HARRISBURG POST OFFICE.—The morning mail bags will cl se at half-past six o'clock, a. m., insead of 8.15 as heretofore. This is the only way MAIL that goes east and persons desiring to send letters, &c., to the small towns along the railroad had better notice the change to prevent disappointment.

RASPBERRIES IN OCTOBER.—Our friend MISH a plate of fine Raspberries. The berries are red, and of an entire new species, bearing the second species for sale.

ROWDYISM IN THE FIFTH WARD -About midnight last Saturday a party of rowdies visited a house in the Fifth ward and endeavored to gain kittens. admittance. Not succeeding, however, they became enraged, and on the appearance of one of the male inmates at a window of the establishment a pistol shot was fired, the ball from which, just grazed his head, causing a severe bleeding. The rowdies then decamped.

The road below Lewiston to the vicinity of Patterson, adistance of some eight miles, is almost unfrequented except by a few railroad hands—the trains run at a high speed—and the double track, cut through rocks and thickets at the foot of the mountain, with the river below, leaves but little space for a sober, much less a drunken man, to make his way towards a habitation or shelter of any kind.

A Bogus Colonel Exploded.-A man of rather fine physique, dressed in the uniform of United States officer, has been distributing family souvenirs, and creating somewhat of a sensation in Cincinnati. He left Louisville about the 8 h inst., simultaneously with the ollowing notice in the Louisville Journal:

"Col. George Washington, the only living relative of Gen. George Washington, is now at the Louisville Hotel, and is to leave in the mail boat to-day for Cincinnati."

The Cincinnati papers are jovial about the 'distingue looking personage." On the 9th inst., he reviewed Col. Taylor's regiment, and succeeded in obtaining a commission to purchase his entertainer a very fine sword for $25, the model of his own elegant weapon; also a of the Keystone Nurseries has presented us with pair of boots do., $25, and in borrowing a very five navy pistol and a horse—with none of which he returned until unfortunately he found himtime this season. RECRUITING FOR THE REGULAR ARMY.—We learn that Colonel Carrington's regiment, the 18th U. S. Infantry, is now far in advance in point of numbers of any of the new regiments authorized by the late act of Congress for the enlargement of the Regular Army, numbering in the army are in some instances moving in already upwards of 1,200 men, and will, no doubt, be the first completed and in active service. The plan of organization is one without precedent in the United States, having been adopted from the French military school. The regiment is to consist of three battalions of some 800 men each, and forming a regiment of est to a church that they can have. THE NUT CROP.—Shellbarks and chestnuts country than at the present time. The country stores in the "shellbark region" are fairly groan ing under the weight of nuts stored away on the story next to the roof. At some stores bushels upon bushels of them have been re ceived. The price paid for shellbarks has been from 80 cents to $1 25 a bushel, and chestnuts from 5 cents to 8 cents a quart. The ruling price up country last week, for shellbarks, was 80 cents, and chestnuts $1 50 Some storekeepers in this city bought them at equally low rates, though they have been retailing chestnuts at 12 to 18 cents a quart.

REMEMBER THE SOLDIER .- Mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of Dauphin county, are you responding as you ought to the appeal which has been made to you, for a share of surplus household bounties for the comfort and health of the gallant men in arms upon the Potomac, and have now in your midst, who will soon march in defence of our national honor, and the stars and stripes. There is scarcely a household in our country, from the palace of the millionaire to the humble cabin of the laborer, that cannot spare something from its store, without impoverishment or inconvenience.-One warm blanket, or a good pair of woolen socks, might save the life of as brave a fellow as ever shouldered a musket. The resources of the Government will be taxed to the utmost; let there be no withholding of private bounty which will add to the health and comfort of the men who have taken their lives in their hands, and gone from homes of plenty to endure the fatigues, hardships and perils of a warf re waged for us and for constitutional liberty. In obedience to the call of our National and State authorities, hundreds of your husbands, brothers and sons have been summoned from the comforts of home, to the exposure and rough experience of the camp. They have obeyed the call of your National and State authorities with alacrity, as affecting as it is noble. It can scarcely be expected that the sacrifices made by them will not be severely felt, if that Providence which has so signally favored them in the past should continue to shield them in the hour of battle. We are sure that every arrangement which ordinary prudence can suggest will be made by the Government for their comfort and welfare. Yet, we are equally sure a great deal should be done, and can be done by the women of our county to promote the comfort of our soldiers. We make no appeal to you to come up earnestly and unitedly to this good work.-Such an appeal would be unnecessary. Many noble hearts are now engaged in the cause. I has the approval of the President, the sanction of the Governor, and the eyes of the whole Christian world are upon you, and heaven's

GENERAL ORDER NO. 10,

HARRISBURG, PA., Oct. 22, 1861. It is with great pain that the Governor and Commander-in-Chief has learned the death of Col. Edward D. Baker upon the field of battle. Although not a citizen of Pennsylvania, he had been selected by many of her sons as their com-mander, and he met his death while gallantly eading them into action. The same feeling which inspired his soldiers to regard no state lines, when our common country is in danger, induced the Commander-in-Chief to recognize im, while living, as a Pennsylvania soldier and impels him, now that he is dead, to bear this public testimony to his gallantry and worth.
