

Medical.
DR. JOHNSON
BALTIMORE
LOCK HOSPITAL.
HAS discovered the most certain, speedy and efficient remedy in the world for DISEASES OF IMPURITUDE.
RELIEF IN SIX TO TWENTY HOURS.
No Mercury or Noxious Drugs.
Two Days' Use.
Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Stricture, Pains in the Loins, Aches of the Kidneys and Bladder, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, Decay of the Physical Power, Scurvy, Dropsy, Languor, Spasms, Constipation of Bowels, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Timidity, Trembling, Danes, Painful Urination, Diseases of the Bladder, Aches of the Head, Throat, Neck or Skin—these are some of the symptoms arising from the impurities of the blood, which produce constitutional debility, render marriage impossible, and destroy both body and mind.

YOU are daily who have become the victims of that dread and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered laudable careers with the founders of empires, or waited to occupy the living throne, may call with full confidence.
MARRIAGE.
Married persons, or those contemplating marriage, be aware of the dangers of impurity, which immediately nullify the bliss of wedlock, and restore to perfect health.
ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
Immediately cured and full vigor restored.
He who places himself under the care of Dr. J., may rely upon his skill as a guarantee of success. His Office No. 7 South Frederick street, Baltimore, Md., on the left hand side going from Baltimore street, 7 doors from the corner of North Second street. Beware of impostors, trifling Quacks, with false names, or Fairy Humbug Certificates, attracted by the reputation of Dr. Johnson, but who never saw him.
All letters must contain a Postage Stamp, to use on the reply.
DR. JOHNSON.
Dr. Johnson member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greatest part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and other cities, has discovered the most certain, speedy and efficient remedy in the world for the various diseases which are the result of impurity, and which have not been cured by any other means, or by any of the numerous quacks who prey upon the credulity of the people.
TAKEN PARTICULAR NOTICE.
Dr. J. does not cure all those who have injured themselves by early habits of dissipation, but only those who are suffering from the effects of impurity, and who are not suffering from any other disease, such as Consumption, Dropsy, or any other disease which is the result of the disease of impurity.
MENTALITY.
Generally, the fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Voraciousness, Aversion to Society, Self-distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evil effects.
Thousands of persons of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their decline in health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, have an singular appearance about the eyes, cough, and symptoms of Consumption.
YOUNG MEN
who have injured themselves by a certain practice, to be cured. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Voraciousness, Aversion to Society, Self-distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evil effects.
MARRIAGE.
effect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote conjugal happiness. Indeed without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the present hourly dawns to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.
DR. JOHNSON'S IMPURITUDE REMEDY FOR MEN.
This is a great and important remedy. Weakness of the Organs are speedily cured, and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most nervous and debilitated who had lost all hope, have been immediately relieved. All Impurities, Nervous Debility, Physical or Mental Debility, Nervous Trembling, Weakness or Exhaustion of the most fearful kind, speedily cured.
STAMENES.
The many thousands cured at this institution within the last twelve years, and the numerous important surgical operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the reports of the papers, and many other persons, convince of his skill as a gentleman of character and of responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.
DISEASES OF IMPURITUDE.—When the misguided and imprudent youth of our country, by indulging in the use of the most pernicious and dangerous of all poisons, the seeds of this painful disease, it too often induces an internal source of shame or dread of discovery drives him from applying to those with whom he should consult for relief, and who would have been glad to relieve him from the most painful and dangerous of all diseases, and who would have been glad to relieve him from the most painful and dangerous of all diseases, and who would have been glad to relieve him from the most painful and dangerous of all diseases.
LETTERS must contain a Stamp to us on the reply.
Baltimore sent by Mail.
No. 7 South Frederick street, Baltimore.
April-daily

