DAVIS' GREAT PANORAMA-The Last Opportuni ty.—The tide of popular favor still drifts to ton, the following appeared in an editorial nonightly filled with the fashion and elite of the written by the venerable W. W. Seaton :city to witness Davis' great panorama of America and the Rebellion. The great painting has attained a universal popularity, in this, the city of its creation, and is sought with avidity by Day, his oration on "Ine London Times on the all classes and ages. It is in every way striking rebellion and the War against the National and startling. So admirable is the creation, so perfect are the effects produced and brought death of Daniel Webster, commemorative of the out, that they are themes that we can only dwell life and character of that illustrious statesman, upon to praise and admire. To night is the last opportunity afforded our citizens to witness the painting, and we therefore advise all who have not yet seen it to be promptly on hand.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- Michael Burgoon, a fireman on one of the freight engines on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was killed between Cresson and Gallitzin, on Friday morning last, under the following circumstances:-He had descended from the engine to recover a great subject which I have read." pickaxe which had accidentally fallen from the tender; and while in the act of doing so, the as from Massachusetts, whereas he is a citizen of Fast Line West, the approach of which he had the State of New York, and has filled the chair of not noticed, came upon him, the cow-catcher Rhetoric and Oratory, both in the National Law striking and mutilating him in a shocking School at Ballston, and in the Law School at manner, causing instant death. INTERESTING CEREMONY TO-NIGHT .-- A magnificent silk flag, manufactured by the ladies of this city, and intended by there as a present to our townsman Harry Davis, the painter of the great panorama of America and the Rebellion, will be formally presented to the young artist at the close of the exhibition of the panorama in Brant's Hall this evening. The presentation will be made on the part of the ladies by A. J. Herr, and received personally by Mr. Davis. The flag is an extremely beautiful affair, reflecting much credit upon the taste, as well as the liberality of the fair doners. It is handsomely painted and lettered, the work of Mr. John Cruckshank, who vies with the ladies in his desire to pay this fitting tribure to the worth and genius of a brother artist. After the close of the presentation ceremonies the audience will be entertained by master George Bush, the celebrated infant drummer, who will beat his Together with a large lot of other Goods such farewell tatto to his Harrisburg friends. The State Capital Brass Band will also be in attendance and furnish appropriate music for the oc-

In this connection the National Intelligencer, says that a little incident occurred in the Senate on Thursday last, which is worthy of note. Mr. Grimes in rewhich is worthy of note. This sentiment called down such the colleges that the a round of applause from the galleries that the Vice President had promptly to rebuke it. There were present at the time quite a number of our brave volunteers, from whom this outburst of feeling spontaneously proceeded. We learn that there are a number of temperance societies in the various regiments, while there are whole regiments that refuse to touch a drop of ardent spirits, and hence it was said that the remark was so signally responded to.
