THE UNION-THE CONSTITUTION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAW.

HARRISBURG. PA.

Friday Afternoon, November 1, 1861.

Norwithstanding the increased duties and daily accumulating responsibilities of the Commissariat of Camp Curtin, Commissary General W. H. Irwin has so regulated his department as to give satisfaction to the soldier and maintain a just economy in the expenditure of the money of the state. We have yet to hear any man who has an acknowledged claim to the title of a soldier or gentleman, complain of the management of the Commissariat-and we honestly believe that of all the officers connected with our military organizations, General Irwin deserves a pre-eminent credit as well for his indefatigable devotion to the interests of the state as for his impartial determination to benefit and promote the comfort of the soldier. This is public sentiment in the camps and the capital of Pennsylvania.

CASES OF HIGHWAY ROBBERY and murder increase rapidly of late in the Federal Capital. Within a day or two there have been several cases of open robbery and two or three murders. The town is filling up with thieves, pickpockets gamblers, and other desperate characters, attracted there by the great influx of visitors and the constant presence of army officers at the hotels. It is estimated that there are from ten to twenty thousand additional persons now in Gen. Fremont be removed, and satisfy the Washington, not in the army, who go there to see their friends and to make money in various ways out of the soldiers congregated in lasting peace for the country, without involving the vicinity.

THE LEBANON COURIER complains that we credited an article to the Tioga Agitator, which appeared originally in the editorial columns of, the Courier. So much really able matter is printed editorially by Worth, that he must not complain if the hebdomidal press of the state occasionally use his brains. It is plagiarized for a good purpose by our cotemporaries, though we are always consciencious in giving credit to the Courier. The Agitator, hereafter, must be more just to the Courier

A HAPPY evidence of the good offices of the press to the army has just been developed in Western Virginia. The troops were badly fed and clothed. For weeks requisitions had been made in vain. The press took hold of the matter, and in two weeks' time the change was wonderful. It is said that a more pleasant, agreeable and industrious set of fellows can no where be found than the Quartermasters of Western Virginia are at this time. They are meantime, when General Fremont makes his Sometimes the snot pass innance main a contract of the pass innance main and the pass innance main a contract of the pass innance main and the pass innance main a contract of the pass innance main and the pass innance main a contract of the pass innance main and the pass innance main and the pass innance main and the pass innance main a contract of the pass innance main and comforts.

THE REBEIS have an enemy in their midst which will soon prove more formidable and tend more certainly to inaugurate terror among them than General McClellan's army or the secret naval expedition. It is the deplorable malice by charging upon such Republican countries as Bradford, a want of patriotism in furnishmore certainly to inaugurate terror among condition of their finances, and the great want ing volunteers to put down the rebellion, allow of the "sinews of war." There is a reckoning day approaching on which shinplasters will be forced to show their value

GEN. Scorr will go to New York on Saturday morning accompanied by his staff. The New York Tribune says it is understood that next week, while in that city, he will retire from Rickett. his high rank, and immediately thereafter sail for Europe with his son in-law, of his staff.

It is believed that there will be news from the fleet by way of Richmond to-morrow or Col. Christ. next day. Probably Jeff. Davis will hear from two points on the coast almost simultaneously -both between Beaufort and Cape Sable.

E. H. RAUCH has retired from the editorial control of the Mauch Chunk Gazette, for the purpose of entering the volunteer service as the captain of a company. Ned is a brave man, and will certainly distinguish himself if the opportunity is afforded.

GEN. JAMES H. LANE, of Kansas, has made a requisition upon the War Department for a corps of engineers and sappers and miners. The department, however, does not recognize his service from this county, and they are now offering to raise a regiment in addition to the authority as commander of a brigade, and refuses to honor his requisition.

PREPARATIONS for the session of Congress have already commenced. The chambers of the Senate and House of Representatives are fitting up, and everything will be in reediness before the first of December.

A Larrage from Mazatlan reports that ex-Postmaster Fowler, of New York city, is super-intending a cotton mill at Tepic, Mexico, at a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars.

The prisoners were re-manded for a new trial, for which no day has yet been appointed.

THE CHARGE AGAINST FREMONT.

The Secretary of War, occompanied by one of the highest staff officers in the United States Army, General Thomas, as is well known to the public, recently visited the Military Department of the West, under the command of General Fremont, for the purpose of inspecting the operations of the army in that quarter, as well as to investigate the facts in relation to certain charges made as to the management of the public service in that section of the country. The duty was both arduous and delicate, involving the exercise of much skill and discretion in its successful performance. In these respects our well fitted for the work, as there are few men in the country with greater administrative ability, or who possess, to a larger degree, the experience which would enable him to judge and decide, not only upon the necessity but also the economy of work such as that which is under the control of Gen. Fremont, involving large expense in money and men, and a still greater risk of credit and success. Since General Fremont has been at the head of the Western Division of the Army, he has had the exercise of an unlimited discretionary power, reposed in THE him by the President and the cabinet, because the people had confidence in his military capac ity and courage. It was alleged that he had abused this power, by arrogant assumptions and the establishment of tyranical distinctions in his command. Such allegations did not fail to arouse the brave people of the west, and from these other charges arose, until the declaration became unmistakable that General Fremont was not only guilty of an unwarranted assumption of power, but he was boldly charged with wasting the public money and using warranted by his position or the power vested in him by the President of the United States. On our first page this afternoon, we print the