New Advertisements
PENNSYLVANIA, SS:
A. G. CURTIN.
In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of said Commonwealth.
PROCLAMATION.
WHEREAS, By the twelfth section of the Act of Assembly, passed the Fifteenth day of May 1861, it is provided that it shall not be lawful for any Volunteer Soldier to leave this Commonwealth as such, unless he shall have been first accepted by the Governor of this State, upon a call under a requisition of the President of the United States made upon the Governor, direct, for troops for the service of the United States.
AND WHEREAS, Notwithstanding such prohibition, sundry persons, (many of them engaged in raising regiments to be furnished from other States,) are persisting in endeavoring to enlist volunteers in violation of law.
AND WHEREAS, It is necessary for the public service and for the honor of Pennsylvania, that her military force should be regularly organized and furnished for the suppression of the existing rebellion, in conformity with the acts of Congress of twenty-second and twenty-fifth July, 1861, and with the laws of the State, and that her citizens should not be seduced into organizations independent of the State authority whereby the raising of her quota is embarrassed, the regiments are not enrolled in her Archives, the families of the men are deprived of the relief provided by the laws of the State for the families of her own volunteers, and the State herself by the absorption of her men in such unlawful organizations may be found unable to supply volunteers to fill the future requisitions of the Government of the United States.
AND WHEREAS, the following order has been issued by the War Department of the United States, viz:
WAR DEPARTMENT,
September 25, 1861.
His Excellency A. G. CURTIN, Governor of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg.
SIR—I have the honor to transmit the following order from the War Department:
All men now enrolled or mustered into the service of the United States for brigades, regiments, batteries or companies in the State of Pennsylvania, under the direct authority of the Secretary of War, are placed under the command of the Governor of Pennsylvania, who shall organize or re-organize them as he may deem most advantageous to the interests of the General Government.
2. The United States will continue to furnish subsistence, camp equipment, clothing, &c., as heretofore, for the organizations referred to in the first paragraph, and all U. S. commissaries and quartermasters will furnish, on requisitions made, the necessary subsistence, clothing, &c.
3. All organizations heretofore given to said brigades, regiments or companies in the State of Pennsylvania, are hereby revoked from and after the expiration of the times limited in the original authority, or in any renewals heretofore granted; and in any cases where no limit of time has been specified, then from and after the expiration of ten days from the date of this order; and in future all volunteers for the service of the United States shall be raised in Pennsylvania, only under requisitions made on the Governor. All authorities issued by the War Department for Independent Regiments, subject to the approval of the Governor, which have not been so approved are hereby revoked.
Respectfully,
SIMON CAMERON,
Secretary of War.
And, whereas, the President of the United States has, in accordance with the acts of Congress of the twenty-second and twenty-fifth of July last, made requisitions on the Governor of Pennsylvania for sundry regiments of volunteers, which requisitions are in the course of being filled.
Now, therefore, I Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the purpose of preventing further impositions on the good and loyal citizens of Pennsylvania in this regard, do make this my proclamation, hereby prohibiting all persons from raising volunteers in Pennsylvania otherwise than by authority of the Governor, and especially forbidding the raising of volunteers for regiments to be furnished from other States. And also forbidding all citizens of Pennsylvania from enlisting in or attaching themselves to any such irregular and unlawful organizations, and warning all persons that in disobeying this proclamation they will be disregarding the orders of the Government of the United States, as well as defying the laws of the State and violating their duties as sons and citizens of the Commonwealth. And I do hereby require all Magistrates, District Attorneys, and all officers of the State, who shall disobey this proclamation, and particularly all persons and their aiders and abettors, who under any pretended authority, shall enlist volunteers for any Brigade, Regiment, Battery or Company of Volunteers other than such as may be authorized by the Governor of this Commonwealth, or advertise or open or keep recruiting stations for such enlistments, so that such offenders may be brought to justice and punished according to law.
Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twenty-eighth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-third.
By the Governor.
ELI SLIFER,
Secretary of the Commonwealth. sep28

