

Daily Telegraph

HARRISBURG, PA. Wednesday Morning, October 23, 1861.

Wild Ducks.—These delicious birds have been quite plenty on the Susquehanna, since the recent rise in the river, and a number have been captured by our sportsmen.

HAPPENING.—Since the recent rise in the Susquehanna, the river has been in good condition for rafting, and a considerable quantity of lumber has passed down to the lower markets.

THE PROTRACTED meeting services in the Vine Street Methodist Episcopal Church will be continued during the present week. Proaching every evening. Exercises will commence at 7 1/2 o'clock.

A NEW COMMANDANT.—Col. Meredith, of Philadelphia, has assumed command at Camp Cameron. The Colonel has the reputation of being an experienced military man, and will no doubt discharge the duties imposed upon him to the satisfaction of all concerned.

THE COMET STILL VISIBLE.—The great comet which attracted so much attention last summer while it lay stretched across the heavens, is still seen with a telescope not far from the star Eta in the constellation Hercules. It is entirely devoid of that wonderful appendage known as the tail, and nothing remains but a nucleus enveloped in a nebulous shroud, the whole not unlike in appearance a small planetary nebula.

A RESPECTABLE lady while walking along 3d street about 8 o'clock Monday night was met by a soldier at the corner of Pine street, who insisted on accompanying her. The lady quietly submitted to his ungentlemanly conduct, until they arrived opposite State street, when suddenly raising an umbrella which she carried, she let drive at the soldier's head, with a force that sent him reeling back against the iron railing of the Capitol enclosure, and then succeeded in making her escape out State street. Verdict of the Jury—served him right.

A FINE COMPANY.—A company of one hundred volunteers from Clinton county, commanded by Captain Shaeffer, arrived here Monday to join the cavalry regiment of Col. Wynkoop, at Camp Cameron. We noticed at the head of the company, carrying the "stars and stripes," our old friend Capt. Brady, of the State Senate, looking hale and hearty, and apparently as proud of the position with which he was honored as a juvenile is with his first pair of new boots.

TICKETING RETURNED VOLUNTEERS OVER THE RAILROADS.—At a convention of the ticket agents of the various railroads of the country, held in Detroit recently, a plan was reported recommending that a committee be appointed to consult with the General Superintendent of the Government Railways and Telegraphs, for the purpose of arranging upon some system of ticketing returned volunteers and others, and to provide a mode of settlement. It was also recommended that wherever practicable the troops should be transported by regular railroad or steamboat lines, at a charge per mile of 3 cents by the former, and 2 cents by the latter method, including meals. A committee was appointed, consisting of L. L. Houpt, of the Pennsylvania Central, E. F. Folger, of the New York Central, and Mr. Greenough, to see the Government authorities at Washington in regard to the subject.

Police—Mayor's Office.—In the absence of the Mayor, Justice Boudier "held court" at the Mayor's office yesterday.

Four rough-looking negroes were arraigned for gambling in Shell's lumber yard, on the opposite side of the canal. Remanded to the lock-up.

A part of seven negroes were up charged with disorderly conduct at one of the churches in Tanner's alley. All remanded to the lock-up, except one, who paid the required fine, and was discharged.

A negro, said to be a preacher, who has been looting about Camp Curtis for the last two weeks, was arraigned for stealing cigars from the store of Mrs. O'Donnell, corner of Walnut street and Tanner's alley. Remanded to the lock-up.

Mrs. Mullin, an Irish woman, was charged with the larceny of five dollars from Mrs. Perkins in Fourth street. Remanded to the lock-up.

Sam Anderson, employed temporarily as a porter at the City Hotel was arraigned, charged with stealing money from the drawer in the office of that establishment. Sent to prison to answer.

PLEASANT NEIGHBORHOOD.—One's pleasure, after all, is much affected by the quality of one's neighbors, even though one may not be on speaking terms with them. A pleasant bright face at the window is surely better than a discontented cross one. And the house that has the air of being inhabited is preferable to closed shutters and unsoiled blinds, excluding every ray of sunlight and sympathy. We like to see the glancing cheerful lights through the windows of a cold night, or watch them as evening deepens, gradually creep from the parlor to the upper stories of the house near us. We like to watch the little children go in or out of the door, to play or to school. We like to see a white-robed baby dancing up and down at the window in his mother's arms, or the father reading his newspaper there at evening, or any of these cheerful, impromptu home glimpses, which, though we are not Paul Pry, we will assert by far to make a pleasant neighborhood to those who live for comfort instead of show. Sad, indeed, some morning, on waking, it is to see the blinds down and the shutters closed, and to know that death's angel, while it spared our threshold, has crossed that of our cheerful neighbor. Sad to miss the white-robed baby from the window, the house. Sad to see the innocent little face pressed at evenside against the window-pane, watching for the "dear papa" who has gone to his long home.

