PROBABLE AMICABLE ARRANGEMENT OF THE TRENT AFFAIR.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18. At the bank meeting held to dy all the impending question of accounts with the Treasury Department were harmoniously adjusted. Secretary Chase stated that the present balances with the associated banks would be sufficient for the wants of the government till about the middle of January, before which time he had confident expectations that our military and naval ope-rations will give brilliant and decisive results, and he did not doubt that the question with Great Britain would have a pacific solution. :He made no propositions for further financial ar-
