Wednesday Afternoon, October 2, 1861.

PRINTING MATERIAL FOR SALE.

TWO POWER PRESSES, old Adams' Patent. Two IRON HAND PRESSES, one nearly new, and a large amount of second hand printing material, will be sold at exceedingly low prices...

NEW COUNTERFEIT.—Counterfeit 5's, on the Allegheny Bank, of Pittsburg, Pa., have been circulated in Philadelphia for two days past. These counterfeiters are admirable imitations and well calculated to deceive.

THE NEW DIMES.—A change has been made in the ten cent pieces that bear date this year from those heretofore coined. The figure of Liberty, instead of being surrounded by stars, is encircled by the words "United States of America," which formerly was placed on the reverse of that piece.

WELL ATTENDED.—The meeting of young men at the Exchange last night to concert measures for the formation of a volunteer company, to be composed exclusively of citizens of Harrisburg, was well attended, and the right kind of spirit manifested. A large number of signatures were obtained to the roll, and everything promised a complete success.

POLICE.—Before the Mayor.—The city lock-up last night was as lively as a bag of fleas.

Martha Johnson and Margaret Deneganz—two ebony colored wenches of bad reputation—were arraigned for vagrancy. Discharged by promising to mend their ways.

Geo. G. Smith and Wm. Cunn—both negroes—stood charged with stealing a lot of cigars from a restaurant in Market street. Recommended to the lock-up.

John Duwall, a vagrant was discharged and directed to leave the city forthwith.

Isaac Carr and John Preston—two volunteers from Camp Cameron were up for drunkenness. Recommended to the lock-up.

Joseph Scott—a negro—pleaded guilty to drunkenness. Fined $1 and costs.

Wm. Watson—also black—stood charged with stealing an overcoat from a soldier named Wm. Bullen. The coat was found in Watson's possession. Committed to prison to answer.

Before Alderman Kline.—Ellen M'Namara—a genteelly dressed feminine—was up for drunkenness and disorderly conduct generally. She indignantly denied the "soft impeachment," declaring that he was "soberer as any other fellow."

A bottle full filled with rifle whiskey was found in her possession, which the Alderman seized as "contraband," and then made out her papers for prison.

Geo. Boyer, John M'Carthy, John W. Jenkins and John Andrews also responded to the roll-call of "drunks," and were severally committed to prison.

Peter F. Idlebus was charged with threatening Mr. Dean. Gave bail to answer.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS.—Interesting Proceedings.—A Medical Board for the examination of all Surgeons or assistant Surgeons, now acting as such in any regiment of volunteers raised in the State of Pennsylvania, convened in the chamber of the House of Representatives, in this city, at 9 o'clock this morning.

The Board consisted of Dr. WILMER WORTHINGTON, of West Chester, Dr. TRAIL GREEN, of Easton, and Dr. Wm. CONSON, of Norristown.

Surgeon General HENRY SMITH presided. Shortly after the body convened, his Excellency Gov. Curtin entered the chamber, and was conducted to the speaker's platform, when he was introduced to the assembly by Gen. Smith in the following remarks:

Gov. CURTIN.—In obedience to your orders, I have convened a State Board of Surgeons, whom I have now the pleasure of introducing to you as distinguished members of the medical profession—as citizens deeply interested in the welfare of Pennsylvania, and as the warm advocates of the cause of the Union now threatened by the traitors assembled around Washington.

Gov. CURTIN followed, and in greeting the assembly remarked, that he was glad to see a gathering so large in number and so respectable in ability convened in response to the call of the Surgeon General. The poets for which they were about to be examined were of the highest importance, and in responsibility ranked with any in the service.

The army surgeon held in his hands the health of the soldier, and when wounded and bleeding, it becomes his duty to save his life, if possible. Certainly such a duty requires the highest skill, and therefore the State has wisely provided for the selection to be made from among the ablest of the medical profession, and for this purpose this examination was instituted.

There were one hundred and sixty-five candidates present for examination, who, as they were arraigned around the circular desks, busily engaged writing out the answers to the printed questions before them, presented a scene of lively interest, and an array of talent seldom, if ever, equaled in any one body of men.

The examinations this morning were confined altogether to the proficiency of the candidates in the general practice of medicine and materia medica, while the afternoon session was devoted exclusively to examinations in surgery.

A HARRISBURG OFFICER DISTINGUISHES HIMSELF.—The many personal friends and acquaintances of Lieut. Alexander N. Shippley, formerly of this city, will be gratified to learn that he has recently distinguished himself against the rebels in a manner that reflects the highest credit upon his military skill and personal bravery.