ANOTHER OLD CITIZEN GONE.—John B. Thompson, one of our oldest citizens, died at his boarding-house—the "Union House," Market street—in this city about one o'clock yesterday. Mr. Thompson, for many years, carried on the tin and copper smith business in this city, which he only relinquished several years ago on account of his advanced age. The funeral of the deceased will take place from his boarding house at two o'clock next Thursday afternoon.

THE DEAR of the weather seems to be just now a gentleman with strong southern proclivities, and insists on putting on southern airs to an alarming extent. We have no doubt it is all very congenial to the growth of turnips, and other "sassa," but we would suggest, mildly, to the head of the Meteorological Bureau that it is not always April, and that northern weather would be just now more in accordance with northern sentiment than the damp, moist, jelly atmosphere, in which we are struggling to exist.

COURTY INSTITUTE.—A County Institute will be held in Harrisburg on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the 24th, 25th, 26th and 27th of December. Prof. S. P. Bates, Mr. Amos Row and other educators will assist in conducting the exercises. Messrs. Hoffman, Miller, Buck and Peters will entertain teachers at general attendance of the teachers of the county, and that Directors will grant them the time. A general invitation is warmly extended to all who are interested in the cause of education.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mr. Jacob Garman and his wife whilst coming to market on Saturday morning, met with an accident which might have resulted in their death. It appears that when near this city their horse took fright and ran away, throwing them both out of the wagon. Mr. Garman escaped with a few bruises, but his wife was stunned by the fall, and when she returned to consciousness it was found that one of her limbs was broken a little below the knee. She was immediately taken to the office of Dr. Bellier, who dressed the wound, and she is now doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

THIS following smart but shameful "sell" was not long ago got off through the papers, emanating from the "Hub of the Universe":—"A great bargain.—To all who may enclose $1, I will send, by mail, post paid, a finely-cut engraved portrait of George Washington, the Father of his Country, together with an elegant portrait of Benjamin Franklin—either separately at four shillings. Address H. C., Boston.

A gentleman, noticing the above advertisement in a city paper, sent in his dollar, and obtained in return a three-cent and a one-cent postage stamp, ornamented with "finely cut engraved" heads!

NEEDS AN EXPLANATION.—We have for several days past heard a rumor on our streets reflecting very severely upon the conduct of the Commandant at Camp Cameron, in the case of a young man from the interior of the State, who recently visited that camp for the purpose of seeing his father, a volunteer in one of the companies stationed there. We forbear at the present time giving any of the particulars, for the simple reason that they are of such an atrocious nature as to be almost incredible, and we only make this allusion to the affair with the view of giving the Commandant an opportunity to "rise and explain."

A LADY RESIGNED.—The Springfield Republican reports that the "Di Vernon Phalanx," an enterprising and charming company of young ladies at Pittsfield, was recently disbanded by dissensions among the officers, resulting from marked attention paid to some in the ranks by prepossessing young gentlemen who ought to have looked higher. At several "tea fights" in the village, where the Phalanx was quartered, it seems that not only cap but hair pulling was the order of the day, and of course no millitary organization can exist where such practices prevail. The unfortunate demoralization of the entire body is reported as being greater than that of our troops at Bull Run.

A GROSS ATTEMPT TO SWINDLE.—The Cleveland Leader says the mails are now flooded with circulars appealing for contributions to the "U. S. Humane Society," which professes to act by consent of the Government, and under its authority, in obtaining funds for the army ambulance and hospital supplies. The modest sum of only thirty thousand dollars is required, and subscriptions from a dime up wards are solicited. Dr. S. W. Tolhurst signs the circulars, as General Western Agent, Cleveland, Ohio. The Leader says no such man is known there, and it exposes the whole thing as a base and cowardly attempt to swindle the patriotic public by creating an impression that this movement has something to do with the Sanitary Commission, which is quite another affair.

GEN. M'CLELLAN'S ARMY OF EUROPE.—Messrs J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Phila., have just published a handsome volume, containing the report on the armies of Europe, made by direction of the United States Government in 1856-57 by Maj. General, then Capt., Geo. B. McClellan. The book is an 8vo volume of 500 pages, handsomely illustrated by numerous engravings, and young officers cannot fail to profit by the immense quantity of valuable information it contains. It opens with a sketch of the war in the Crimea, where the author arrived after the fall of Malakoff, especially describing the siege and storming of Sebastopol. It then treats of European engineer troops; of the French, Austrian, Prussian, and Sardinian infantry; of the Russian army, in all its varieties of force; and, finally, of European and United States cavalry, concluding with an Appendix of "Regulations for the Field Service of Cavalry in time of War." Even civilians may read this book with pleasure and profit, for it conveys the best as well as latest information respecting the constitution, discipline, force, and character of the armies of Europe and the United States. The book is for sale at Bergner's cheap Book store, Market street.

