TO STRANGERS.

The many thousauds ourcel at this institution within the last twolve years, and the numerous important Surgica operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the reporters of the papers, and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a sentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afficient.

DINEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.—When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery detershim from applying to those who, from advanton and respectability can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horst disease make their appearance, affecting the bead, throat, nose, skin, do, progressing on with frightful rapidity, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to "that bourne from whonce so traveler returns." It is a melanoboly fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly posson, mercury, ruis the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.

Caucus of Republican Members of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. Lieut. Col. Reynolds has been appointed resident agent at Port Royal, under the general regulations relative to securing and disposing of the property found or brought within the territory now or hereafter occupied by the United States forces in the disloyal states. He has been ordered to report to the Secretary of the Treasury. A bill will soon be introduced in Congress authorizing the organization of a steam fire brigade. As a large amount of Government property has recently been destroyed for want of some such organization, there can scarcely be a doubt of the passage of the measure.

There are forty-five persons from Maryland and Virginia in the county jail, arrested by constables on the presumption that they are fugitive slaves.

A difficulty exists in the way of their immediate discharge, from the fact that it cannot yet be ascertained whether they are all contrabands, and as loyal citizens have the right to claim a surrender of their property.

There is to be a caucus of Republican members of Congress to-morrow night, to decide on a line of policy to be pursued during the session. The object is to secure harmony in the support of the Government in the war against the Sterling exchange has been taken freely, at 1.25@1.26. We are not aware of any prospective improvement in Commerce to warrant these figures, which are much higher than in the bankruptcy of 1837 and 1840. It is bruited about that some parties are placing all their money in Europe, for fear, perhaps, that the highway robbers of the world may pene-

A DEFALCATION IN AN EASTERN BANK.

PORTLAND, Dec. 6. A defalcation is reported in the Sagadahock Bank, and the bills have been thrown out by our banks. Brownlow's Victory.

The Fighting Parson of East Tennessee has struck a severe blow at the rebels. Without waiting for the advance of a federal army, led by a duly commissioned federal General, he has won an important victory. We have only brief accounts of the battle from the rebel newspapers of Memphis, but they say their forces were completely routed. Their loss, in killed and wounded is also acknowledged to be very large. The place where this battle occurred is Morristown, Jefferson county, a village and station on the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad, forty-two miles northeast of Knoxville. At the Arrival of 60,000 Stand of Arms time of the first uprising of the Union men in that region, about a month ago, they burned the railroad bridge at Strawberry Plains, which is nearly mid-way between Morristown and Knoxville. They also burned a bridge over Lick Creeck, in Greene county, which is northeast of Morristown. In this space the Union men have been able to rally their forces, the rabely being out of from reinforcements, both rebels being cut off from reinforcements both in the direction of Knoxville and that of Southwestern Virginia. The Union men have been "improving the time." Lately the rebel parameter of Tongersee have been wondering where pers of Tennessee have been wondering where Brownlow was. Doubtless, he was somewhere near Morristown, and he suddenly let them A Thousand "Contrabands" at Work on know exactly where he was last Sunday, by attacking them with a force which their terror exaggerates to three thousand, and completely routing them. Probably he had not more than half that number. This brilliant success, in a quarter where it was not expected, is most encouraging. It leads to the belief that the Union men of East Tennessee can hold their own until General Buell's great army is ready to march into the State.— But there should be an energetic effort to hasten reinforcements to Parson Brownlow. The rebels ninth New York regiment made a reconnois-are gathering a strong force at Knoxville, with sance towards Charleston capturing three bat-Major Gen. Crittenden at their head. If Brownlow had five thousand troops sent to him, he could effectively oppose any force Crittenden is likely to bring against him. Let him have the men, and let him also have a Brigadier General's commission. He has fairly won it, and is much more deserving of it than some of the other civilians that have been thus honored. With Brigadier General Brownlow on our side in East Tennessee, and Major General Polk on the other side in the west, the church militant will be Nearly two-thirds of the army are Americans. Mine-teenth are citizens. The average age of the privates is over 24 years. Three-fourths are single men.

Five men in a huttered are without blankets, most probably having worn theirs out. A quarter of the blankets are of poor quality. The men are generally well provided; if not, it is the consequence of ther own carelessness, or the gross negligence of officers. The men are almost universally satisfied with ther rations, both in quality and quantity. Captains now uniformly draw for rations, and generally in proper form. The cooking is greatly improved. About forty per cent. of the regi-ments here form company funds. Three months ago only one regiment of the volunteers did.
