the lower levels. Fears are entertained that the recent high water has again damaged a part of the canal to such an extent as to prevent its further navigation during the present season.

PLEASANT INCIDENT.—A very pleasing incident happened in the Pennsylvania 20th regiment yesterday. At the request of Col. Murphy, the Protestant chaplain of the regiment, the Rev. Father Dougherty, of Montgomery county, celebrated mass in the camp. The whole regiment, with uncovered heads, knelt and received the benediction. Col. Murphy is a Protestant, but was happy on the occasion, so that he was no bigot, and that in matters relating to the constitution and the laws, there could be no division of sentiment, even in religious matters.

THE "CAMP KID."—We saw yesterday a copy of the "Camp Kid," a small newspaper published by the Field and Staff of the 1st Maine regiment—the "Round-heads"—often as the exigencies of the service will permit, and is designed to be the vehicle through which much valuable information will be conveyed to the soldiers on all subjects relating to camp life from mounting guard, to cleaning a musket. Of course, the "Kid" is very small, but larger than two leaves of the spelling book; but the number we examined contained at least a good tin cup full of important military information.

PRISONERS OF WAR IN ROUTE.—A party of rebel soldiers, consisting of a captain and thirteen privates in charge of a squad of Ohio volunteers under Capt. Bond, passed through here yesterday from the west en route to Fort M. Henry at Baltimore. Eight of the prisoners had received wounds more or less serious; some walked on crutches; some limped with their arms in slings, while one fellow more unfortunate than the rest, possessed but one leg, the other having been taken off by a cannon ball. The party were taken prisoners by the United States army under Gen. McClellan at the battle of Laurel Hill, in Western Virginia, on the 11th of last July.

FREEMEN'S AFFAIRS.—The manufacturers of the Friendship steam fire engine neglected to send with it the proper "reducing screws," without which the "steamer" is unable to obtain water from the fire plugs. Hence its trial at the corner of Canal and State streets last week, where the proximity of the canal afforded a fine opportunity to test its suction powers. The company, however, expect to receive the "reducing screws" some time this week, in which case there will be a public trial of the "steamer" in Market Square next Saturday afternoon.

We hear it stated that the Paxton Hose Company intend to make application to the City Council for the Friendship Company's hand engine. This should be granted by all means. The "Paxton boys" are already an efficient bunch of our fire department, and would be more so if the Council would supply them with the necessary apparatus. They are the only fire company in the city south of Mulberry street, and have consequently a large district to watch over, and very limited means with which to perform service in case of emergency. As a precautionary measure, therefore, the Council should not hesitate a moment to make the "Paxton boys" the custodians of this engine, and thus enable them to extend the sphere of their usefulness.

HIGH WATER IN THE WEST.—Last Saturday's Pittsburgh Chronicle says that the rivers and creeks in that neighborhood are swollen to a great extent. The Allegheny was pouring out an angry flood, with twenty-five feet in the channel and still rising. It rose some twelve feet last Friday night, and through ample time had been given those having rafts, &c., along its banks to make them secure, a large amount of property has been swept away, and much of it irretrievably lost. At noon last Saturday it was rising at the rate of thirteen inches an hour, and the indications were then that it would continue rising for some time. The lower part of Allegheny and Manchester was then under water, and those residing in the neighborhood were busy at work in removing their effects. Several of the streets were under water, and communication with a number of houses, unless by water, was cut off. The flood in the Monongahela is equally great and even more destructive than that in the Allegheny. It is estimated that the value of the coal boats, barges, &c., lost on this stream exceeds $75,000, and the end is not yet. The pier mark at noon last Saturday indicated twenty-six and a half feet in the channel, and still rising rapidly. The smaller streams throughout the country are swollen to an unheard of extent, and, from all quarters, the editor of the Chronicle hears of bridges having been swept away, fences carried off, crops destroyed, &c.

A MEDICAL BOARD for the examination of candidates for Assistant Surgeons in the volunteer force of Pennsylvania, will assemble in the chamber of the House of Representatives next Wednesday, October 2d.

THE POLICE OFFICERS of ALLERTOWN, by order of Town Council, have adopted a uniform after the New York style—blue frock coat with brass buttons, pants and cap of the same color, with leather belts for club and billy. A similar arrangement was suggested in this city some months ago; but we believe the Chief was the only one of our police who adopted the regimentals, and even he only appears in this tatty semi-official costume.