of a visit to Missouri, the investigation had while inspecting the military works in that locality, with the testimony of prominent officers and respectable individuals as to the capacity of Gen. Fremont to command and control the forces and interests of the country in the Department of the West. Our readers must not fail to read this document, because it emenates from a perfectly reliable and responsible officer, and because also it establishes certain facts which will relieve the President from all censure should country that the removal was justified by a regard for the success of our struggle to conquer a all its interests in irretrievable bankruptcy, and bequeathing to posterity a load of indebtedness which it would require centuries to liquidate. The irregularity practiced by Gen. Fremont, according to the testimony of the report, goes to show the want of military forethought on his part, in directing the necessary means for putting into and maintaining in the field the force under his command; while Gen. Hunter, the second in command, expressed to the Secretary of War, his decided opinion that Gen. Fremont

We do not desire to print editorially any more decided opinion on this subject, than that which is conveyed by this report, and in the evidence it quotes of some of the most reliable and substantial men in St. Louis. General Fremont will be fortunate if he can clear himself of the odium of these charges, and so far as he is concerned, we trust that he may be able to offer such facts and arguments in extenuation of his conduct, as will relieve him of the suspiwhere be found than the Quartermasters of cion under which he now rests. We trust that more space than the report of Adjutant General Thomas. Editor of the Pennsylvania Telegraph:

For the benefit of such sheets as the Patriot and Union and other journals of like ilk, who, me to give your readers a correct list of the forces furnished by that noble old county, who have enlisted to fight for the maintenance of the government as it was transmitted to us from our fathers. Bradford has furnished men as follows, viz:

Capt. Trout's company, 5th regiment, Col. Capt. Gore's company, 6th regiment, Col

Capt. Bradbury's company, 6th regiment, Col. Rickett. Capt. Gustin's company, 12th regiment, Col Fagart.

Capt. Telford's company, 50th regiment, Col Christ.

Capt. Newman's company, Morehead's inde pendent regiment.
Capt. Calkin's cavalry company, Harlan's in ependent regiment.
Capt. Essington's cavalry company, Camp

Capt. Peck's company, Camp Curtin. Capt. Davis' company, Camp Curtin. Capt. Griffin's company, Camp Curtin. Capt. Lither's company, Camp Curtin.

To which add 100 men recruited there for the regular army. Add also, 300 men, enlisted early, in the southern tier regiments of the state of New York. Full 1700 men are now in above force, when consent can be obtained from the Governor.

THE TRIAL OF THE SAVANNAH PIRATES, at New York, has resulted in a failure of the jury to find a verdict. The jury, at the time of its discharge, stood, in relation to the accused, as follows; Eight for conviction of the whole of the prisoners; four opposed. Three of the latter favored a verdict of guilty in the cases of

REBELS WITHDRAWING.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. A new battery of rifled cannon, three in num ber, has been discovered about a mile and a half below any that have been heretotore fired on in the lower Potomac. It is situated a little below a new brick house not far from the wharf at Evansport.

A few days ago the rebels sent a small boat from Quantico creek over toward Budd's Ferry, having a flag of truce. When she had ap-proached within two or three hundred yards of the Maryland shore, a barrel with something the credit of the government to a degree not boat immediately turned and put back to the warranted by his position or the power vested Virginia shore. The barrel was supposed to contain an infernal machine

A letter received to-day from Darnestown says that the rebels now picket Harrison's Island report of Adjutant General Thomas, to the Secland that reliable intelligence from Leesburg retary of War, setting forth in detail an account gives information that on Tuesday succeeding the fight at Ball's Bluff the rebels withdrew their forces from Leesburg on our troops being thrown over at Edward's Ferry, leaving only few battallions to keep up appearances and watch our movements. They subsequently took away all their supplies and were at the latest accounts resting on Goose creek, seven miles south of Leesburg.

A foraging expedition was despached to Shroud's farm, four miles northwest from Fall's Church. A picket was here captured and sent to headquarters, and voluntarily disclosed the fact that the rebel pickets were stationed a short listance from the farm. Capt. Norton accomplished the object of his mission.

The prisoner's name is C. R. Bell, a private of company C, Sixth Regiment Louisiana volunteers, commanded by Colonel Seymour, editor of the New Orleans Commercial Bulletin. The regiment is a portion of Gen. Mather's Louis-Around Centreville, he states iana Brigade. that there is a continuous range of rebel camps, including sixty thousand Virginians under Gustavus W. Smith, and an equal number of North Carolinians and Louisianians. Some fifteen thousand troops are at Manasses. Beauregard's head-quarters was but half a mile from Centre ville.

A new regiment of cavalry from North Caro lina, had arrived, and was well equipped.— Stewart's Cavalry was to the left of Centreville, Rodeford's to the right. Latham and Kemer's Artillery were under Smith's command. The rebels are confident one thousand men could ment came to frunct s mans. west, in Virginia, to do picket duty there, re-lieving a Virginia regiment. The retreat from Fairfax by the rebels was caused by a belief that the "Yankees" were coming upon them. His statement is not much credited.