Lieut. Shippley, belongs to the regular United States Army, and is stationed with his command at Fort Pickens near Pensacola, Florida. Our readers are aware that this latter place, with the navy yard and its surroundings, are held by a considerable force of the rebels under the command of Gen. Bragg.

The commandant at Fort Pickens, Col. Brown, has long been endeavoring to force the rebels into a fight, but it seems that their leader won't "blibble" and lies as close behind his entrenchments as a cat behind a warm stove in winter.

Recently, by way of provoking old "Little more grape" into action, Lieut. Shippley obtained leave to make an expedition against the navy yard. He left the Fort, a few minutes after tattoo (9 o'clock P. M.) in a boat with eleven picked men, rowing noiselessly for the dry-dock. The boat reached the dock without being challenged, was made fast, when the men sprang up prepared to encounter and overcome the sentries, who had often been seen stationed upon it at night; none were found, however, and they proceeded to accomplish their work.

Combustible material of various kinds had been prepared and brought along, together with three large columbiad shells.—These were placed in the boilers. The combustibles properly arranged, word was given for the men to go aboard the boat, Lieut. Shippley remaining to apply the match, which done, he quickly followed in their wake. Scarcely had a distance of twenty yards from the doomed structure been gained by the gallant little band, when the flames burst forth, followed almost immediately by the explosion of the shells, which filled the air with fragments, that fell in a perfect shower around the retreating boat, but fortunately injuring none of its crew.

As the first streak of flame mounted upwards the "long roll sounded at the Navy Yard, the soldiers stationed there turned out in haste, the engineers ran to their guns, and everything was wild confusion; but not a shot was fired; the boat reached the shore in safety; the crew disembarked, and proceeded to the Fort to receive the congratulations of their comrades.

Meanwhile the whole sky was illumined by the tall spires of flame which shot upward from the burning dock. All night long the fierce element sped on its work of destruction, and when morning dawned, a shapeless mass of ruins floating upon the water was all that remained of the dry dock, which cost the Government upwards of a million and a half of dollars, but which the "mad demon of rebellion" had wrested from its grasp.

Lieut. Shippley served with credit in the Mexican war, and subsequently enlisted in the United States army, where by his efficiency and meritorious conduct generally, he attracted the attention of his superiors, which led to his promotion to a Second Lieutenant. About a year ago he was ordered to join his company in a campaign against the Indians in Texas, and was performing this duty when secessionism developed itself, and the traitor Twiggs sought to enslave the United States into its unholy grasp.

Lieut. Shippley, however, entertained too much love and affection for the "stripes and stars" to be caught in the trap, and with his command, contrived to leave the State without being restrained from future service by subscribing to a parole. He landed at New York, and was immediately directed to report himself at Fort Pickens, where he is now doing noble service in behalf of his country as the gallant achievement described above fully testifies.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have recently advanced the rate of freight on flour from Cincinnati to Philadelphia, from $1 to $1 10 per bbl., and wheat from 47c. to 55c. per 100 lbs.

This movement, it is alleged, has given much dissatisfaction to the trade, and the subject was considered at a meeting of the members of the Corn Exchange Association, held last Monday. Mr. E. G. James, of the firm of T. Richardson & Co., was called to the chair, who stated that this advance in the rates caused an unjust discrimination against Philadelphia. A committee of six was appointed to investigate the matter.

COIN TRICK.—Some malicious scoundrel, recently, taking advantage of the temporary absence of Mr. Edla from his variety store in North Second street, succeeded in purloining from that establishment a small box filled with rare silver coins of all denominations and nationalities, being the result of Mr. Edla's numismatic collection for a period of ten or fifteen years, and highly valued by him for its perfection. The intrinsic value of the coins is estimated at $50, but they would bring a much larger sum if disposed of to the regular coin collectors.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The remains of a private, whose name we could not learn, belonging to Col. Christ's regiment of Penn'a. volunteers, which left here yesterday morning for Washington, were brought to this city last night. It appears that the deceased attempted to get on the train while it was in motion at some station this side of Baltimore, when his foot slipped, and he fell under the wheels, which passed over his body killing him instantly.

CADETS OF TEMPERANCE, State Capital Section No. 21, Cadets of Temperance, will hold a regular stated meeting at their hall this evening at half past 7 o'clock. B. F. Dennison, Esq., the Grand Secretary of the order, from Philadelphia, will be present and assist at the installation of officers. Business of importance will be transacted. Every member is required to attend. By order of the acting W. P.

