THE ELECTION YESTERDAY.

We go to press at two o'clock a. m.; but the returns from the state come in so slowly that it is impossible for us to form any estimate of the result of the election held yesterday.

The returns from this county are also incomplete; but we believe that the whole Republican ticket is elected, excepting perhaps the County Treasurer. The vote, however, is so close for that office that it will take the official vote

The Republicans have gained one member of the Legislature in this county by the defeat of the Democratic candidate Dr. Heck.

This is a glorious result, as every exertion was made to elect him. Dauphin county has therefore sustained the men who are willing to do their utmost for their country. Dr. Heck's vote last winter against the militia bill has effectually sealed his fate.

Altogether old Dauphin has done nobly, and evinced by her vote her undying attachment to the cause of the Union.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.

As the Campbell artillery were passing near the President's house this afternoon, on their way from the grand artillery and cavalry review, the ammunition box on one of the gun carriages exploded with a noise like the report of cannon. The box contained shell and solid shot. The three artillerymen sitting on the lid of it were violently lifted several feet and slightly scorched, and falling into the street were considerably bruised. They were at once removed in ambulances to the hospital. The explasive JUST RECIEVED AT BERGNER'S CHEAP force was principally at the back of the ammunition box, that section being broken into sevenition box, that section being broken into several fragments, while the lid on which the men

Gen. J. Y. James, of Penna, now here, has procured an order for the acceptance of three regiments from that State, composed of mountain men, who enter for the war.

Brigadier General Strong, of New York, will, it is said, immediately leave for Missouri for the performance of important duties connected with the Quartermaster's department. According to a telegram from Gen. Rosencrans he will be able fully to sustain himself against the combined forces of the rebel Generals Lee and Floyd. Neither he or General Fremont will have occaministration is not unmindful of the importance of affording them all support which their several positions require.

The military event of to-day has been the promised grand review of cavalry and artillery. It is now progressing on a favorable ground. some distance east of the Capitol. The review is witnessed by the President, the Cabinet, the foreign Ministers, and hundreds of distinguished spectators. Gen. McClellan was received on his appearance with a salute of thirteen guns. The day is chilly and damp. The election among the Pennsylvania volunteers, encamped at Tennallytown and elsewhere in this vicinity, takes places at four o'clock this afternoon. The President has confirmed the sentence of the Court Martial in the case of certain volunteer officers who have been on trial for various charges, and ordered their names to be stricken from the rolls. Joseph B. Paxton, of Philadelphia, has been appointed Consul to Bahia. A soldier, name unknown, belonging to a Pennsylvania regiment, was accidentally killed last night while coming off sentry duty, near
