DR. JOHNSTON.

Dr. Johnson member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, graduate from one of the mest eminent College of the United States, and the greatest part of whose life has been spent in the Rospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most asconishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervoueness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derange went of mind were cured immediately,

TARE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. andresses all those who having injured themselves by private and improper indulgancies, that score and solitary abits which ruins both body and mind, unditing them for either businesser society.

These are seeme of the sad and moiancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains is the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Paipitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Norvous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Community, Sc.

MENTALLYA

MENTALLY, signatur, the fearful effects on the mind are much to e draded :—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, De-ression of Spirits, Evil Forebotings, Aversion to Socie-t, Self-distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evil effects.

Thousands of their decline in health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, have a tingular appearance about the eyes, cough, and sympms of consumption.

our companions, or at school, the effects of which are aightly feit, even when asleep, and it not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a plty that a young man, the hopes of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and anjoyments of life by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating

Indeed without here, the journey through life becomes a weary pligrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DR. JOHNSON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR OR GANIC WEARNESS.

By this great and important remedy, Weakness of the Organs are speedily cored, and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most nervous and debilitated whe had lost all hope, have been immediately relieved. had lost all hope, have been immediately relieved. All impediments to Marriage, Physical or Mental Disqualification, Nerveys, Trembling, Weakees or Exhaustion or the most fearful kind, speedily ourod.

TO STRANGERS.

The many thousands cured at this institution within the last twolve years, and the aumerous important Surgical operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the reporters of the papers, and many other persons, notices of which have appeared spals and again before the public, besides his standing as a sendeman of character and reposition, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

My wound had entirely stopped bleeding, but my whole side was stiff and painful. With much difficulty I rose to my feet, and by the aid of two of my captors, fo such they were, managed to move along with the rest of the band, through what appeared a cleft in the mountain, pursuing a new path to that I had hitherto traversed in the company of those who had fallen, and whom I was now leaving behind me forever.

For some time we followed this road, running For some time we followed this road, running at the base of two declivities almost perpendicular, whose dizzy summits I could not scan, and whose rugged sides of gray, at intervals were shining coldly beneath some stray gleam of moonlight, that, even in that cavernous pass, found its way and smilled amid the gloom, like the good grance of a visiting angel.

Suddenly we emerged from this gloomy defile, and found ourselves in what appeared almost a level country. Here—where some tents were pitched—we halted, and I was a prisoner

There was a significance in that sound that breathed war and defiance as plainly as if it had come from the blast of a trumpet. "Up and moving, men!" came, in low tones, from the lips of the acceptant in command. "Let emistry it sagin."

Our march was resumed as before; but we step more stealthily, listened with painful attention and glared on every side with the intensity of blood-hounds. The defile took an acute turn to the right, and on the left was a naked space, extending for some yards, devoid of all verdure; but the gray moss clinging round the gray rocks.

We began, hastily, to cross this uncovered space, when there was a report of many pieces; whilst red flashes from rocks and bushes in the front gleamed savagely and suddenly upon us for a moment we were staggered.