CONTRACT FOR BEER.—Mr. B. S. Kunkle, of the firm of Eby & Kunkle of this city, is one of the successful bidders for the army beer contract, which was awarded at Philadelphia at noon yesterday. Mr. Kunkle's bid was $3.49, and although some were lower, his was selected as being among the best—the award depending upon the character of the sureties offered.

RAISING SORGHUM.—We learn that many of the farmers in the western part of Chester county have raised parcels of the Chinese sugar cane the present season. The crop has yielded well. Mr. James Cloud is manufacturing the molasses by steam, and the mill is running day and night. As sugars have raised in price, the crop will be profitable. It has been abundantly proved that sorghum can be raised in our latitude. Several years ago a prominent sugar-refining firm of Philadelphia demonstrated the fact most conclusively, and the results of the experiment were hailed with satisfaction by the agricultural press of the entire country.

A NOVEL MAGNETIC TACK HAMMER.—The triumph of invention have been written and sung so often, that the subject has almost become threadbare. Nevertheless the theme is prolific, and new schemes are developing every day; therefore let us write a little more, and sing another song to the worthy sons of genius, who are doing so much for the progress of the world in material things. The last thing out is a Patent Magnetic Tack Hammer. No more pointed fingers; no more curses on the hammer. Tack-driving is at length reduced to a science, and hereafter the world will go smoothly and free from friction, so far as this important branch of domestic industry is concerned. An ingenious German has invented and patented a tack hammer that fits the nail, fits up, and there they hang until driven, home to their appointed duty. What a convenient thing this will be; and how many tryings nibbles of the fingers, and how many poundings will thus be saved to man and woman kind by the introduction of this humane and convenient tool.

A WORD ABOUT THE FASHIONS.—The milliners of (whom we have a goodly number of the best in this city) will soon be working under the highest kind of pressure. Winter bonnets already grace some of the show-room windows, and in a short time they will be run down with buyers. Fortunately for the business, a sabby bonnet is a hopeless affair. An old dress may be turned or dyed; but a bonnet once battered or faded, is ruined beyond resurrection. A woman may deny herself almost anything else; but a duck of a bonnet is the grand prerequisite of her costume. For this reason, milliners will have a "good time," let the depression of trade be what it may. Let fortune hunters take notice, and instead of running after so-called heiresses, invest their gallantry and affections upon enterprising young milliners. The chances are that in a pecuniary point of view, a dozen of years would bring about a reversal of their circumstances.

We are told that the extreme of fashion in bonnets is out of use. One person speaks of a very expensive article in this line which was flattened upon the top—suggesting, when upon the head, the possibility that the wearer might have broken the fall from some unfinished building of a four pound brick. They must be very trying to any kind of face. Surrounding a hatched-shaped or strictly oval face, such a head-gear must look very odd, to say the least. To a plump round face, on the contrary, the new style must be becoming.

One important change in ladies' dress is of such benefit that it must not pass by without remark, and it is in the adoption of heavy English shoes. Balmoral boots and fur-lined shoes insure good health and happiness to ladies, and they begin to enjoy the benefit of wearing them. A dainty foot is by no means disgraced by an elegant Balmoral.

FROM NEW YORK AND PHILADELPHIA.—We have the pleasure this morning, of stating that our senior partner has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, with a choice assortment of fall and winter dry goods. This stock of goods was bought on the most favorable terms. Purchasers will find special advantage in looking over our new stock. The cheap store is at the corner of Front and Market streets.

THE GREATEST BARGAINS FROM NEW YORK AND PHILADELPHIA.—The Cheapest Goods Ever Sold!—50 pieces of 5-4 bleached Pillow Case Muslin, 12 1/2 cents. 100 dozen of woolen Socks damaged by water, 8 cents a pair. 25 pieces of dark heavy Pant Stuff, 13, 25 and 37 cents. 50 pieces Canton Flannel, 12 1/2 cents. 100 of black and grey Cloaks, from $2.50 up. 12 dozen of ladies' woolen Socks, very cheap. 40 dozen of grey and white merino Undershirts and Drawers, 70 cents. 50 pairs white woolen Blankets, at all prices. 100 dozen of ladies' and children's wool Stockings, 12 to 37 cents. 50 pieces of white, red and yellow Flannel, at all prices. Country merchants we would invite to call, as we have a large stock of all kinds of Goods, and are daily receiving Goods from New York Auction, which we will sell at wholesale at City prices.