MISCHIEVOUS RASCALS.—Some mischievous rascals were about again on Saturday night, and amused themselves by removing several of the signs of our citizens, and placing them at other premises. For the benefit of these night prowlers, we publish the following section of the new penal code; and should any of them be caught in their mischievous acts His Honor, Judge Pearson, will not doubt give the fullest extent of the law:

Sec. 148.—If any person shall wilfully and maliciously break, injure or destroy any window or door belonging to any dwelling house, or out house, or outhouse, or shall unlawfully and maliciously break, injure or destroy the door of a house, or shall wilfully and maliciously destroy, take down, injure or deface any sign, put up by any inhabitant to denote the place of his abode, occupation, business or employment, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or suffer an imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, or either in the discretion of the court.

EDITORIAL VISIT.—Our sanctum was visited yesterday by Samuel H. Clark, Esq., for a number of years connected with the press of this city, and formerly a representative from this county in the State Legislature. Mr. Clark is at present engaged publishing a Republican newspaper at Medina, New York; but he still entertains a strong affection for the "home of his early struggles and triumphs." "The Editor of the Telegraph," the deep tangled wilderness.

A NEW VOLUNTEER COMPANY.—A meeting will be held at the Exchange, Walnut street, at 7 o'clock this evening, for the purpose of taking the necessary steps towards raising a volunteer company, to be composed exclusively of young men of this city. Our city has already contributed a large number of volunteers to the army, but they are scattered among a number of different companies, so that, properly speaking, we have not really a Harrisburg company in the field. The object of the meeting, therefore, is to supply this omission, and by calling upon our patriotic young men, the promoters of the movement, to form not only a company, but an association exclusively by Harrisburgers, but one that will also, by its proficiency in drill and good appearance generally, reflect credit upon the city.

BLANKETS.—Owing to the announcement from our different pulpits yesterday, that the poor soldiers in Camp Curtin are in a suffering condition for want of blankets, and that they cannot be bought, I am informed by good authority, if an order is furnished to purchase, several thousand pairs can be furnished and delivered within a week, and as the State has appropriated sufficient money to buy, "the bold soldier" should not be allowed to suffer a day.

FEELING AND LOOKING WELL.—It is always a source of great pleasure to us when we see our friends and acquaintances looking well, and in comfortable and handsome outward appearance has much to do with our feeling well. In view of this fact, we say to the ladies, our stock of cloaks, shawls and dress goods is large. Gentlemen will find strong inducements in our cloth, cassimere and vesting department, at the south east corner of Front and Market streets.

ARRIVAL OF NEW GOODS, LARGEST ASSORTMENT.—We have now on hand one of the best selected and largest stock of goods in the city. Having enlarged our store, we are now enabled to keep a full line of all kinds of goods.

LET THE RECORD SPEAK!

Dr. Heck's Estimate of the Safety of the Country and the Courage of its Defenders.

He Refuses to appropriate Money to Secure the National Honor and Uphold the Federal Authority!

FREEMEN and SOLDIERS OF DAUPHIN COUNTY, READ!

While the hot shot and bombs were falling thick and fast around the gallant band who were defending their country's honor in Fort Sumter, Gov. Curtin had sent into the Legislature of the state, then in session, a message suggesting the better organization of the militia, and asking for an appropriation of five hundred thousand dollars to place the state on a war footing. The bill as it passed, can be found in the last volume of the laws of the state, page 299—and the proceedings attending its passage in the House, in the Journal of 1861, page 957. We extract the words and say as they appear substantial on the Journal of the House:

HECK,

Hill, Kline, Lichtenwalner, M'Donough, Mantel, Morrison, Myers, Randall, Reiff and Rhoads—21.

Freemen of Dauphin county, Soldiers! who went at the first call of danger to the capital of your country, and who still rest upon your arms, night and day around the limits of that capital, are you ready to vote for a man who so lightly estimated the honor of your country and the lives of its defenders? Dr. Heck is one of the old Breckinridge Democrats who sympathized with and still sympathize with and confide in the course of the traitor Breckinridge, and showed his attachment for those who are at the head of this rebellion by refusing to make an appropriation to arm the great state of Pennsylvania to aid their overthrow and its suppression. This man is again before you, and again solicits your vote that he may again disgrace the halls of legislation with his presence and his conduct. He desires to be returned that he may aid in embarrassing the future efforts of our noble old commonwealth in assisting to redeem the land from rebellion by enforcing the laws and vindicating the federal authority. No patriot, no brave, loyal lover of his country can vote for Dr. Heck.