It is reported that two schooners, laden with hay and other Government stores, were captured by the rebels yesterday. They attempted to run the blockade. A gentleman, who came up from Port Tobacco this morning, reports that the rebels occasionally fire at the men who are working on the fortifications now being thrown up by General Sickles and General Hooker. Sometimes the shot pass inland half a mile. defence, we will also print it in full for their the Maryland shore is entirely cut off. It appears that the rebels are strengthening their old batteries and erecting new ones all along the Virginia shore. The large body of rebels who were encamped in the vicinity of Fairfax, it is thought, have been sent down to strengthen these batteries. They, no doubt, are in dread of an attack by land and water.

A reconnoisance was made yesterday by Gen. Sickles and staff, accompanied by a squad of Indiana cavalry, along the shore of the Potomac, about forty miles below Washington, when they were fired at by a battery on the Virginia shore. One of the shots fell short, and another passed over them.

To-day the pickets of General Wadsworth captured a private of a South Carolina regiment bout three miles from Falls Church. There seems to be no doubt that the rebels have a large number of flat-boats at Occoquan creek, manufactured at Fredericksburg, and designed for crossing the Potomac. Accounts received from along the line of the Potomac, from Lewinsville to Alexandria, repesent everything quiet. Reconnoissances were made yesterday afternoon, which prove very conclusively that the rebel forces are being withdrawn to Centreville and the vicinity of

ADJUTANT GENERAL THOMAS' REPORT IN THE FREMONT CASE.

Manassas Junction.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1. E. M. Davis, Assistant Quartermaster under Fremont, writes a letter to Adjutant General Thomas, under date Philadelphia yesterday, correcting some errors in reference to himself, correcting some errors in reference to himself published in the latter's report to Gen. Cameron He says Fremunt did not give him any con-tract for blankets or anything else. He pur-chased blankets in his official capacity and denies they were condemned as rotten and worth-less. When the report of the Board reached Fremont he expressed great displeasure and required the blankets to be returned.—

The only fault that could be found with his The only fault that could be found with his purchase was the economy practiced in making it—the average price being one dollar and forty cents for each blanket. A REBEL CAMP BROKEN UP. Rumored Defeat of Price's Rear Guard and Capture of Gen. Rains.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 31. The compromise entered into by Gen. Henderson with the rebels in Galloway county did not include the band of roubers that nlundered James S. Ballin's premises, a few days since That band will be summarily dealt with. Other measures besides the compromise have been taken by Gen. Prentiss to preserve quiet in these turbulent counties. A detachment of Colonel Boomer's regiment inder Captain Cook, the day before yesterday broke up a small camp of rebels at Coats Prairie, capturing a lot of arms and their camp guipage. Sr. Louis, Oct. 31.—Intelligence has reached here that General Sigel has attacked and defeated Gen. Price's rear guard, at Bolivar, and taken General Rains prisoner. This, however, can only be true in part, as General Sigel was in Springfield on Mouday last. If a fight has taken place, at or near Bolivar, it must have been with some of the force belonging to Gen. Asboth's division.

General Prentiss has gone out on another secret expedition.

LANE'S STYLE.—A startling specimen of the obnoxious doings of "Jim Lane" is furnished in our dispatches from Tipton. After using the contents of two rebel stores to relieve some Union families, whom the secessionists had obbed, Gen. Jim called the citizens of Pleasant Hill together, beneath the glorious Union flag, and entertained them with a live American speech. Pointing to the ensign he had raised, he said to them; "That flag has been your protection, and shall be still. So long as it remains here you are safe; but if it is cut down by the Eternal I will return and burn you He then retired, with all his men. The affaired occurred about two weeks ago, and although the denizens of Pleasant Hill are said to be about all secessionists, that flag is still wavin over the town.—St. Louis Democrat, Oct. 29.

THE CONFEDERATE ARMY FALLING BACK. Scouting parties from Gen. Keye's and Gen. Wadsworth's brigades have ascertained that ring without leaving even a guard to protect Talifax Court House. It is believed the enemy are even retiring from Centreville. Scouting parties think that the enemy will not rick an engagement on the open plains of Centreville. and that they will, if they have not already done so, retire behind their entrenchments at Manassas Junction, where they have the railway to aid in bringing up reinforcements in case of an attack, and strong entrenchments to defend themselves. The track of the Orange and Alex andria Railroad has been torn up by the rebels from Fairfax Station to Manassas. This is their own announcement at Richmond.

The Wheeling papers furnish some particulars of General Kelley's achievement at Romney, Virginia. It appears that the Federal forces proceeded against the town in two detachments, and as the Confederates were driven out, a force under Col. Johns, of the Second Regiment Potomac Home Brigade, created a diversion in their rear. The result was that Col. Kelley captured between four and five hundred prisoners, including a Colonel, three cannon, a quantity of arms, and all the camp equipage and provisions. Gen. Kelley still oc-cupies Romney with a force of 2,500 men.