LET THE RECORD SPEAK!
Dr. Heck's Estimate of the Safety of the Country and the Courage of its Defenders.
He Refuses to appropriate Money to Secure the National Honor and Uphold the Federal Authority!
FREEMEN AND SOLDIERS OF DAUPHIN COUNTY, READ!
While the hot shot and bombs were falling thick and fast around the gallant band who were defending their country's honor in Fort Sumter, Gov. Curtin had sent into the Legislature of the state, then in session, a message suggesting the better organization of the militia, and asking for an appropriation of five hundred thousand dollars to place the state on a war footing. The bill as it passed, can be found in the last volume of the laws of the state, page 299—and the proceedings attending its passage in the House, in the Journal of 1861, page 957. We extract the yeas and nays as they appear substantial on the Journal of the House:
YEAS.—Messrs. Abbott, Acker, Alexander, Anderson, Armstrong, Ashcom, Austin, Ball, Barsley, Bartholomew, Bixel, Blizer, Blair, Blanchard, Bliss, Boyer, Bressler, Brewster, Burns, Butler, (Crawford,) Byrne, Clark, Cowan, Craig, Douglass, Duncan, Elyenberger, Elliott, Frazier, Gibboney, Goehring, Gordon, Graham, Happer, Harvey, Hayes, Hillman, Hood, Hofius, Huhn, Irvin, Koch, Lawrence, Leisenring, Lother, M'Gonigal, Marshall, Moore, Mullin, Ober, Osterhout, Patterson, Pierce, Preston, Pugh, Reilly, Ridgway, Robinson, Roller, Seltzer, Shafer, Sheppard, Smith, (Berks,) Smith, (Philadelphia,) Stehman, Strang, Taylor, Teller, Thomas, Tracy, Walker, White, Wilday, Williams, Wilson and Davis, Speaker—76.
NAYS.—Messrs. Brodhead, Butler, (Carbon,) Caldwell, Cole, Dismant, Divine, Donley, Duffield, Dunlap, Gaskill, HECK,
Hill, Kline, Lichtenwallner, M'Donough, Manifold, Morrison, Myers, Raudall, Reiff and Rhoads—21.
Freemen of Dauphin county! Soldiers! who went at the first call of danger to the capital of your country, and who still rest upon your arms night and day around the limits of that capital, are you ready to vote for a man who so lightly estimated the honor of your country and the lives of its defenders? Dr. Heck is one of the old Breckinridge Democrats who sympathized with and still sympathize with and confide in the course of the traitor Breckinridge, and showed his attachment for those who are at the head of this rebellion by refusing to make an appropriation to arm the great State of Pennsylvania to aid their overthrow and its suppression.
This man is again before you, and again solicits your vote that he may again disgrace the halls of legislation with his presence and his conduct. He desires to be returned that he may aid in embarrassing the future efforts of our noble old Commonwealth in assisting to redeem the land from rebellion by enforcing the laws and vindicating the federal authority. No patriot, no brave, loyal lover of his country can vote for Dr. Heck.

The Telegraph.
LINES
Inscribed to the memory of the late lamented Col. James Cameron, of the New York Highland Regiment.
RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO THE HON. SIMON CAMERON, BY THOMAS MAJOR, A. M.
Written for the Telegraph.
Hail Cameron! brave chief of Scotia's band,
Thy spirit flung, now lives, among the mighty dead.
All hallowed be, thy grave in hostile land!
No traitor spear shall e'er pollute thy honor'd head.
Brave Warrior rest! enjoy the peaceful sleep,
Though loved ones now no longer hear thy gentle voice;
Yet oft they sigh, and turn their heads to weep!
As far from thee, in Freedom's light they still rejoice.
The Patriot's sigh breathes o'er thy lonely tomb;
And Washington, with grateful tears, recalls thy name.
Spirit, awake! to hear the cannon's bomb,
Like Scipio's shade! avenged be thou, defend our Fame.
Columbia's name, renowned, as erst shall be,
Evok'd by thee, thou Hero, bravest of the brave!
Then wave thy sword, exclaim, "Scots follow me!"
Shall Scotia live, while Patriot meets a nameless grave?
Forbid it Heaven! then brave thy sword, all hallowed be,
Thy Peace above! and Scotia find her home with thee.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 14, 1861.

