ESCAPE OF PRISONERS --- Stephen Gross, Bowen, and J. Ackerman, made their escape from the jail at Easton about dark last Friday evening. They had cut the iron bars of the jail, and after letting themselves down in the jail yard, scaled the walls and left for parts unknown. Gross and Bowen were awaiting trial for the Bethlehem robbery, committed some time ago, and Ackerman was in for robbing his uncle in Mount Bethel, a month or two since. Gross and Bowen are adepts at the thieving business.

DISCHAURED FROM PRISON. -The soldiers M'Gee, Thompson and Miller, who were arrested and confined in prison some time ago for maltreating the keeper of a lager beer saloon and his wife, on the poor house road below this city, a notice of which appeared in the TELEGRAPH at the time, were brought before Judge Pearson this morning on a writ of habeas corpus, and on motion of District Attorney, discharged from custody. The men were at once handed over to the military authorities, and will be sent with their regiment, the 5th artillery to Kentucky.

POLICE -- Mayor's Court .--- Bill Jones was arraigned for malicious mischief, drunkenness and disorderly conduct generally. Fined $1. John Williams-a "vag"-was up for lying around loose, and discharged with an injunction to leave the city forthwith.

A dapper little Irish lady, with cork-screw curls dangling around a pair of red dumpling cheeks puffed into a smile as bright as the harvest moon in an unclouded sky, was arraigned for the offence of drunkenness. Her name was registered on the police sheet as Catherine Bradley, and this was her second appearance before his honor within a week. She received a severe reprimand, and was then discharged with an injunction to sin no more. Before Alderman Kline.-Peter Smith, Wm. Purcell, James Moore, and a man who wouldn't give his name, were all arraigned for drunken# ness, and sent to prison.

LUIHBRAN SYNOD OF WEST PENNSYLVANIA .-The Evangelical Lutheran Synod of West Pennsylvania, commenced its sessions in the Lutheran church of Mechanicsburg, on Friday evening, the 27th ult., and adjourned finally on the following Tuesday evening to meet in Shippensburg, next fall, at the usual time. The territory of this Synod embraces Cumberland, York, Adams and Franklin counties. The number of ministers is about forty.

The Synod was organized by the election of Rev. E. Bridenbaugh, of Greencastle, President; Rev. Alleman, of Hanover, Secretary; and Prof. Jacobs. of Gettysburg, Treasurer. During T. Conner, of Mauch Chunk, has been chosen the sessions of Synod, considerable business of a local nature was transacted, and a spirit of harmony characterized the proceedings. There was no business before the Synod of an exciting character, and hence there were no very protracted or exciting discussions. On Tuesday

A SUCCESSOR TO BISHOP BOWMAN. - A Special convention of the diocese of Pennsylvania has been called by the Right Rev. The object is to elect an Assistant ferent classes of schools and literary institutions Bishop, in the place of the late lamented Bish- in the State was to have met in Philadelphia, op Bowman.

JUVENILE DEPRAVITY. -- Last Saturday evening the neighborhood of State and Second streets was the scene of one of the most disgusting spectacles we have ever witnessed in our reportorial experience. Surrounded by a group of a dozen or more boys, was one, apparently not more than eight years old, in a state of beastly intoxication! He was shoeless, coatless and hatless, and with his bloated cheeks, and dishelved hair, matted and tangled, half concealing his blood-shot eyes, he presented altogether a picture of moral degradation scarcely ever equalled in the annals of human depravity. Even his juvenile companions seemed to be impressed with a proper sense of his degraded condition, and kindly sought to assist him to the residence of his mother, a poor hard working woman, in South street; but to these well meant efforts the drunken boy made resistance, following it up with a string of oaths the most shocking in the vocabulary of profanity. He was finally, overcome, however, by an elder brother, who succeeded in pitching the young delinquent across his shoulder like a bag of oats, in which position he was taken home, where it is to be hoped, after he had recovered from his drunken debauch, that he was submitted to a vigorous application of that which Soloman in the maturity of his wisdom enjoined upon parents to "spare not."

