HOLIDAY GIFTS .- Fine perfumery in Bohemian cut glass bottles, just the very thing for holiday gifts, can be had at Banvart's Drug Store, Jones' Row.

To ARMY OFFICERS - Blank pay rolls and fur loughs handsomely printed according to the army regulations, on fine white and durable paper, are for sale at this office.

THE CONNECTION MADE.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have laid the track connect ing their road with the West Chester & Media Road. The residents in the vicinity of the connection were startled one morning at the smashing up of the roof of the Media depot, at West Philadelphia, the eaves of the building extending so far out as not to permit the passage of the large cars of the Central road.

RETURNED.—Quartermaster General Hale, who has for some time been lying very ill at his res idence in Germantown, from the effects of wounds received by the falling of his horse, while participating in the ceremonies of pre senting a flag to Colonel McCarter's regiment at Lebanon, has returned to this city, having recovered sufficiently to enable him to resume the transaction of business at his office.

MAN KILLED .- On Wednesday last, the Mail Train east, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, when descending the mountain, near Bennington Fcrnace, struck a man dressed in soldier clothes. knocking him over the embankment, and injuring him so severely that he died on Friday last. On his person was found a memorandum book with the name of G. M. Kindley, and also two rough sketches of a letter that he had writ ten or was about to write to his mother.

Another Counterfeit .- The following is a description of a new and very dangerous counterfeit Ten Dollar Note, on the Waterbury Bank, Conn :- "10's-vignette-female seated between 1 and 0, in one hand a key, the other horn of plenty; right end, female hand or capstan, 10 above; left end, female with scales. 10 above." This is splendidly done, and has deceived some of the best judges of paper

MUST BE IN ERROR.—The Lancaster Expres says that travelers would do well to remember that as the Penns, Ivania Railroad start no trains out on Sunday from Pittsburg or Philadelphia, no fast line east passes through that city on Monday morning. There must be some mistake in the record of the Express, as we have no intimation here, that the "Through Express," leaving Pittsburg at 4.40 p. m., will be discontinued on Sundays.

THE STATE EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION met in morning. There is quite a large number of delegates present, who seem to manifest much interest in the matter upon which they have been called to deliberate and take action. The Convention will remain in session for four days, and a full and accurate report of its proceedings will appear daily in the morning and evening editions of the Terrograph

The editor of the Huntingdon Globe came well nigh "pegging out" on reading the news from Beaufort and Pikeville, and only saved his bacon by letting off the following superfluities. Sound the Tonjon! Blow the Hewgag! Agitate the Viol! Stir the Organ! Pulsate the Cymbal! Execute the Psaltery! Blow the Trumpet! Wield the Tabret! Disturb the Timbrel! Flourish the Shemeneth! Flicker on the Squawker! Wriggle the Horse Fiddle! Jostle the Bell! Perturbate the Tin Instruments! Let the Cannon Thunder! And the People Shout! Glory Hallelujah!

THE DESTITUTE.—Undoubtedly there are cases of destitution, even in this city, where all can have work who will work. Those who will not work ought to suffer. But there are families dependent entirely upon female labor for support, and we all know that females who have small children to take care of cannot earn much for their support. These are the cases that should be looked after. We would say to all:

For a moment, brother, listen, To the moan that cometh up From the thin lips of the destitute, Who drink life's anguish cup; There are brows as pale as ashes, There are hearts as cold as snow, Coursing on life's dusky highway Look, and you will find it so!

THE APPROACHING THANKSGIVING .- Religious Observance of the Day .- In all the churches last Sabbath, service was announced for Thursday next, (Thanksgiving,) in accordance with the proclamation of Gov. Curtin. Special service has been enjoined in the Catholic churches and the Right Rev. Alonzo Potter, Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, has issued an address to the clergy and congregations of the Diocese, in reference to the proper observance of the day. The Bishop, in his address, says that the church provides a special service for such occasions, and the feeling of every pious heart will prompt to its observance. Though involved in a sanguinary civil conflict, its worst horrors and calamities have been kept from our own borders. We have been spared the ravages of pestilential disease. Our barns are filled with plenty; we have to thank the Giver of every good and perfect gift, that within the bounds of this Commonwealth we live in unity and concord, and that our people, in order to maintain unimpaired the Union bequeathed to us by our fathers, are ready for every sacrifice. Let us, then, assemble in our respective places of worship, in obedience to this call of the civil and ecclesiastical authority, and offer up united prayers and praises to the Sovereign Dispenser of all our blessings. The address concludes with an earnest appeal in behalf of the poor. As collections will be taken up in most of our churches on that day, for the relief of the needy, those who have prospered through the year, cannot observe the occasion properly without "taking a thank-offering with them."