MAJOR ABNER DOUBLEDAY.
Sketch of the Life of a Fort Sumter Hero.
Abner Doubleday was born June 26, 1819, in the village of Ballston Spa, Saratoga county, N. Y. His father removed the same year to Auburn, and for many years published the Cayuga Patriot. He was twice elected to Congress, and was a staunch supporter of Jackson's administration.
Abner at the age of fourteen was an excellent Latin and mathematical scholar, and organized an evening class of his father's apprentices, which, while proving useful to them, served to impress his own acquirements more thoroughly on his mind. Hard study having somewhat injured his health, he chose civil engineering as the profession most likely to give him exercise in the open air, and his health was speedily restored and made permanent in the course of his engagements on different parts of the present New York Central Railroad. He was in Canada in 1838, engaged in surveying the route of the Toronto and Lake Huron Railroad, and spent some weeks in the almost unbroken wilderness around Lake Simcoe. The insurrection broke out in that year, and he returned home to find that he had, during his absence, received the appointment of cadet at West Point, where he passed four years.
In his class were Rosecrans, Pope and Meade, now Generals in our army, and Van Dorn, Longstreet, Anderson and Hill, at present Generals in the rebel army. He was brevetted second Lieutenant in the Third artillery, and stationed in various of the forts on our southern seaboard, at one time serving with Bragg's company. Promotion was very slow in those days, and it was not till 1845 that he received his commission as full second Lieutenant in the First artillery, which he joined at Fort Preble, Portland, in May.
In August, when General Taylor occupied the south bank of the Neusee, he was ordered thither, and arrived at Corpus Christi in September. While stationed there, being one day on duty as officer of the guard, a disturbance took place in a house within our lines, occupied by a Texan desperado, who on the approach of the guard threatened to shoot the first man that crossed his threshold. The sergeant sent for Lieutenant Doubleday and reported the facts. That officer, ordering his men to remain outside, entered the house alone, and arrested the perpetrator in spite of the fire which was headed by him and his fellow who, however, cowed by his determination, made no further resistance, but quietly submitted. On the arrival of the army at the Rio Grande his company was stationed at Point Isabel, and he consequently did not participate in the battles of Palo Alto and Resaca de la Palma.
Determined not to remain guarding beef and pork when more manly work was to be done, he succeeded in exchanging companies with another officer, and, as one of the artillery battalion under Colonel Childs, behaved so gallantly in three days fighting at Monterey as to earn the special notice and praise of that officer in his official report. He remained in garrison at Monterey until the enemy appeared in force before our position at Agua Nueva, when his company was suddenly ordered to equip a heavy battery and hasten to General Taylor's assistance. General Marshall, with a force of two hundred and fifty men and four guns, started promptly for Sautillo, but on reaching the Arizona pass was met by a messenger with orders from General Taylor to fortify it, as he feared the whole country was roused, and the way no longer to be able to maintain his position at Buena Vista. The men worked all night and the next day, though burning to take part in the battle, whose roar could be distinctly heard though they were thirty-five miles distant. Another messenger came with orders to hurry forward to Buena Vista, and at six o'clock P. M. they started. The road was very hilly, and the guns had to be drawn up the hills with ropes by the men, and let down in the same manner. Whenever General Marshall ordered a halt to rest the soldiers, they continually cried out, "Hasten, hasten forward; we shall not be in time." Some of these brave fellows were among the defenders of Fort Sumter.
The beaten fires of the enemy showed that the whole country was roused, and the way no longer to be able to maintain his position at Buena Vista. The men worked all night and the next day, though burning to take part in the battle, whose roar could be distinctly heard though they were thirty-five miles distant. Another messenger came with orders to hurry forward to Buena Vista, and at six o'clock P. M. they started. The road was very hilly, and the guns had to be drawn up the hills with ropes by the men, and let down in the same manner. Whenever General Marshall ordered a halt to rest the soldiers, they continually cried out, "Hasten, hasten forward; we shall not be in time." Some of these brave fellows were among the defenders of Fort Sumter.
The beaten fires of the enemy showed that the whole country was roused, and the way no longer to be able to maintain his position at Buena Vista. The men worked all night and the next day, though burning to take part in the battle, whose roar could be distinctly heard though they were thirty-five miles distant. Another messenger came with orders to hurry forward to Buena Vista, and at six o'clock P. M. they started. The road was very hilly, and the guns had to be drawn up the hills with ropes by the men, and let down in the same manner. Whenever General Marshall ordered a halt to rest the soldiers, they continually cried out, "Hasten, hasten forward; we shall not be in time." Some of these brave fellows were among the defenders of Fort Sumter.

BY TELEGRAPH.
Later From Washington.
NAVAL COURT OF INQUIRY.
ESCAPE OF A REBEL PRISONER.
APPOINTMENTS FOR THE VOLUNTEER SERVICE.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.
A court of inquiry, composed of Captains LaVelette, Pendergrast and Morris, was opened today at the Navy Yard, to examine the conduct of Commander Chandler, of the steamer Dawn. Geo. W. Weston, Esq., acting as Judge Advocate.
It has been ascertained that Howell, alias Enback, alias Emerick, alias Addison, etc., who stabbed Mr. F. W. Walker, the correspondent of the New York Express, has made his escape into Virginia through the aid afforded him by the secession friends in Maryland. The horse and equipments taken from him by Walker are in this city. The latter is recovering from his wounds.
The Kentucky cavalry regiment is still without an officially recognized colonel. A petition is in circulation recommending Lieutenant Colonel Owens for the command. Prince Salm-Salm was some time ago appointed, but at his own request a change has been made and he is now attached to General Blenker's staff.
The following appointments for the volunteer service were made to-day: Melancton S. Wade, of Ohio, Lovel H. Rousseau, of Kentucky, and Alvin Schoeff, of the District of Columbia, late examiner in the Patent Office, to be Brigadier Generals.
Major Hunt, U. S. artillery, has been promoted to aid to Gen. McClellan, with the rank of Colonel.
Capt. Coppinger, an English officer, late in the Papal military service, has been commissioned a Captain in our volunteer service, on the recommendation of his holiness, the Pope.
This makes the fifth European monarch who has recommended officers for service in the United States.

