THE ONLY PREPARATION

FOR STATEMEN, JUDGES, CLERGYMAN,

Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and the value of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given: see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

Gen. J. Wood: Your note of the 15th inst. has been received, saying that you had heard that I had been benefited by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair, abundant and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since I began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to feel it sensibly and gradually to form upon it. Each year the discolored hair increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling out of the top of my head and threatening to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling out of my hair, for I had no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color, and from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the hair restored to its original color, but that the scalp on the crown of my head, which was so sore, and the itching of the scalp, and the dandruff, were all cured. My hair is now growing again, and I feel that I have gained a great benefit from the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and I am glad to give my certificate of the fact if I have no objection to give it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting on, and express my obligations to you. Very respectfully, BEN. A. LAVENDER. To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, New York. My certificate is absent from the city, and I am no longer at No. 11 Carroll place. Stannard, Ala., July 20th, 1859.

To Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the Public the effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly, W. M. KENEDEY. P. S.—You can publish the above. W. M. KENEDEY. Publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a good Southern paper. W. H. Kenady. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as very well as I needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no longer can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINELEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: a large medium, and small; the small holds three vials, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion than the other two. It is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3.

O. J. WOOD & Co., Proprietors, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo. And sold by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers. j718-dawson

FROM NORFOLK.

More Rebel Accounts of the Attack on Wilson's Fire Zouaves in Florida.

The Confederate Government Purchasing Coffee.

Arrival of the Prisoners of the Fanny.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.

The steamer Louisiana arrived at Baltimore this morning. She brought nearly one hundred passengers, including sixty from Norfolk who were permitted to leave by the rebel authorities. A large proportion are ladies and children. Before being permitted to leave they were closely searched to prevent concealing newspapers. One gentleman who had placed a Norfolk Day Book in his trunk escaped detection.

The Day Book contains the dispatch from New Orleans giving an account of a desperate fought battle between Billy Wilson's Zouaves and a thousand rebels, about two o'clock on the morning of the eighth ult. The rebels were commanded by Gen. L. Anderson. They crossed the Bay and landed at Santa Rosa, near the Zouave encampment without discovery. They drove the pickets in, stormed the place and in less than an hour destroyed all the tents excepting the hospital.

They also captured a large amount of rations, equipments, stores, ammunition and spiked all the cannon placed in position.

Among the rebel loss are Captain Bradford of Florida, Lieut. Neims of Georgia, killed; Lieut. Bugler and Syro, badly wounded. The rebel force consisted of three companies of a Georgia regiment, a portion of the Mobile Continental, three companies of regulars, detachments of Mississippians and Georgians, two hundred Alabamians and a number of naval officers and seamen, commanded by Capt. Breat, formerly of the federal navy.

Lieut. James E. Slaughter, while carrying a flag of truce for a cessation of hostilities, was badly wounded.

Major Israel Vogdes, of the Federal second light artillery, recently at Fortress Monroe was taken prisoner.

The Richmond Enquirer says, the work of transferring the Jamestown into a war vessel is rapidly progressing.

Passengers from Norfolk and Richmond give a gloomy account of affairs. The poorer classes of citizens are suffering much and are really tired of the war.

The Government authorities have purchased nearly all the coffee in Richmond and Norfolk for the soldiers.

Benjamin Huger, formerly in command at Pikesville arsenal, has been commissioned a Major General. The prisoners captured on the Fanny reached Norfolk on Wednesday night as follows: Lieut. F. M. Peacock U. S. Navy, commanding the Fanny, Lieut. Isaac W. Hart, Quartermaster of the Twentieth Indiana; Corporals J. E. Little, Hudson county, G. Everard, New York city, both of the New York Ninth.

The following are the private—New York Ninth: Rowan Havens and Edsall, all from Hudson county, Cunningham, Richmond county, Dougherty and Page, Essex county, John Carson, James Beth and Frank Trothen, New York city; also Capt. Kefer of the Twentieth Indiana, Sergeant Bartlett and twelve privates all Indians and Illinoisans.

The prisoners captured at Chicamacocum include the Sergeant Major Comly of the Twentieth Indiana and three sergeants, two corporals and thirty-seven privates also of the Twentieth Indiana. Also George W. Gerbe, colonel's boy fifteen years old and Henry Hines,