THE "CHIPPEWAS."- The Thirty-seventh Pennsylvania volunteers, Col. James Miller, who have been encamped for several weeks past at Camp Washington near Easton, arrived here last Saturday by the Lebanon Valley Railroad. Quite a number of the men of this regiment have been in the three months service, and their experience tends to increase the efficiency of the command. It is a noticeable fact that the regiment contains men of the very best fighting material-a great many of whom are countrymen of Corcoran, Mulligan and Meagher. The Colonel, James Miller, served with distinction in the Mexican War, as Captain of the "Stockton Artillerists," of Mauch Chunk, Second Pennsylvania volunteers. Major General Quitman, in his report of the battle of Chepultepec, speaks of the gallant Captain as eader of one of the storming parties. The men of the Thirty-seventh need never wish for a brave or experienced Coloncl, while Jim Miller rides at the head of their column. Capt. Eli Major. A better selection could not have been made. Major Conner is a civil engineer, and in every way qualified to fill the position to which he has been called. The field and line officers are all gentlemen of experience and ability. The "Musical Department," under the charge evening a number of young men were ordained of an old printer, Fife Major Charles D. Sig- wherein they adorned their fountains and wells to preach the Gospel The services during the man, has fallen into competent hands. WHAT IS IN THE BEDBOOM ?- If two persons are to occupy a bedroom during a night let them step upon weighing scales as they retire, and then again in the morning, and they will find their actual weight is at least a pound less rious sections of the city? In these days of in the morning. Frequently there will be a stub-toe boots, half the pleasure of a walk is loss of two or more pounds, and the average loss thoughout the year will be more than one pound. That is, during the night there is a loss of a pound of matter gone from their bodies, partly from the lungs and partly through the pores of the skin. The escaped material is carbonic acid, and decayed animal matter, or poisonous exhalations. This is diffused through the air in part, and in part absorbed by the bed clothes. If a single ounce of wood or cotton be burned in a room, it will so completely saturate the air with smoke that one can hardly breathe, though there can only be one ounce of foreign matter in the air. If an ounce of cotton be burned every hour during the night, the air will be continually saturated with smoke unless there be an open door or window for it to escape. Now the sixteen ounces of smoke, from this county stationed at Camp Advance in thus formed, is far less poisonous than the sixteen ounces of exhalations from the lungs and bodies of the two persons who have lost a pound in weight during the eight hours of sleeping, for while the dry smoke is mainly taken into the lungs, the damp oders from the body are absorbed both into the lungs and into the pores of the whole body. Need more be said to show the importance of having bedrooms well ventilated and of thoroughly airing the sheets, coverlids and mattrasses, in the morning before putting up in the this, it seems, was also disregarded by the of all bedroom evils is the feather bed-but ackeeper, who reiterated his instruction from the cording to the notion of some, if it is old and Directory front to receive any cold. A LADY KILLS A RATTLESNAKE .- On last here with all its deepening shades of a dying Friday a young lady in the household of John vear. The woods are still beautiful, like old Hormel, Esq., of East Bethlehem, Washington temples as they are, but yet sombre and full of county, encountered an enormous reptile near low mournful whisperings. But there is a her residence. The heroic girl, instead of runwealth in all these that makes the harvest full ning, as many would have done, gave battle, and soon vanquished the loathsome symbol of Confederate treason. Upon examination it was found to be a rattlesnake, forty-three inche long, and bearing eleven rattles.

on the 21st of last May, but was postponed in consequence of the then recent disturbance of the public peace. It has been again called to meet in this city on Tuesday, November 26, 1861, at 10 o'clock, a.m. It will continue in session four days

DISORDERLY HOUSE .- The 42 section of the revised penal code comes at disorderly and illgoverned houses in the following manner : "If any person shall keep and maintain common, ill-governed and disorderly house or place, to the encouragement of idleness, gaming, drinking or other misbehavior, to the common nuisance and disturbance of the neighborhood, he or she shall be guilty of a misde-meanor, and on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both or either, at the discretion of the Court.'

