LET THE RECORD SPEAK!

Dr. Heck's Estimate of the Safety of the Country and the Courage of its Defenders.

Freemen of Dauphin county! Soldiers! who went at the first call of danger to the capital of your country, and who still rest upon your arms night and day around the limits of that capital, are you ready to vote for a man who so lightly estimated the honor of your country and the lives of its defenders?

While the hot shot and bombs were falling thick and fast around the gallant band who were defending their country's honor in Fort Sumter, Gov. Curtin had sent into the Legislature of the state, then in session, a message suggesting the better organization of the militia, and asking for an appropriation of five hundred thousand dollars to place the state on a war footing.

Yours—Messrs. Abbott, Acker, Alexander, Anderson, Armstrong, Ashcom, Austin, Ball, Barnsley, Bartholomew, Bissel, Bixler, Blair, Blanchard, Bliss, Boyer, Bresler, Brewster, Buisin, Butler, (Cravford,) Byrne, Clark, Cowan, Craig, Douglas, Duncan, Eilenberger, Elliott, Frazier, Gibboney, Goehring, Gordon, Graham, Happer, Harvey, Hayes, Hillman, Hood, Hofius, Huhn, Irvin, Koch, Lawrence, Leisinger, Lowther, M'Gonigal, Marshall, Moore, Mullin, Ober, Osterhout, Patterson, Pierce, Preston, Pugh, Rely, Ridgway, Robinson, Boller, Seltzer, Snafer, Sheppard, Smith, (Berks,) Smith, (Philadelphia,) Stehman, Strang, Taylor, Teller, Thomas, Tracy, Walker, White, Wilder, Williams, Wilson and Davis, (Scranton,) Caldwell, Coss, Dismant, Divina, Donlay, Duffield, Dunlap, Gaskill.

Freemen of Dauphin county! Dr. Heck is one of the old Breckinridge Democrats who sympathized with and still sympathize with and confide in the course of the traitor Breckinridge, and showed his attachment for those who are at the head of this rebellion by refusing to make an appropriation to arm the great state of Pennsylvania to aid their overthrow and its suppression.

Expected Advance Movements.

DARKERSBOWN, Md., Oct. 3. The attack upon our pickets at the Great Falls this morning was by six regiments of rebel infantry, a body of cavalry and a battalion of artillery, all in a transit for the upper Potomac. They fired about forty rounds of shot and shell, doing considerable damage to the houses, hurting slightly but one person.

A Union battery subsequently arrived at the Falls and threw several shells into the supposed position of the enemy, but obtained no response, the rebels exposed seven guns in their attack.

About 5 o'clock, the same force encamped about two miles from the river, opposite the mouth of Muddy Branch, where a Massachusetts regiment is stationed; here they remained all night, but did not compliment us by any demonstration. Early this morning they again moved forward. They are perfectly destined for Leesburg or the Point of Rocks.

To-day Gen'l. Banks reviewed and inspected three brigades of his division near this place. This is supposed by some to be an indication of the commencement of a fall campaign.

LATER FROM MISSOURI.

EVACUATION OF LEXINGTON.

DESIGNS OF THE REBELS.

MALTREATMENT OF THE WOUNDED.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 3.

A special dispatch to the St. Louis Democrat says: Dr. White, of Mulligan's brigade, arrived here in the Sedalia train at an early hour this morning and brings information from Lexington up to Monday night. Price had left Lexington with the main body of his force and was marching southward for the purpose of effecting a junction with McCulloch, after which he will give Fremont battle.

Dr. White represents that Price is decided upon this point, having been elated and intoxicated by his victory at Lexington. He says that Price anticipates an easy victory over Fremont at this point, and will then move on St. Louis. There were no less than twenty-four thousand secessionists ready to rise and welcome him with arms in their hands.

Dr. White thinks that the rebels will endeavor to get between us and the force at Georgetown, surround and cut off Davis and Sigel, and then meet Fremont near this place. The rebel force has nineteen field pieces, and are expecting rifled cannon from the South.

Gen. Price told the doctor that the Southern confederacy had loaned the State of Missouri one million of dollars, for the purpose of carrying on the war against the Federal government. The rebel troops are confident of victory and are clamoring to be led against Fremont.

A portion of Prices force had moved towards Independence. There were but three hundred men in Warrensburg when the Doctor passed through there. He thinks Price's force numbers fully forty thousand.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO ST. LOUIS REPUBLICAN.—Dr. White says he heard on his way here that 18,000 rebels had parted from the main body and marched toward Georgetown, with the intention of taking that place before reinforcements could arrive from Jefferson City.

The officer here, formerly of Mulligan's Irish brigade, who left the vicinity of Lexington on Monday evening, places no confidence in the truth of the above. The officer says that he quitted Lexington, and that nothing reliable was known of their intentions or course, or of what policy Price had concluded to pursue.

Booneville and Glasgow were quiet at the latest advices, but our forces are on the alert for a fight. Many persons think there will be no general engagement since the refused evacuation of Lexington, but others believe he will very soon strike a blow in some quarter where he is least expected, and the prospects of a battle is now increasing rather than diminished.

General Fremont continues actively occupied, and the various division commanders have had interviews with him to-day. His programme is said, by those in his confidence, to be excellent in every particular, and to have met the approval of all the military authorities to whom he has disclosed it.

Since his arrival here, confidence in the Federal cause has greatly increased, and it is now believed that before the end of the month, Missouri will be purged of her secession foe.

The steamer Emma left for Lexington this evening to convey our wounded to the hospitals in St. Louis. Colonel Philip St. George Cook, of the Second United States Dragoons, arrived here this evening, and had a lengthy interview with General Fremont.

The excess of the expenditures over the Post Office Department receipts for the fourth quarter of the year 1860 was nearly two millions, while the excess for the first quarter of the present year was $808,000, the receipts being nearly $2,197,000. The receipts in the latter quarter exceeded those of the former by over $60,000.
