CONRESSIONAL SUMMARY. EXCHANGING PRISONERS. A Bill on the Question Passed the House. THE KERRIGAN COURT MARTIAL THE SLIDELL AND MASON PROTEST. WASHINGTON, Dec. 9. The bill introduced by Mr. HUTCHINS, of Ohio, to-day proposes unconditionally to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia. The notice for a caucus to-night at the capitol was read after the House adjourned, invited the attendance of the Republicans of both houses on matters of importance, whereupon Mr. VALLANDIGHAM expressed his surprise at the continuance of king caucus reign. He thought gentlemen intended to carry on their no party profession As to-morrow and Wednesday will be devoted by Congress to proceedings consequent on the death of Senators Baker and Bingham the House has postponed the consideration of the various slavery propositions before it until Thursday. Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania has modified his resolutions in several important particulars so as to include the declaration that there can be no solid and permanent Union so long as slavery exists, and all slaves should be proclaimed free, full compensation to be made to be made to those loyal masters who have been and continue to be supporters of the Union. The House Military Committee at their meeting this morning had before them the question of a general exchange of prisoners, and they have decided to report a bill for that purpose. A Committee from New York are here urging instant attention to this matter, on the President and Cabinet. Senator Wilkinson will introduce a resolution expelling Bright from the Senate. The Count de Paris visited the Senate this morning. Senator Hale's resolution relative to the abolition of the Supreme Court met with great opposition in the Senate to-day, and did not With a drill for the use of cavalry as pass. A bill has been introduced to-day in the House, making contractors who defraud the Government punishable under the charge of felony. 麗Among the important documents just transmitted to Congress, by the Secretary of the Ladies Sontags, Navy, is the protest of Messrs. Slidell and Mason against their arrest. It is quite long, to be raised on the volunteer system. G. W. Johnston, Provisional Governor o

> Southern Kentucky, has issued a long message. Colonel John S. Williams, with a body of roops numbering fourteen hundred men, is en camped at Pound Gap. They are suffering greatly for want of shoes, blankets and winter clothing, and are calling on the ladies of the country for socks and flannel shirts.

RICHMOND, Nov. 26 .--- Congress has unani nously ratified the convention between R. M Hunter and the Missouri Commissioners. MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga.-A resolution has been introduced into the State Senate, authorizing the Banks of the State to suspend specie payment and issue the confederate States' notes. The Memphis Avalanche, of the 4th, says the federal force, between Bowling Green and Louis ville, numbers fifty thousand, and that Generals Johnston and Buckner are prepared for them. Advices from Birds Point, to last Friday, stat that the steamer Grampus took a federal lumber boat, anchored above, with one hundred and seventy-five thousand feet of lumber, and brought it to Columbus. The federal troops have left Cairo and Paducah in large numbers It is supposed that they son.

The Avalanche confirms the Federal victory in Morristown, East Tennessee, and thinks Major General Orittenden will overcome the Union forces. , It was rumored at Memphis that the Federals become alarmed for the safety of St. Louis, and that Cairo and Paducah are being evacuated by the Federal troops who are going to St. Louis with all possible despatch.

The New Orleans Bulletin says that the federals have captured two rebel steamboats supposed to be the Henry Lewis and the Watson, and that the California escaped by throwing overboard part of her cargo and forty head of cattle.

The Charleston Mercury says that General fall into the hands of the enemy to be burned. The Savannah Republican says that the Sumter was not captured but wrecked off the Trinidad coast. Hollins's battering ram or turtle passed Memphis on the 4th inst., for Columbus, Ky.

Mr. FESSENDEN (Me.) thought that no harm could come from such an enquiry, and good might result. Congress might make the enquiry without in any way putting obstacles in the path of military officers. We see many things make an inquiry now into the causes and have any military or naval officer of the United States the matter settled promptly. The Senate was since the 4th of March last, relating to the pendthe matter settled promptly. The Senate was not under the control of military. They were States. not second but the first, and their requests are to be obeyed. They should perform their duty and calmly investigate the subject.

Mr. SHERMAN, (O.,) concurred with the Senator from Maine, but thought the enquiry should not be confined to the disasters of the war, but bor, there should be a general enquiry into and direct tax will be so modified the whole conduct of the war. Many or out the principles of just and equal taxation. Mr. UPTON, (Va.,) introduced a bill to faciliders had been given which might be inders had been given which might be in-quired into. Mr. GRIMES proposed to amend the substitute so as to appoint a joint committee consisting of three members of the Senate and four members of the House to investigate the condition of the present war.

Mr. HALE, (N. N.,) thought the resolutions vere not pointed enough and moved to add 'and especially the disasters at Ball's Bluff." Mr. WILSON (Mass.) said he was glad to see the resolution take a wider field. He thought it was time that the divers proclamations of officers should cease and the Government have a settled policy. We must remember, however, Ripley ordered every pound of cotton likely to that we have not many men of large military experience, and great mistakes have been made and will likely continue to be made; but he Bowery was visited by the police on Sunday wanted it to be understood by the military that night, and all the musicians, performe.s, singthe people expected that no such mistakes ers, bar keepers and the proprietor were should be made.

Mr. LATHAM, Cal.,) asked for the yeas and nays. The resolution was then agreed to--yeas 33, nays 3, viz : Messrs. Carlile, Latham and Rice. Absent Messrs.