THE cool weather has turned the attention of the soldiers to the construction of temporary fire places in their tents. The plan adopted by one of the New York regiments is to dig a trench a foot wide and deep, running from the interior to the exterior of the tent. to the exterior of the tent, then to cover it over with the exception of a foot at either end, the inside serving as a fire place, and the outside end, covered with a headless harrel, serves as a chimney. The invention is said to be of Caiifornia origin.

AN EFFECTUAL CURE FOR THE EAR ACHE. Take a small piece of cotton batting, or cotton wool, make a depression in the center with the end of the finger, and fill it with as much ground pepper as will rest on a five cent piece. gather it into a ball and tie it up, dip the ball into sweet oil and insert it in the ear, covering the latter with cotton wool, and use a bandage or cap to retain it in its place. Almost instant relief will be experienced, and the application is so gentle that an infant will not be injured by it, but experience relief as well as adults.

OCTOBER .- This month was called Domitian in the time of Domitian; but after his death it was, by the decree of the senate, altered to October, every one hating the name and memory of so detestable a tyrant. The Saxons called October Wyn-Monat, for, although they had not wines made as in Germany, yet, in this season, they had them from divers countries adjoining. Peachum describes October as clad "in a garment of yellow and carnation; upon his head, a garland of oak leaves, with the acorns; in his right hand the sign Scorpio; in his left, a basket of servises, medlars, chestnuts, and other fruits, that ripen at the latter time of the year; his robe is of the color of the leaves and flowers decaying." On the 3d of the ides of October. the Romans had a festival called Fontinalia, LOOSE BRICKS. -- Who has not uttered curses both loud and deep against the loose pavement bricks which encumber many pavements in valost, especially at night, because one is in continual terror of these torturous impediments. Every person who lays any claim to the possession of humane, or even human feelings, should make it his or her invariable practice to kick or push from the walk every loose piece of brick they encounter. This should be done both when your toes have been bruised by striking the obstacle and when they have not. There is something of sublime philanthropy in going out of the way to kick one of these bricks, "more in sorrow than in anger," when it has not molested you; whereas, to kick it off out of revenge for its abrasion of your foot, is yielding to cerebellic rather than to lofty cerebral impulses. There is a scientific way of approaching these bricks, and sweeping them into the street without stopring your walk, which all true philanthropists should learn.

THE VOLUNTEER, named James Gehr, belonging to Col. Sam. Black's regiment, whose arrival here was noticed in last Wednesday's TELE-ORAPH, still remains at the City Hotel, in a very weak condition. THE FOUNTAIN HAIR BRUSH .--- To travelers the new patent brush is an article of the first necessity, inasmuch as it abolishes the hair oil bottle; the reservoir, when charged, containing a sufficient quantity of fluid for two or three months. Greasy fingers are the necessary result of using hair oils with the common hair brush, but all fluid preparations for the hair may be used with this cleanly invention without soiling the hands in the slightest degree. -Moreover, it is the only brush through which the fluids used in dressing the hair can be equally distributed, and by which the quantity to be used can be regulated to a drop. Dressing wigs, toupees, fronts, false ringlets, &c., usually a very troublesome and unpleasant process, is scarcely any trouble at all with the Fountain Hair Brush, and involves no necessity for ever touching the fluid applied. For sale at Keller's Drug and Fancy Store, No. 91 Market street. See advertisement.

Votes or CAMPS .- The following is the result of the vote polled last Tuesday by the volunteers Virginia :

Pearson, 6; Isaac Mumma, 8; Young, 8 Fox, 8; Freeland, 7; Miller, 1; Prothonotary Young, 8; Buck, 6; Speel, 3; Marquart, 8 Moyer, 8; Enders, 8; Peffer, 7.

The following is the result of the vote polled by the Dauphin county soldiers, at Fort Ethan Allen, also in Virginia. The returns were received at the Prothonatary's office at noon today: Pearson 6; Mumma 6; Young 6; Fox 6; Freeland 6; Prothonatary Young 6; Buck 6 Mover 6: Marquant 6: Enders 6: Peffer 6.

It will be seen that the above returns very materially decreases Speel's majority for County Treasurer, and as there are other camps yet to hear from, it is not at all improbable that in the case of our friend Jack, the truth of the old saw that "The battle is not always won By they who fastest run, &c." may yet be fully realized.
