The War Steamer Pensacola Goes Down the Potomac.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. Quite an excitement prevailed in this city this morning on the report of scouts and other that the enemy are retiring still further into Virginia, Likving in pickets this side of Fairfan about twenty miles from Washington ! They have now entirely shandoned their late ad-Vienna.

It has been generally supposed that the rebe batteries on the Potomac were chiefly designed to prevent the new war steamer. Pensacola lately fitted out at the Navy Yard here, from going out to see. Yet the Pensacola has passed them unfouched. Brigadis, General Stevens, late Governor of Oregon, has just been assigned to an important appointment as a Military Governor, a post well suited to him.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 17. The rebel General, Hawthorne, of the Missis sippi Brigade, now at Hopkinsville, has transferred the post office at that place to the charge of a rebel postmaster, and through him the towns of Southern Kentucky are regularly supplied with the Southern mails, under the authority of the rebel Postmaster-General.

It is reported that General Hardee is in com-Licops, including two thousand Texans, whom, from their wild appearance, the people there take to be Indians.

There is quite an accumulation of Southern bound travelers at our hotels, who find it impossible to get through our lines.
