to Hummels SACRILEGE .--- Last Friday some rascal threw ARREST OF DESERTING — High hand Proceedings of a city Policeman.—A short time ago a lieutenant of one of the Pennsylvania Volunteer compan-ies stationed with the army on the Potomac, arrived in this city in search of two deserters named John Walls and Edward Cronister. Af ter a conference with the police authorities, he secured the services of officer Campbell, and went to Mechaniceburg, Cumberland county, where they succeeded in the TELEGRAPH a uotice of which appeared in the TELEGRAPH at the time. Walls was brought to this city and confined in the Lock-up. The lieutenant ABBEST OF DESERTERS-High hand Proceeding a stone into one of the windows of the Old School Presbyterian church fronting on Third street, and broke two or three panes of the costly, stained glass of that establishment. New glass was put in on Saturday by Mr. Cruickshank, and yesterday one of these was discovered to be shattered, which leads to the belief that the act was dore maliciously. We understand that the Trustees are about offering a reward for the discovery of the perpetrators. AN EFFECTUAL CURE FOR THE EAR ACHE .-Take a small piece of cotton batting, cotton then proceeded to Danville, leaving word with wool, make a depression in the centre with the officer Campbell, that he would return to this end of the finger, and fill it with as much ground city, either on the following Saturday or Sunpepper as will rest on a five cent piece, gather day night, and take the deserters on to Wash ington. The next day officer Campbell succeed ed in arresting the other deserter. Cronster and placed him also in the lock-up to await the return of his commanding officer. Thus matters stood until last night, when the lieutenant so gentle that an infant will not be injured by returned from Danville, and after paying officer Campbell for his services, and the expense of keeping the deserters in the lock-up, he was met "CANVASS BACKS."-These delicious species of the wild duck are said to be unusually plenty by officer Rad baugh, in full regimentals, who refused to deliver over the prisoners until he received the sum of twenty-five dollars!. This the lieutenant, of course, refused to pay, by sportsmen who flock thither from all sections of the country. Our townsman, Mr. asserting that he had already settled for the capture of the deserters, and the expense of Samuel Knox, is the owner of a "shooting box" keeping them in the lock-up, and would pay no in that region, and has just returned home with more. The Chief replied that he would take the deserters to Washington himself, and left with the view of making his arrangements to go to that city in the train leaving at 8.20 o'clock yesterday morning. The light taken with the view of the light taken with the view of making his arrangements to go to that city in the train leaving at 8.20 o'clock a bountiful supply of the acquatic game, a large portion of which he has distributed among his personal friends, including, of course, "ye yesterday morning. The lieutenant, with officer Campbell, then repaired to the residence of the Mayor, whom they aroused from his slumbers PROPOSALS FOR BEEF CATTLE .- The proposals and made acquainted with the position of affairs, for supplying the Government with beef cattle when his honor at once wrote a note directing on the hoof were opened at Washington

This was taken to officer Radabaugh, who still, however, persisted in his refusal to surrender the prisoners, who by this time he had hand-cuffed, and was about proceeding with them to the depot to await the departure of the train. The lieutesant with officer Campbell again repaired to the Mayor's residence, when his honor becoming acquainted with the and only three bidders were below $4 00. The refusal of his chief officer to recognize his order, at once dressed himself and proceeded with the officers to a restaurant near the depot where they found Radabaugh with the two deserters hand-cuffed, awaiting the departure of the train to Washington. The Mayor at once confronted Radabaugh and demanded to know why he had disregarded his order. The crest-fallen chief made some incoherent reply, but was quickly interrupted by an order from the Mayor to "Maltese." The deserters were then placed in

GIVEN THE MITTEN .--- Our cotemporary of the Lancaster Express says that this is certainly a very delicate matter, yet as ordinary rules are modified by the exigencies of war, ladies need have no computction now in "giving the mitten," and a pair of them at that. This cold morning with its biting air, reminds us of our duty, and obliged with hands stiff with cold. to carry their iron weapon through all the long hours of night. The gift of a pair of good warm mittens would be a generous present to of the harvest. our faithful soldiers A regular army officer suggests that woolen mittens are best, and should be knit with one finger, so as to allow the separate use of the forefinger and thumb. The Crimean war is said to have shown a great amount of suffering from frost bitten fingers The yarn should be of the best kind of wool. Half a million pairs of mittens are wanted. What family fireside circle in city or country will delay in contributing a quota for this humane and patriotic purpose ?

THE HISTORY OF HALL COLUMBIA. -- In the sumof 1798, a young man connected with the theatre at Philadelphia as a singer, was about to receive a benefit on a certain Monday evening. On the Saturday afternoon previous he called on Joseph Hopkins, a rising young lawyer, twenty-eight years of age, with whom he had gone to school when both were boys. The actor said he had but twenty boxes taken, and his "benefit" would be a loss unless he could get a satisfied that no words could be made to suit tempt. At that time there was a great discusparty spirit ran very high. Hopkins endeavd both belligerents, and look and feel excluthely for American honor and rights. He wrote Bail Columbia. It was announced on Monday noming, and the theatre was crowded to excess, and so continued during the season, the song bing encored and repeated many times each alght, the audience joining in the chorus. The constant growth of forests, even upon poor land, is doubtless owing to the annual deposit of leaves upon the surface of the earth. These, having drawn fertilizing matter from the subsoil through the roots, deposit on the surface, where it is available. Every one has noticed the rank growth of grass where leaves have been burned or permitted to decay. They are valuable to the farmer as bedding before they go into the compost heap. Nothing soldiers, who perhaps were last night on picket is better for the sty or stable than a good leaf bed. The time of rustling leaves has come in the garden, upon the lawn, in the orchard, and in the forest. Let them be gathered as the last