PENNSYLVANIA: SS: A. G. CURTIN.

In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Andrew G. CURTIN, Governor of said Commonwealth.

PROCLAMATION.
WHEREAS, by the twelfth section of the Act of Assembly, passed the Fifteenth day of May 1861, it is provided that it shall not be lawful for any Volunteer Soldier to leave this Commonwealth as such, unless he shall have been first accepted by the Governor of this State, upon a call under a regulation of the President of the United States made upon the Governor direct, for troops for the service of the United States.

AND WHEREAS, Notwithstanding such prohibition, sundry persons, (many of them engaged in raising regiments to be furnished from other States), are persisting in endeavoring to enlist volunteers in violation of law.

AND WHEREAS, It is necessary for the public service and for the honor of Pennsylvania, that her military force should be regularly organized and equipped for the suppression of the rebellion, in conformity with the act of Congress of twenty-second and twenty-fifth July, 1861, and with the laws of the State, and that her citizens should not be seduced into organizations independent of the State authority whereby the raising of her quota is embarrassed, the families of the men are deprived of the relief provided by the laws of the State for the families of her own militia, and the State herself by the absorption of her men in such unlawful organizations may be found unable to supply volunteers to fill the future requisitions of the Government of the United States.

AND WHEREAS, the following order has been issued by the War Department of the United States, viz:

WAR DEPARTMENT.
September 25, 1861.
His Excellency A. G. CURTIN, Governor of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg.

Sir:—I have the honor to transmit the following order from the War Department: All men now enrolled or mustered into the service of the United States for brigades, regiments, batteries or companies in the State of Pennsylvania, under the direct authority of the Secretary of the War, are placed under the command of the Governor of Pennsylvania, who shall organize or re-organize them as he may deem most advantageous to the interests of the General Government.

2. The United States will continue to furnish subsistence, camp equipage, clothing, &c., as heretofore, for the organizations referred to in the first paragraph, and all other organizations, and quartermasters will furnish, on requisition made, the necessary subsistence, clothing, &c.

3. All authorizations heretofore given to call brigades, regiments or companies in the State of Pennsylvania, are hereby revoked from and after the expiration of the times limited in the original authority, or in any renewals heretofore granted; and in cases where no limit of time has been specified, then from and after the expiration of ten days from the date of this order, and in future no orders for the service of the United States shall be raised, in Pennsylvania, only under requisitions made on the Governor. All authorities issued by the War Department for Independent Regiments, subject to the approval of the Governor, which have not been so approved are hereby revoked.

Respectfully,
SIMON CAMERON,
Secretary of War.

And, whereas, the President of the United States has, in accordance with the acts of Congress of the twenty-second and twenty-fifth of July last, made requisitions on the Governor of Pennsylvania for sundry regiments of volunteers, which requisitions are in the course of being filled.

Now, therefore, I, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the purpose of preventing further impositions on the good and loyal citizens of Pennsylvania in this regard, do make this my proclamation, hereby prohibiting all persons from raising volunteers in Pennsylvania, or otherwise than by authority of the Governor, and especially forbidding the raising of volunteers for regiments to be furnished from other States. And also forbidding all citizens of Pennsylvania from enlisting in or attaching themselves to any such irregular and unlawful organizations and warning all persons that in disobeying this proclamation they will be disregarding the orders of the Government of the United States, as well as defying the laws of the State and violating their duties as sons and citizens of the Commonwealth. And I do hereby require all Magistrates, District Attorneys, and officers of the Commonwealth to arrest and prosecute all persons who shall disobey this proclamation, and particularly all persons and their aiders and abettors, who under any pretended authority, shall enlist volunteers for any Brigade, Regiment, Battery or Company of Volunteers other than such as may be authorized by the Governor of this Commonwealth, or advertise or open or seek recruiting stations for such enlistments, so that such persons may be brought to justice and punished according to law.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twenty-eighth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-sixth.