All Work Promised in One Week
PENNSYLVANIA
STEAM DYEING ESTABLISHMENT,
104 Market Street between 4th and 5th,
HARRISBURG, PA.
WHERE every description of Ladies' and Gentlemen's garments, Dress Goods, &c., are dyed, cleaned and finished in the best manner and at the shortest notice.
DOUGLASS & CO.,
Proprietors.
SCHEFFE'S BOOK STORE.
(NEAR THE HARRISBURG BRIDGE.)
UNION ENVELOPES.
NOTE PAPER, of six different designs, printed in two colors, sold by the thousand and in small quantities at City Cash prices.
Also, Flags, Union Banners, Pins, Badges, Union Rings and Badges at very low prices.
Call at
SCHEFFE'S BOOKSTORES.
TO FARMERS!
BUTTER (good, sweet and fresh) in one quantity taken at all times and cash paid or groceries given in exchange. Regular market rates always paid.
WM. DOCK, JR., & CO.,
Opposite the Court House.

REGULATIONS.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
HARRISBURG, Sept. 8, 1861.
1. No pardon will be granted until notice of the application thereof shall have been given by publication once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper printed in the county in which the conviction was had.
2. No pardon will be granted until notice of the application thereof shall have been given to the District Attorney of the proper County.
3. No pardon will be granted without first consulting the Judge who presided at the trial of the party. By order of the Governor.
ELI SLIFER,
Sec'y of Com.

HOW BRECKINRIDGE RAN AWAY.
The inglorious flight of an ex-Vice President of the United States is thus recorded by the Louisville (Ky.) Journal of the 25th instant: "We learn from Mr. Sterling that on Friday morning, about four o'clock, a buggy containing two gentlemen and a negro boy passed through that town, stopping for a few minutes at the house of an ex-official, and took the state road towards the Virginia line."
Several gentlemen met the buggy on the road. One of the travelers was closely muffled and whenever they were about meeting any one the negro boy raised himself so as to cover the muffled figure. One of the secessionists in Mt. Sterling revealed the fact on Friday that John C. Breckinridge had gone through on his way to Virginia or Tennessee. Lincoln's "Hessian cloak" is forever eclipsed now.
The ex-official at whose house the travelers called was not in Mt. Sterling on Friday night. A number of the state Guard stole a portion of the state arms on Friday, after dark, and started on the road the buggy had taken. Perhaps they accompanied Breckinridge and his companion as a body guard."

FROM THE FEDERAL CAPITAL.
Correspondence of the Telegraph.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30, 1861.
From all appearances yesterday, I was satisfied that something would transpire during the night. Regiments by the dozen marched over the Long Bridge, the entire day, supplied with two or three days' ration; and the countenances of the men betokened that something startling was to occur. I was woken up this morning by the startling intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four or five prisoners were taken, two of whom were officers—non-committal ones. They would not give information of any importance. Perhaps after they are confined awhile, they will not be so contumacious. Ere this letter reaches its destination, you will no doubt hear of a demonstration at Munson's Hill, about two miles distant from the starting intelligence that Munson's Hill was ours; and about an hour afterwards I took a stroll up the Avenue to learn the truth of the news, and had the satisfaction of hearing it satisfactorily and authoritatively corroborated. The city was in a flame of enthusiasm over the rebuilt—old and young rejoicing at the victory achieved without one drop of blood being spilled. It seems that the rebels got wind or suspicion that Gen. McClellan was about to make a move, and retreated in the direction of Munson's Hill, taking with them all their cannon but two, which are now in our possession. A Michigan regiment is now at Munson's Hill, where, it is said, siege guns of immense calibre were mounted immediately. Four