A LARGE and beautiful variety of soaps-suitable for holiday gifts—can be had at Banvart's Drug Store, Jones' Row.

A REGULAR STATED meeting of Washington Lodge, No. 1, I. O. of Good Templars, will be held at their hall in Second street, at 7½ o'clock, Brant's Hall .- Sanford continues to draw a wants of the pleasure-seekers and a lavish expenditure in the efforts to supply them. People will flock to the support of the liberal and enterprising in matters of amusement as in ordipary business affairs. The skillful vocalism, burlesque spectacles, and negro eccentricities, performed by his troupe will continue to attract crowds in spite of the war excitement. Sanford ana, Mr. John of Clearfield.

MILITARY MATTERS.—The Lochiel Cavalry, a few minutes reported that a list of the officers had been framed, with the exception of secre-M. yesterday for Kentucky. Col. Wynkoop's Cavalty regiment will leave Camp Cameron, for Fort Seward, S. C., next Friday or Saturday. Col. Coulter's—the famous "Eleventh"—will perhaps move Dixieward to-morrow. The regiments of Col's. Wilson, Maxwell, Meredith and Campbell will remain at Camp Curtin until each are filled up to the maximum standard. At present the four regiments have altogether about twenty-five hundred men.

THE QUATREBMASTER GENERAL, of Pennsylvania, acknowledges the receipt of the following dorations for the volunteers at Camp Curtin: From Mrs. Barton H. Jenks, Bridesburg, 12 pairs woolen socks. From persons unknown, by the hands of Samuel D. Young, Esq., flar risburg, 8 pairs woolen socks. From Lock's Mills, Mifflin county, Mrs. E. E. Locke, 2 pairs woolen socks; Mrs. M. B. Mitchell, 1 pair woolen socks; Mrs. M. B. Mitchell, 1 pair [The interests represented in the woolen socks, and Miss H. V. Locke, 1 pair woolen socks. From P. B. Kersey, Bridgeport, Montgamery county, 4 pairs woolen socks.— From Miss Boas, Harrisburg, 5 pairs woolen Police. - Mayor's Office. - J. H. M'Entyre-a traveling vender of pills warranted to cure all 'the ills that flesh is heir to," was arraigned, charged with blocking up the sideway at the lower market house. Fined $1.

Wm. Lywellan, Joseph Peeler and Wm. Thonas—three soldiers—were up for drunkenness and disorderly conduct at Liebtrue's restaurant, corner of Pine and Second streets. Peeler and Thomas were sent to prison, and Lywellan was

John and Mary O'Donnell and James Nevics, vere up for vagrancy, and discharged with an injunction to leave the city forthwith.

Two or three soldiers whose names we could not learn, were committed for drunkenness by Alderman Kline yesterday.

THE OIL BUSINESS .- Last spring the oil well mania reached its climax in every section of this country, and hundreds of thousands of dollars were invested in "oil sites" and machinery for boing and pumping. Fortunes were made in the State Senate Chamber at nine o'clock this prospective, and every lucky strike was heralded throughout the north. All this has changed, died out completely. One of our exchanges from the Mecca district says:

"The oil fever has about died out in this section. Persons who dreamed of greasy fortunes in the spring have learned that gold may be so heavily lubricated as to slip away. Many who expended considerable money have abandoned their wells entirely, while some have for the operations and are waiting present suspended for something to turn up. The small fry-wells on Oil creek are stopped, because a well that numbs twenty-five or one hundred barrels a day annot compete with one that rates eight hundred or a thousand."

From Western Virginia we hear no longer the out a fortune for their lucky owners at the rate of a thousand barrels per diem. The fortunes of war have sadly interfered with the operation of the wells in that district, and instead of wagons filled with oil plying to and from on the mar-vellously muddy roads of the Kanawha, there is nothing to be seen but the regularly passing army trains. It will be an interesting theme for future historians of this section to compute the amount of money which has been literally "sunk" in boring "dry wells," though the subject will be a decidedly unpleasant one for the victims, for years to come

A COMPLETE assortment of toilette articlesvery appropriate for holiday gifts—can be had at Banvart's Drug Store, Jones' Row.

