thus differing from most other State Norma schools where the tuition was given by the State. The tuition amounted to some sever thousand dollars a year, which is sufficient to pay the faculty a liberal salary. One advan-tage in this arrangement is that the faculty boards in the institution, which economises th matter more than if they had separate build ings. Up to this time the income pays the expenses, and is gradually paying off the deb against the institution.

Mr. MIFFLIN, of Cumberland county thought that apart from the expediency of Su-periutendents interfering in the matter, the time had not come for this measure at least i his county. The connection of his predesessor with the Normal School had been the death of the Institution, not on account of his incompe tency but from his position.
