PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12. A special meeting of the stockholders of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was called for 10 o'clock this morning, at Samsom Street Hall, to consider the contract and the lease of the Philadelphia (late Sunbury) and Eric Railroad. The attendance at the hour specified was fair, though not so large as usual at the regular meeting.

After a lengthy debate a vote was taken and the meeting adjourned till to morrow to hear the report of the tellers, it being ordered that the polls be kept open at the office of the company in the meantime to receive the votes of