EDITOR OF THE TELEGRAPH :- In the Patriol and Union of Monday morning, November 25th, the Editor of that paper published a most out rageous libel against me as a man as well as the Steward of the Dauphin County Poor House The article is headed:

A Shocking Case of Inhumanity. Under this head they proceed to charge me with conduct, which if true, would not only unfit me for the position I hold, but would disgrace me in the estimation of all civilized men. I can only say now, that the whole of said to see the error of their course. Hear us, and charge is false from begining to end, as I shall accept our thoughts, and we will give all praise be able to show in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Dauphin county, at the next term. The woman in question left without cause and without notice to me or any other person about the house, and that too, after the kindest treatment on my part that the circumstances of the case would possibly admit of. As the Steward of the Dauphin County Poor House, I have tried to do my duty to the County as well as the poor under my charge, and if I have in any way violated the laws of God or humanity, which would necessarily also embrace the laws of the land, I am willing that the Editors of the Patriot and Union or any other persons who feel arrieved thereby, shall enforce them against me. But to allow them to continue the attack indicated. I was pleased to hear the manithey have for some time followed up in their columns against me, without seeking that shelter which the laws of the land afford to all innocent men, would be doing great injustice to myself and family as well as to the Directors of the Poor under whom I hold my position as Steward.

STATE EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION.

FIRST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS MORNING SESSION HARRISBURG, Nov. 27, 1861 The Educational Convention, comprising a large number of School Superintendents, teachers and others interested in the cause of educa tion throughout the State, assembled this morning in the Senate Chamber, in the Capitol. There were present representatives of all the arge and increasing patronage at Brant's Hall. common school and collegiate interests through-This result is due to a proper consultation of the out the Commonwealth, quite a respectable number of whom were from Philadelphia and vicinity.

The Covention was called to order at nine o'clock, A. M., by the State Superintendent of Common Schools, Thomas H. Burrowes.

On motion of Mr. BINGS, of Delaware, committee on organization was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Bings, of Delaware, Dr. Kennedy, of Philadelphia. Mr. Bowlman, of Indi-Mr. Johns, of Tioga, and Mr. Broomall,

The Committee retired, and after the lapse of taries, in the following order:

President—Thos. H. Burrowes.

Vice Presidents—Prof. Walker, of Luzerne co.; S. S. Overholt, of Bucks county; H. L. Diffen-pach, of Clinton county; Mr. — Morrison, of Luzerne county.

Secretaries—C. R. Coburn, of Bradford; W.

R. Ford. of Indiana. Treasurer-David Heckendom, of Union. On motion, Mr. Coburn was excused from serving as a Vice President, and Mr. Johns, of lioga, was substituted in his stead. After some discussion relative to a representation of the different interests of the convention in the organization of that body,

Mr. SMITH. of Indiana, moved that the report of the Committee be adopted for the sesions of the present day.

Mr. ERMENTROUT, of Berks, submitted an mendment referring the report back to the committee with instructions to report a list of officers for the day, to be taken from among

[The interests represented in the convention and which were recognized in the organization, were the high, common school, normal school and outside interests. The academies and colleges were not represented; and as a feeling of jealousy is known to exist among educational interests generally, the body was required to exercise considerable caution in their choice of selection.]

The amendment of Mr. ERMENTROUT, of Berks county, was not agreed to; when the motion of Mr. Smrr, of Indiana, was adopted.

Some further revision of the list of officers vas then made, resulting in the choice of the following: President-THOMAS L. BURROWES. Vice President-Mr. - MORRISON, of Law-

General Secretary-H. C. Johns, of Tioga. Division Secretary—N. SMITH, of Mifflin. Treasurer—David HECKENDOM, of Union. The above were elected officers for the full session (four days) of the Convention, with the reservation that they might be superseded at the end of each day's sessions.

The Convention was then addressed by the Chairman, Mr. T. L. Burrowes.

At the request of the President, the following ayer was then delivered :

PRAYER BY REV. MR. CRUKSHANKS, OF MONT-GOMERY.

care of us, and of our accountability to Thee. We would come here Father, asking that for ed throughout the north. All this has changed, Jesus Christ's sake Thou wouldst pardon all our and in nearly every section the "fever" has our sins, renovate our hearts and it us for holding communion with Thyself. We desire to bless Thee Heavenly Father, that Thou hast endowed us with minds whose faculties may be improved. Thou hast not made us like beasts of the field with blunt instincts, but Thou hast endowed us with immortal minds, whose faculties may be improved. Help us our Father to be true to ourselves, and to embrace these op-portunities of improvement. May we be true to Thee, and thus endeavor to qualify ourselves tor doing so; and we would bless Thee, Heavenly Father, that we have these privileges We have assembled to advance the cause of improvement in mind and heart, and we invoke Thy blessing. Guide us in our deliberations, that we may advance the cause in whose interest we have assembled. We pray that Thou wouldst bless the officers and members, and all who are engaged in this work. We pray that the cause of education may go hand in hand with the cause of Christ. We desire that it may be baptized from the bapism on High. We desire that those who have had charge of our educational affairs may fee the responsibility of their positions—that they may know that they are dealing with immortal minds, and not with inert matter. May the teachers who are to come in direct contact with youthful minds, feel that they are read by their oupils; and may they so act from day to day hat their influence may be salutary upon all under their charge.

