HARRISBURG, PA.

Monday Morning, November 4, 1861,

()1'B GERMAN FRIENDS of the Eintracht Singing Association will give their first social soirce of the season, at Koenig's building, Chestnut street, this (Monday) evening.

POLICE - Before the Mayor .- Geo. Kramer -delapidated looking "tramper"—was arraigned for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and recommitted to the lock-up.

Chas. Dressner—a little negro barber, hailing from Lancaster—was up for "lying around loose," his last habitation being an old railroad car. Recommitted to the lock-up.

Geo. M. Cramner and S. R. Mole—two strangers from the north-western part of the Statewere arraigned for passing a spurious half dollar at the store of Mr. Heilman in payment for a bottle of liquor. Committed to prison to Blatchford was arraigned charged with the largery of a two dollar note on the Bank of Middletown, from L. S. Erskine, on the oath of Henry Gillert. Committed for further hearing.

THE FISH MARKET .- There was a fine display wish at the market on Saturday-embracing alm st every edible variety from the tiny sunfish to the ponderous sturgeon and halibut The blue fish, however, seemed to be the most numerous, and were in great demand. These delicate fish are said to be unusually plenty this year, in Delaware Bay and along the neighbor ing coast. They are caught by trolling from sail boats with a very stout line, the lure being an artificial bait of bright metal or bone, which they eagerly snap at and are hooked as it passes swiftly through the water. Sometimes as many as half a dozen persons fish from the same boat, and striking a school of them, will catch in a very short time from fifty to a hundred fish. It is a healthful and most exhilarating sport; we know of nothing more exciting or enjoyable than to be in the midst of a school of these finny gluttons, with a good boat under us dashing over the waves at a spanking rate, the spray dashing in our face and feeling every minout the electric jerk of a "rousing bite." Blue the electric jerk of a "rousing bite." Blue the lectric jerk of a "rousing bite." Blue dozen or so of the wires and rolls them between his thumb and fingers, with their ends on the this epicurean luxury. "An' you love us," of the Adversary.

With gun in hand and bayonet fixed he paces to and fro. "Who goes there?" "A friend." The word, all fear threatened to the citizens of any other city in the state. For six months Harrisburg has been filled with changing bands of soldiers, varying from five to ten thousand men, and at one periods a large portion of this force was threatened.

Whistling wind howled its marches on the soldiers dreary midnight beat, and ever and anon his watchful fancy seemed to hear the distant footfall of the lurking foe. With gun in hand and bayonet fixed he paces to and fro. "Who goes there?" "A friend." The word, all fear dispelled, he thinks of home, mother, father, sister, his dear Kate, and perhaps the many winter comforts in dry goods that is always to be had at the cheap store corner of Front and Market streets of Urich & Bowman.

We make these suggestions for the benefit of the people of Harrisburg and the property of the commonwealth, in which we have a common interest with the people of the entire State If the subject is properly agitated by the citizens of the state capital, we believe the object could be attained. Who will suggest the matter, personally, to Gov. Curtin? If he is appealed to, and the matter elucidated for his understanding, we have no doubt but what he would give it his serious attention, as he has ever been a friend of the state capital.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due.—
My age is about 50 years; the color of my bair auburn, and tool red to curl. Some five or six years since it began to thin gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to to red it agreeability and dandruff to form con it. Each of chast of agreeability increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair failing off the top of my head and threatening to make me hald.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, i strongly recommend all husbands who value the d miration of their wive s to ground by imy example, and use thi growing gray or getting bald.

Very respectfully, BEN. A. LAVENDER.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortme to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligation to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

me bald.

In this unjoi any needs and an exacting to make me bald.

In this unjoi as the predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that graphair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray bairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruft ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wile, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I one to here say.

To Prov. O. J. Wood: Bear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the FUBLIO its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or wo man may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair-Restorative," the hair will return more benefitly than ever; at less thus is my experience.—

Believe it all! Yours truly,