THE JUVENILE CONCERT, under the direction Mr. J. Verne, in the Locust street Methodist church last night, was attended by a large concourse of our citizens, who were manifestly well pleased with the vocal performance of the children. A repetition of the concert at the same place is announced for next Friday night.

THE CUMBERLAND COUNTY agricultural fair will commence at Carlisle on the 9th inst., and continue until the 11th inclusive.

ATTENTION MOUNT VERNON.—A stated meeting of the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder company will be held at their truck house at 7 1/2 o'clock this evening. A full attendance of the members is earnestly requested.

WOMEN IN THE XIX CENTURY.—Many women who are to-day moving quietly and gracefully through the light and shadow of fireside life, are to be known hereafter. Their names will be gracious words to the nineteenth century, which among other inventions and discoveries, has discovered women! It was not enough that she was placed in the garden of Eden for us.—We were blind for many thousand years.—When the world was young, we made her fetch our wood, cook our food, and play the menial.

In our days of chivalry we taught her to be a pretty Amazon, to dress our wounds, to bind our scarf around our helmet, to receive a fantastic and insincere adoration. Then, as if there were never to be an end to our nonsense, we fancied that she was an Arcadian shepherdess, or a lovely wood-nymph, with confused ideas of virtue. Then did she step us on the cheek with her fan, and smirk and smile, and paint and powder, and wear her hair four stories high, that was the courtly age.

But by and by she wearied of these follies. We began to treat her with more sense; and then little by little she began to assert herself, and the better we treated her the more she asserted, until at last we cried out like Frankenstein: "What monster is this we have created!" But it was not a monster—it was only a woman! Great in her weakness, noble in her charity, beautiful in her patience. We found her our! She was never so recognized as now; we have discovered that she has brain as well as heart; that she can write verses like Mrs. Browning; paint pictures like Rosa Bonheur; and still be all that is gentle and lovable, like Florence Nightingale, or our own benevolent Miss Dix.

WOOLLEN SOCKS FOR THE ARMY.—The following directions, which have been furnished by a lady of much experience, may prove useful to those who will engage in knitting woolen socks for the army. The yarn should be bluish gray, No. 22, and the needles, No. 14 or No. 15.

Set up twenty-seven stitches on each needle; knit two plain and two seam rows alternately, until the ribbing is three inches long; then knit plain seven inches for the leg, remembering to seam one stitch at the end of one needle. To form the heel, put twenty stitches on two of the needles, and forty-one on the other—the seam stitch being in the middle. Knit the first row plain, the next row seam, and so alternate until the heel is three inches long; then narrow on the plain row each side of the seam stitch by five plain rows, which will leave thirty-one stitches. To close the heel, knit the last seam row to the middle of the needle, knit the seam stitch plain, then fold the two needles together, and with another needle take off the seam stitch. Then knit a stitch from both needles at once, and bind the seam stitch over it.

Continue knitting in this manner until but one is left and the heel closed. Take up as many stitches as there are rows around the heel; knit one round plain; then widen every fifth stitch on the heel needles. Narrow ones on every round at each side of the foot until there are twenty-seven stitches on each needle; knit plain six inches, narrow at the beginning and end of each needle on every third round, till you have seventeen stitches on each; then narrow every second round till you have seven—then every round until the foot is closed.—One pound of yarn costing from seventy five cents to one dollar, will furnish four pairs of socks.

Lost.—Was lost last week at the depot a small yellow hand trunk marked inside Lieut. A. J. M'Cartney, containing a few shirts and some papers of no value to any person except the owner. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at this office. oct-31

SPECIAL PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR. OFFICE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, Harrisburg, Sept. 18, 1861.

The following "provisions in case any of the militia or volunteers shall be in actual service at the time of the general election" are published for the benefit of those citizens of Pennsylvania to whom they may apply in connection with the general election to be held on the second Tuesday of October, A. D. 1861:

Whenever any of the citizens of this Commonwealth, qualified as heretofore provided, shall be in any actual military service in any detachment of the militia or corps of volunteers, under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, on the day of the general election, as aforesaid, such citizens may exercise the right of suffrage at such places as may be appointed by the commanding officer of the troop, or company, to which they shall respectively belong, as fully as if they were present at the usual place of election.

Whenever any of the citizens of this Commonwealth, qualified as heretofore provided, shall be in any actual military service in any detachment of the militia or corps of volunteers, under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, on the day of the general election, as aforesaid, such citizens may exercise the right of suffrage at such places as may be appointed by the commanding officer of the troop, or company, to which they shall respectively belong, as fully as if they were present at the usual place of election.