We pray that the day may come when education may take its appropriate place before the world. We pray that Thou mayst bless the cause of education; and that Thou wouldst speedily adjust the difficulties against which we now contend. We pray that Thou wilt bless the officers of the nation—the President, and his counsellors, and all others in authority. May they act wisely—may they be enabled to act in such a way that Thou mayst be plea to own and bless their efforts to save our nation from anarchy. We desire that rebellion and all its consequences may be speedily banished from our laud. We pray, Father, that Thou wilt teach those who are struggling against us to see the error of their course. Hear us, and to the spirit, both Father and Son, forever more-AmenMr. BURROWES, on taking his seat made the following remarks:

Gentlemen:—According to usage, my first duty is to return my thanks for the undeserved honor you have conferred in calling me to pre side over your meeting. I am not accustomed to the duties of this position, but I hope, with your kind forbearance, to discharge its duties to your satisfaction. The present occasion is one of unutterable importance to the present and future educational interests of Pennsylvania. In festation of that feeling in the form it took.

I believe that when we come to look the matter plainly in the face, it will be found to have no foundation in justice. The interests of all our schools are identical, and the fact that we have been operating under different organizations heretotore has been the result of the circumstances which have surrounded us.
I think it will be found that there is no difference among us. The object of this meeting then is to ascertain whether this is true. What we want here is counsel and advice from each other. No preparation has been made for this meeting, either of programme or resolutions — The mode provided by the state for the establishment of the teachers profession by the agen-

special object of the day's work. And I desire HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC to have an opportunity, sometime to-day, to HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, make known to you certain suggestions in remake known to you certain suggestions in regard to the performance of official duties. I desire to obtain your opinion as to the expediency of certain amendments in the school law, which were proposed last year. With this exception, there has been no plan prepared for our deliberations. I never expected that this meeting should be a large one. The time is not such as to permit of a large and enthusiastic meeting, but for that very reason, I came to the conclusion that this meet not applied that the meeting is not that the mean that the meeting is not that the mean that the meeting is not the Medicine at once.

THE GREAT DIURETIC HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC HELMBOLD'S EXT which were proposed last year. WILL LIES Ex-ception, there has been no plan prepared for our deliberations. I never expected that this meet-ing should be a large one. The time is not such as to permit of a large and enthusiastic meeting, sion that this was probably the right time to invite a meeting.

Mr. B. concluded as follows: If there is anything wrong in our mode of proceeding-if we have entrenched upon the privileges or interfered with the rights of our brethren in the cause, now is the time to let it be known. Let the limits and the appropriate sphere of each department of education be known; and, hereafter, we will have that harmony and concord of action which will, in my humble opinion, be the dawn of a new era upon the schools of all classes in our State.

After the conclusion of the Presiden't remarks, a committee on Business was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Otterman, of Sn. der, Coburn, of Bradford, Ermentrout, of Berks, Sav age, of Eric, and Jack of Westmoreland. The committee reported a list of subjects for the consideration of convention, during the sessions of to-day. The subjects are:

1. Standard of qualification of teachers as represented in certificates; and the means of rendering it uniform throughout the State. 2. School visitation by Superintendent; its main object, and the mode of performing it.
3. The relation of the County Superintendent;

dent to institutes—district and county. 4. The grading of schools, and the duty of County Superintendents in promoting it. The report was adopted. On motion, members of the body were limited to ten minutes, for the expression of their opinions, and no member was allowed to speak more than twice on the same subject. The hours of meeting and adjournment for the Convention were fixed at 9 and 12 a.m., 2 and 5 p. m., 61 and 9 p. m.

The Convention re-assembled at two o'clock. The first hour of this afternoon session was devoted to hearing the remarks of the State Superintendent.

THANKSGIVING DAY .- Seed time and harvest is passed, the crops are all gathered, and in our abundance it is fitting that we should give thanks to a kind Providence, who has cared for us, and extended so many favors to our special localty, while other portions of our great country are convulsed with deadly conflict, and starvation with its giant strides has visited many families, that heretofore "dined sumptuously every day." lishment of the teachers profession by the agenty of county superintendents, has lately become a failure. It become necessary to establish some uniformity of standard in the examination of teachers throughout the State, and it was a disappointment to me not to be able to consult with the County Superintendents in May last. I was compelled to act from my own judgment and set forth a standard of qualifications which has been adopted to some extent. I want now to consult with you on this subject. This is the
